

Gold Coin Stock Foods

beat the record of all Stock Foods sold in this market.

Eighteen months' sales and not a single complaint, but many warm words of praise. A different food for each animal—Horse, Cattle, Hogs and Chickens. Try them. You can lose nothing, for they are guaranteed.

Chas. L. Cotting
The Druggist

LOGALETTES

Homer Morgan is on the sick list.
Julius Neuberry is on the sick list.
Go to Fred Plumb's for flour or feed.

Mrs. Frank Stokes is reported very ill.

Dr. E. A. Thomas, dentist, Damerel block.

Phil Cayer was up from Superior Sunday.

Ray Frame was down from Blue Hill Sunday.

Ross Pyle was up from Wymora Thursday.

Gus Soderberg is home from Lincoln for a visit.

Dan Garber went to Lincoln Tuesday morning.

Mrs. H. E. Grice returned from Inavale Thursday.

George Green's children are quite sick this week.

Seventy-five kinds of candies at the Soderberg Inn.

Milton Moreland of Imperial was in town yesterday.

J. A. Riddle of Hastings was in Red Cloud Wednesday.

Farm for rent. Inquire of A. H. Keeney, Red Cloud.

Mrs. Lon Eddy and son Fred were in Guide Rock Sunday.

Mrs. Tuileys came down from Napoleon Thursday morning.

Myrtle and Walter Kaley came up from Chester last night.

Take your poultry and hides to Plumb. Top prices paid.

John Rutledge is home from Hebron for a visit with his family.

Sheriff Hedge is building a residence on his farm north of town.

Isaac Myers is making preparations to move to Lebanon, Kansas.

Alva Sellars went to Omaha Wednesday morning on business.

It is said that Red Cloud is to have another billiard and pool hall.

Roy Garber and Everett Davis went to Hastings Wednesday noon.

Misses Hattie and Anna Fountain went to Denver Monday night.

Charles Fort was in the city the first of the week visiting his parents.

Mrs. Dwight Jones returned to her home in Guide Rock Wednesday.

John Rathjen will farm the Frank Taylor place, in Garfield township.

Ferry Gassoway of McCook was in Red Cloud Friday visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Carr are the parents of a baby girl, born Thursday.

Your boy wants to come to business college. Why don't you send him?

E. S. Garber went to Holly, Colo., Tuesday morning with land seekers.

Frank Hines and family are occupying the house vacated by Bob Fortune.

Not a rich corporation—but just plain J. O. Caldwell, for hard and soft coal.

Plumb the feed man will pay you the highest price for poultry, eggs and hides.

W. C. Taber of Lincoln is here visiting with his brothers, W. H. and O. W. Taber.

There seems to be a small sized "bull" movement in the matrimonial market.

Charles Tarr of Sabetha, Kansas, was in the city today visiting his brother.

W. A. Kent shipped 61 head of hogs and a car of cattle to Kansas City Tuesday.

Mrs. Flora Giffin of Superior was visiting in Red Cloud Sunday with relatives.

Educate the mind and heart at the business college and leave the pocket until later.

Mrs. Walter Roby and children left for Lincoln Wednesday morning to visit relatives.

Mrs. Osborn of Plattsmouth arrived in Red Cloud last night to visit the Taylor family.

C. H. Miner went to Chicago Thursday morning to purchase his spring stock of goods.

C. E. Putnam says he will be a candidate for the nomination for representative this fall.

Have you any claims against estates or notes to sell? A. H. Keeney, Att'y, Damerel Block.

Mrs. C. H. Kaley and son Charles went to Orleans Sunday night for a visit with friends.

H. A. Johnson will sell 25 head of range horses at Winfrey's sale yards, Saturday, March 3.

John Egghoffer of St. Louis visited the first of the week with his sister, Mrs. F. Bradbrook.

Mrs. Isaac Myers went to Chicago Saturday morning to visit her sister and other relatives.

Miss Daisy Sellars went to Kansas City Saturday morning, after a visit here with relatives.

I am now prepared to supply my customers with all grades of new wall paper. H. E. Grice.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Geer and son of Superior visited over Sunday with W. K. Geer and wife.

County Treasurer W. C. Frahm went to Logan, Iowa, the first of the week on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Fortune departed Monday for Hebron, where they will make their future home.

"Saph" Rosenorans arrived from Illinois Wednesday evening for a visit with friends and relatives.

