A MASTODON'S TOOTH

Rev. G. H. Rice Finds Tooth of a Prehistoric Animal.

Rev. George H. Rice, pastor of the Congregational church, while prowling around among the hills northwest of town on a pleasure excursion yesterday afternoon, found partly buried in the sand, in a draw, a tooth which is evidently all that is left of some prehistoric monster. The tooth measures 10½ inches in circumference, 3 inches in diameter and about 6 inches in length. Parts of the tooth have decayed and fallen away, but Dr. E. A. Thomas, who is well versed in toothology, says that there can be no mistake as to the character of the find. The enamel on the face and sides of the teeth is perfectly preserved. Mr. Rice considers his discovery a valuable one, and in the near future expects to make a further search in the hope of discovering other bones of the mastodon.

Brown is in Town.

Having sold my real estate business to Chapin and Chilson, therefore, offer 15 quarters (2400 acres) for $19200. Do not ask for any farther reduction in prices for have named the bottom dollar to insure a clean up by March 1st, 1906. Will sell all or in one half to five quarter tracts. Priced separately as follows: 800 acres at $6.25; 800 acres at $5.65; 480 acres at $13.75; 320 acres at $10.95. This is not in one body but all located on well improved roads, part improved and a large portion under cultivation.

Come and look—you will not find a vast area of unimproved land but the land of red barns and fine frame houses. If I was to drive you to a neighborhood (where there were no neighbors) you would understand that if any one was making investments there it would be the speculators, but on the other hand you should see in every direction big red barns and fine frame houses (such as can be seen in the Herndon territory) you would know you had struck the country where the farmers had come before you and to stay. Don't forget the children. To have good schools you must have tax payers in your school district. Take the Burlington route. C. L. Brown, Herndon, Kan.

Boy Injured.

Friday evening, while a number of small boys were playing in the street in front of J. O. Lindley's restaurant, some one driving a single horse and buggy drove rapidly up the street and Eugene Perry, aged about 10, was knocked down and run over. He was badly dazed for a moment or two, and when picked up it was found that he had a severe gash on his head which it required several stitches to close. It is thought a bolt on the under side of the buggy caused the cut.
