

Subscription
$1 a Year in Advance

THE RED CLOUD CHIEF

Eight Pages
All
Home Print

VOLUME XXXIII.

RED CLOUD, NEBRASKA, NOVEMBER 17, 1905.

NUMBER 46

FLEISHER'S

YARNS

IN ALL COLORS AND GRADES

We have also placed in stock a fine line of

UNDERWEAR

We wish to call particular attention to our line of
INFANTS' READY-MADE WEAR

Made of good quality Cambric, deep hem, embroidery yoke, hemstitched ruffle in neck.....	25c
Fancy open work and embroidered yoke, hemstitched ruffle neck, good quality cambric.....	30c
Embroidered yoke, with embroidered ruffle, a good quality cambric, at.....	40c
Tucked and embroidered yoke, with embroidered ruffle, hemstitched in neck and sleeve.....	50c
Heavy corded yoke with embroidered ruffle, lace in neck and sleeves, embroidered ruffle around bottom.....	65c
Fancy open work and tucked yoke, embroidered ruffle, hemstitched ruffle in sleeves and neck.....	75c
Emb. and tucked yoke, emb. ruffle, hemstitched ruffle in neck and sleeves—made of good quality long cloth.....	75c
Pressed flannel Jackets from.....	25 to 50c
Crocheted Jackets from.....	75c to $1.00

F. NEWHOUSE
DRY GOODS AND NOTIONS, ETC.

land deal whereby he became the owner of the Cleveland farm east of town. Consideration $24,000.

Mrs. Sam Wright was operated upon the first of the week by Drs. Siagle and Kelihan for bone disease in one of her limbs caused by a bruise some time ago.

H. J. Asper of Lincoln township received word a few days ago that his team, wagon and harness that was stolen about two weeks ago had been located in Russell county.

John Alder, living over south of Athol was pretty badly disfigured while out hunting last Monday. While attempting to shoot a rabbit the gun burst and broke his nose, destroyed one ear drum, broke one rib and tore a thumb off.

BLOOMINGTON

(From the Advocate.)

Dr. Sumner reports the arrival of a girl baby at the home of Ernest Thompson.

Little Miss Ella Ruopp gave a pleasant party last Wednesday night in honor of her ninth birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Muzzy returned the first of the week from Portland, where they have been living.

Argie Cole was brought home recently from Cripple Creek, Colo., where he has been suffering with rheumatism.

It is reported that invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Minera Monk formerly of this office to Mr. A. J. Skiles of Ash Grove. The ceremony will take place November 15.

Sheriff Walrath was over to Quincy, Ill., the first of the week and brought back Jefferson Wilson, the party who embezzled a team of horses he was bringing down from Oxford for Wm. Quinn some time ago.

BLUE HILL

(From the Leader.)

Fred Gund was at Red Cloud this week.

Dr. Asher was up from Red Cloud Tuesday.

T. J. Ward of Red Cloud was in the city last Friday.

Otto King and wife of Bladen are the proud parents of a fine baby boy.

Wm. Boachman and wife are the proud parents of a pretty little girl, born Sunday.

At the Waffle hearing Thursday the defendant Pearl Waffle was bound over to the district court.

Wm. Copley and Mary Haller of Bladen were united in marriage last Wednesday, Judge Keeney officiating.

John Simpson died at his home in this city Tuesday afternoon, after an extended illness of dropsy. The funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Presbyterian church, Rev. Bretthauer conducting the services.

FRANKLIN

(From the Sentinel.)

Geo. O'Neal of South Dakota is here taking treatment from Dr. Byerly.

Dr. Dyerly reports the arrival of a son at the home of Chas. Sheets Monday.

Lieutenant Lodsing was soliciting funds for the Salvation army in this city Thursday.

Mrs. Belle Eichelbarger gave an elocutionary recital at the music hall Wednesday evening.

The palatial home of Mr. and Mrs. William Patterson, near Campbell was the scene of a brilliant wedding at high noon, Wednesday, Nov. 18, when their daughter, Miss Etha, became the bride of Wilhelm Scheuneman, Rev. Ellis, pastor of the Congregational church officiating.

The Burlington depot at this place came near being destroyed by fire last Monday, which caught in the roof from a spark from the engine of "16" about 10 o'clock. Agent Ayer phoned up town for assistance and in less than fifteen minutes nearly one hundred men were on the ground ready and anxious to do all possible assistance.