See Miss Daisy Ashmore in "A True Kentuckian" at the opera house on Tuesday night, February 27.

Will Kent has purchased the Wm. Holsworth farm, north of town, and will take possession March 5.

Mr. Carroll and family of Illinois have moved to Red Cloud and will make this their future home.

Jack Edwards and George Hollister went to St. Joe Monday to attend a meeting of the Mystic Shrine.

Frank Taylor has returned to Wichita, Kansas. On his way back he took a car of cattle to Kansas City.

When you get a hair cut, shave and bath at Manspeaker's barber shop you will feel like a new man. Try it.

Dr. M. U. Thomas' family has arrived and will occupy the Will West property, in the north part of town.

Lou Teachworth of Wilcox, Neb., is renewing old acquaintances in Red Cloud. He was called here by the illness of his sister, Mrs. Chas. Frisbie.

What has become of the movement inaugurated a short time ago to organize a commercial club in Red Cloud?

"A True Kentuckian," a comedy melo-drama, will appear at the opera house on Tuesday night, February 27.

Mrs. O. R. Amick of Oxford arrived in Red Cloud Wednesday morning for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Amick.

You will get your money's worth if you go to the opera house next Tuesday night and see "A True Kentuckian."

The Bell Telephone Co.'s public pay station has been moved from Grice's drug store to Frank Smith's shoe store.

The Evening Whist club were very pleasantly entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Storey Thursday evening.

Cliff Pope returned the close of last week from Lincoln, where he had been attending the hardware dealers' convention.

As Mayor Dickenson has moved his family to the country, it looks as if we will have to elect a new mayor for the coming year.

Mrs. J. R. Mercer went to Lincoln Wednesday morning to visit with her husband, who is at the sanitarium taking treatment.

The Junior Whist club was entertained by Misses Nell Warren and Fannie Bentley at the former's home Tuesday night.

Methusala was all right, you bet.

For a good old soul was he. They say he would be living yet. Had he taken Rocky Mountain Tea. C. L. Cotting.

Earl Crabill now has a position as railway mail clerk on the main line of the Union Pacific, running from Omaha to Denver.

Ward Hayes has moved his barber shop to the new location, in Pope Bros' new building, just west of the Polnick building.

Charley Garber of Esbon, Kan., was in town Sunday on his way to St. Francis, Kansas, where he had a real estate deal on hand.

Mr. and Mrs. Arch Redden and baby returned to their home in Nelson Wednesday morning, after a visit with E. M. Crone and family.

Two two inch points have been received for the test wells to be sunk by the city north of town, and the work has already been begun.

Dell and Fred Turnure are both confined to their homes, the former with a severe attack of lagrippe and the latter with stomach trouble.

I. B. Stanser was out north of River-ton the first of the week, where he adjusted a claim of $900 on a barn which was recently burned.

W. H. VanPatten came home from Holly, Colorado, last Friday, returning to that place Sunday. He is well pleased with his new location.

I make a specialty of collecting notes, bills and all personal accounts. Call or address D. R. Girren, Lindley's restaurant. Terms reasonable.

The Slayton Jubilee Singers will appear in Red Cloud Tuesday evening, March 6. This is the finest organization of colored singers on the road.

At the recent midwinter commencement exercises of the Nebraska University Ancil B. Crabill of Red Cloud received the degree of bachelor of arts.

Wanted—Bright, honest young man from Red Cloud to prepare for paying position in Government Mail Service. Box one, Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Feb 23.

There will be a special meeting of the W. R. C. at the home of Mrs. H. A. Howard next Tuesday evening. All members are requested to be present.

THE CHIEF now has a rural telephone. If you have any news items, or want to know anything that you think we are able to tell you, call up phone 24.

There are yet a few who have not called to settle their indebtedness to this paper, despite repeated promises to do so. We need the money and need it badly.

A good, big bunch of our SPRING SUITS

are in and are attractive enough for you to spare a few minutes to look at them. Nothing like them in this part of the country, and we certainly are entitled to the careful consideration of Clothing buyers who want to dress right for Spring and Summer.

Selz Shoes in all Styles and Qualities. Prices always right.

The Cowden-Kaley Clothing Co.,

ALWAYS RELIABLE

First Door North of Postoffice, Red Cloud, Nebr.

The ladies of the W. R. C. will give a dinner at the Masonic hall Saturday, March 3. They will also have on sale a few aprons, sunbonnets, and a couple of quilts.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Bomford went to Wilber Tuesday morning and from there will go to Omaha, where Mrs. Bomford will purchase her spring stock of millinery.

What did Rastus do? Go and see "A True Kentuckian" at the opera house next Tuesday night and find out. Prices 25, 35 and 50 cents. Seats on sale at the usual place.

R. D. Hartson was in Red Cloud Monday visiting friends. He was on his way to his home in Seattle, Washington, after a pleasant visit with relatives in Iowa, Wisconsin and Minnesota.

Dr. Weirick & Riddle, oculists and aurists of Hastings, will meet eye, ear, nose and throat patients and those needing glasses fitted in Dr. Creighton's office in Red Cloud, Friday, March 9.

Good looks bring happiness. Friends care more for us when we meet them with a clean, smiling face, bright eyes sparkling with health, which comes by taking Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. C. L. Cotting.

The next spelling and cyphering contest at the Business college will be held March 1. Please remember that those who want to enroll as contestants must have their names on the roll and be in place at 7:30.

Chester Cox, who has been manager of the rural telephone exchange here for some time, has accepted a similar position with the Guide Rock Telephone Co., and will assume his new duties the first of March.

Conductor Tom McCarl is stepping high and warbling lullabys like a canary around upper C since yesterday morning, when the stork visited his home and left a precious little baby girl.—McCook Republican.

Frank Henson has purchased the Manspeaker barber shop. Vic Manspeaker goes to Hastings today, and from there will probably go to Lincoln to live. Marion Mercer will assist Mr. Henson in the shop.

Dr. Warrick, the specialist, will meet eye, ear, nose and throat patients and those needing glasses properly fitted at Dr. Damerel's office in Red Cloud, Tuesday, February 27. Dr. Warrick will have his machine for testing eyes.

At the meetings in Rochester, Minn., where evangelists Sunday and Honeywell have just closed a four weeks' engagement, 1244 converts were reported. Mr. Honeywell alternated with Mr. Sunday in preaching the sermons.

Don't miss seeing the big production of "A True Kentuckian" at the opera house on next Tuesday night. Special scenery and scenic effects. Lots of specialties between and during the acts. Prices 25, 35 and 50 cents. Seats on sale at the usual place.

Annual meeting of the Red Cloud creamery association is called to meet at the court house March 3, at 1:30 for the purpose of electing officers and the transaction of such other business as may regularly come before it. Annual dividends will also be paid at that time.

At the Congregational church Sunday morning the pastor will present the plan of the new merger of the Congregationalists, United Brethren, and Protestants Methodists, which was lately consummated at Dayton, Ohio. Evening sermon theme: "A Soul Sacrifice." Afternoon meeting at the McCall school house.

Prospects are good for Red Cloud securing the interstate reunion again this fall. Business men who have been sounded upon the matter express a willingness so contribute liberally to the fund necessary to secure the reunion, and there seems little doubt that Red Cloud will have the reunion this fall. The reunion of 1904 is still talked of by those attended from other places, and should the G. A. R. decide to hold their annual gathering here there would undoubtedly be a record-breaking attendance.

That Settles It.

When a Colorado sand stone walk is laid that settles it. See Overing Bros. & Co. for prices.

JUST A WORD TO YOU ABOUT

Tea and Coffee

I would like to get you to try a can of my 35c BARRINGTON HALL STEEL CUT COFFEE.

I am sure you would always be a customer. (Once tried always used.) My package TEA at 60c a pound is the best that money can buy. Other

TEA

at 40, 50 and 75c a pound

Sour Pickles at 5 cents a Dozen

GIVE ME A CALL

Telephone 79.

B. E. McFarland

Now Is the Time

To set the "wooden hen" if you want to get early chickens.

More important is the kind of an incubator you use.

"HIAWATHA" Incubators

are "Honest Injun" Hatchers

HEATS EVENLY
REGULATES PERFECTLY
HATCHES SURELY

They are hot air incubators. No cold corners, no leaky tanks, no sudden changes of temperature. Positively the easiest operated and the most satisfactory incubator on the market.

"NOT HOW CHEAP, BUT HOW GOOD."

On exhibition and sold exclusively by

MORHART BROS. Hardware Co.