RIVERTON

(From the Review.)

Put Fuller returned from Lincoln Wednesday evening.

W. J. and J. V. Clark commenced work on the addition to Zeigler's store Monday morning.

Mrs. Frank Harwood had the misfortune to lose the end of her forefinger on the left hand in a hand corn sheller the fore part of the week.

John Lewis was born in Hamilton county, Ohio, January 29, 1829, and died Beaver township, Nov. 6, at the home of his son Adelbert Lewis.

J. M. Carnahan left Wednesday evening for Holdrege. Since his return from Colorado he has been quite badly afflicted with rheumatism.

Henry Plumb has been contemplating for some time putting in a saw mill to saw up the timber on his farm a couple of miles north.

SMITH CENTER

(From the Messenger.)

George Hawkins has a fine $1,600 house under construction at his fine farm northeast of town.

Rinchart & Sledge closed a deal the first of the week whereby they sold their jewelry stock to Ernest Rugger and Justin Johnson.

Thomas E. Knight has closed another

CORRESPONDENCE

Interesting Items Gathered
by Our County Reporters

LINE

Corn husking is the order of the day. S. C. Shuck is feeding 95 head of cattle.

B. S. VanDyke is fencing 12 acres hog-tight.

Mel Sherman is building a corn crib for W. J. Haskins.

Rev. J. J. Campbell and wife of North Branch called on friends in Line this week.

Clint Henderson and two sons of North Branch were the guests of Wm. Van Dyke Sunday.

Sparks from a thresher engine set fire to the prairie grass on Amos Gust's land and did some damage.

The Rev. Miss Goodwin will commence a series of meetings at Penney Creek school house, district No. 8, next Sunday. A cordial invitation is extended to all. Bring Pentecostal hymn book No. 3.

GARFIELD

George Simpson is shelling corn.

There was quite a number of faithful ones at the Wednesday evening prayer meeting this week.

James Wolf from Clark, Nebraska, arrived in Red Cloud Monday, for a short visit, with relatives here.

J. J. Ryan's stubble line was built last Thursday to the East Garfield Co.'s line, and he had an oyster supper at night for a small company of friends. A very enjoyable time was experienced by those present.

On Wednesday evening of this week, at the home of the bride's mother, Mr. George Bradshaw was married to Miss Clara Ailes, Rev. Davis of Red Cloud conducting the nuptial ceremony. A large circle of relatives were present. The bride has lived her all life and will be missed by her numerous friends, who all unite in wishing her a happy voyage over life's tempestuous sea.

BLADEN

J. L. Baker drove to Riverton Wednesday.

T. McTigh spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Duffey.

T. J. Riggins and family spent Sunday at D. O. Bennett's.

Grandma Moore, who has been quite sick, is reported better.

E. J. Soloman is building a new dwelling in the east part of town.

Mrs. Cowley spent Sunday with her son Charles, living south of town.

Miss Estelle Reichendifer spent Wednesday with Miss Grace Woodside.

Mrs. Ames of Cambridge is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Morse.

Mrs. D. H. Clark of Campbell is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Williams.

Mrs. Gerlach of Cowles was visiting at the home of Mrs. Cowley the first of the week.

Mr. Neiswanger is enjoying a visit with his sister from the western part of the state.

Mrs. Will Smith of Blue Hill was visiting at the home of Mrs. Strycker one day last week.

Mr. Henry and family, from east of Blue Hill, spent Sunday at the home of Dr. Koehler.

Mr. and Mrs. Wanfle returned from Ellwood Saturday, where they had been visiting their son Bert.

Quite a number from here attended Pete Warner's sale Thursday. Mr. Warner intends to move to Oklahoma soon.

Herman Feis and family returned to Red Cloud Sunday, after spending a week visiting friends and relatives at this place.

Mr. McHugh and Miss Collette drove over to Campbell Tuesday and were married in the Catholic church, returning to Bladen, where a sumptuous dinner was prepared for them by the bride's parents. There were quite a number present and all join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. McHugh a long and happy life.

LIVE STOCK MARKETS AT KANSAS CITY.

THE WEEK'S TRADE REPORTED BY
CLAY, ROBINSON & COMPANY,
LIVE STOCK COMMISSION
MERCHANTS.

OFFICES AT CHICAGO, KANSAS CITY,
OMAHA, BIOUX CITY, ST. JOSEPH AND DENVER.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 11—Receipts of cattle thus far this week are 37,400; last week, 39,900; last year, 37,300. Trade for beef steers Monday was slow and weak, but all other grades were steady and active. Today's market for beef steers was again draggy for all kinds with prices weak and tending lower. Cows and heifers sold steady to 10 cents off while stockers and feeders moved rather slowly at steady to weak quotations. Veals steady; bulls dull.

The following table gives prices now ruling.

Extra prime corn-fed steers.....	$5 50-6 00
Good corn fed steers.....	5 00-5 50
Ordinary corn fed steers.....	4 00-5 00
Choice corn fed heifers.....	4 75-5 25
Good corn fed heifers.....	4 10-4 75
Medium corn fed heifers.....	3 50-4 10
Choice corn fed cows.....	4 00-4 25
Good.....	3 25-3 75
Medium.....	2 75-3 25
Canners.....	1 50-2 25
Choice stags.....	4 00-4 50
Choice fed bulls.....	3 25-3 75
Good.....	3 00-3 25
Bologna bulls.....	2 00-2 50
Veal calves.....	5 00-6 00
Good to choice native or western stockers.....	3 50-3 85
Fair.....	3 25-3 50
Common.....	2 75-3 25
Good to choice heavy native feeders.....	3 85-4 25
Fair.....	3 50-3 75
Good to choice heavy branded horned feeders.....	3 25-3 60
Fair.....	3 00-3 25
Common.....	2 75-3 00
Good to choice stock heifers.....	2 75-3 00
Fair.....	2 25-2 75
Good to choice stock calves, steers.....	4 00-4 25
Fair.....	3 50-4 00
Good to choice stock calves, heifers.....	3 00-3 50
Fair.....	2 50-3 00

Receipts of hogs thus far this week are 27,200; last week, 23,100; last year, 25,800. Monday's market was weak to 5 cents lower and today ranged anywhere from 5 to 15 cents off with bulk of sales from $4 70 to 4.82½; top $4 85. This makes top lowest since last January.

Receipts of sheep thus far this week are 17,000; last week, 10,700; last year, 11,400. Monday's trade was weak to lower, the supply running largely to feeders. Today's figures were firm for desirable kinds; others steady. We quote—choice lambs, $6.50 to 7.00; choice yearlings, $5.50 to 5.75; choice wethers, $5.25 to 5.50; choice ewes, $5.00 to 5.25.

A MATTER OF HEALTH

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure
HAS NO SUBSTITUTE

A Cream of Tartar Powder, free from alum or phosphoric acid

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

Newsy Notes From Neighboring Towns

GATHERED FROM OUR EXCHANGES

SUPERIOR

(From the Journal.)

Dan Garber came in from Lincoln Tuesday and went to Red Cloud.

W. Parker of Red Cloud came in from Wichita, Kansas, Saturday.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Will Erwin, Wednesday evening, a daughter.

Dwight Wilson, of Red Cloud passed through Superior Tuesday on his way to Lincoln.

Mrs. Ducker, of Red Cloud, who has been visiting Dr. Beck's, returned Wednesday night.

M. A. Mercer went home to Red Cloud Wednesday, accompanied by A. Snapp, of Webber.

Miss Maud Needham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Needham, died Tuesday morning at 6:30.

The Degree of Honor gave W. P. Long, its treasurer, a very agreeable surprise last night. In the course of the evening's program the members presented him with a Morris chair.

Married, Sunday at high noon, at the home of Mrs. Jennie Kinkead, her daughter, Miss Edna to Mr. A. Cress. The ceremony was pronounced by Elder Umberger of the Baptist church.

LEBANON.

(From the Times.)

Everett Munsell sold his Rawlins county land last Thursday at a nice profit of $400.

M. A. Cole sold A. S. Hoag forty-eight head of hogs yesterday that averaged 354 pounds.

Dave Elliott of Reach vicinity had a dance in his new house Monday night, about fifty young people were present.

Mrs. Geo. M. Shook received a letter Sunday from her sister in Angleton, Texas, stating that her father, Fred Hurst fell off a load of lumber and