

Gold Coin Stock Foods

beat the record of all Stock Foods sold in this market.

Eighteen months' sales and not a single complaint, but many warm words of praise. A different food for each animal—Horse, Cattle, Hogs and Chickens. Try them. You can lose nothing, for they are guaranteed.

Chas. L. Cotting The Druggist

LOCALETTES

Go to Fred Plumb's for flour or feed J. P. Hale is in Lincoln this week.

Dr. E. A. Thomas, dentist, Damerell block.

Chester Cox was in Guide Rock Saturday.

G. W. Lindsey went to Chicago Saturday.

J. H. Bailey was in Guide Rock Wednesday.

Bert Dickey is quite sick with the measles.

John Rutledge returned to Hebron Tuesday.

Mabel Winfrey has been sick with tonsillitis.

Rev. Hill of Inavale was in town on Saturday.

W. E. Rife of Beatrice is in the city this week.

Ray Frame was in Franklin the first of the week.

Ned Grimes was down from Blue Hill Tuesday.

Seventy-five kinds of candies at the Soderberg Inn.

Lent began on Wednesday. Are you keeping it?

Orval Watson is the new clerk at the Royal hotel.

Omer Doling went to Lincoln Wednesday morning.

Troy Mills and wife were down from Cowles Tuesday.

Gus Soderburg returned to Lincoln Saturday morning.

Rev. Bates returned from North Platte Tuesday noon.

Mrs. Adam Morhart has been sick during the past week.

A. E. Schmidt is in Hiawatha, Kan., this week on business.

Hampton Wisecarver has moved to the Seammon property.

Take your poultry and hides to Plumb. Top prices paid.

Mrs. J. A. Tulleys returned to her home in Naponee Thursday.

A great many of the farmers are at work in the fields this week.

D. R. Whittaker was on the Kansas City market with stock Monday.

Your boy wants to come to business college. Why don't you send him?

Mrs. J. A. Gardner returned to her home in Wymore Tuesday morning.

Roy M. Conaughy is visiting his parents in Nebraska City this week.

Walter Means is building a dwelling house on his farm northwest of town.

Mrs. E. B. Smith and son Vaughn went to Beatrice Wednesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Means are the parents of a girl baby, born Tuesday.

Not a rich corporation—but just plain J. O. Caldwell, for hard and soft coal.

Plumb the feed man will pay you the highest price for poultry, eggs and hides.

Kenneth Williams has accepted a position in the McFarland grocery store.

Chas. Whittaker shipped his household goods to Holly, Colorado, this week.

E. U. Overman was attending to legal business in Smith Center this week.

Miss Nelle Sherman is home from Lincoln, where she has been for three weeks.

Mrs. Simons of Hastings is lying ill at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. O. Butler.

Mrs. S. F. Spikesfield went to Hebron Wednesday morning to visit relatives.

Miss Nell Martindale is home from Blue Hill, where she has been visiting her sister.

Educate the mind and heart at the business college and leave the pocket until later.

Have you any claims against estates or notes to sell? A. H. Keeney, Att'y, Damerell Block.

John J. Garber has resigned his position as teacher of penmanship at the business college.

An addition will be built on to the rear of the McFarland store next week for a ware room.

Numbers of houses in town are being reshingled this week in anticipation of the spring rains.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Skeen have returned from an extended visit in Eureka Springs, Ark.

Miss Mary Nicholson of Omaha is in Red Cloud visiting with her brothers, the Nicholson boys.

I am now prepared to supply my customers with all grades of new wall paper. H. E. Grice.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed McAlister are the proud parents of a baby boy born Wednesday morning.

Frank Abbey has moved from the VanPetten farm on Indian Creek to a farm near Blue Hill.

Ed Walters departed for Lincoln Saturday for a short visit before going to the City of Mexico.

George McCrary is head pencil pusher on the Nation this week during the absence of J. P. Hale.

The Ladies Aid society of the M. E. church will hold their annual Easter bazaar, Saturday, April 14.

Rev. A. E. Tichnor of Milton, Iowa, officiated as clergyman at the Hale-Emick wedding last week.

Alf McCall has rented the Hampton house in the northeast part of town and will move into it at once.

Mrs. C. H. Jones and children were in Red Cloud Tuesday enroute from Franklin to Gothenburg, Neb.

Dr. M. U. Thomas reports the arrival of a son at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Fogg, Wednesday.

Ed Seaton lost about fifteen tons of hay by a fire which was started by a Burlington engine last Saturday.

E. F. F. has closed a contract to erect a bank building in Herndon, Kansas, and will commence it in two weeks.

L. A. Haskins returned from Elroy, Wisconsin, Friday night, where he had been to see his mother, who is sick.

Chas. Bushee purchased the Denson house and will move into it at an early date. Consideration was $1,200.

J. R. Moore and wife returned from Lincoln this week, where Mr. Moore has been taking treatment of a specialist.

George Coon is undergoing the ashes of mumps this week. He is just learning how much joy he missed when a boy.

Mrs. M. Neil and children of Lawrence arrived in the city Tuesday night and will make this place their future home.

Lew Soderberg returned from Kearney Saturday, where he had been called by the sickness and death of his sister.

Geo. J. Warren represented the Com-Ad at the State press association or the h. e. appointed him a delegate, at least.

Remember the Slayton Jubilee Singers at the opera house next Tuesday evening. Get your tickets at Grice's drug store.

Methusala was all right, you bet. For a good old soul was he. They say he would be living yet. Had he taken Rocky Mountain Tea. C. L. Cotting.

Mrs. George Bradshaw, who has been visiting relatives in Red Cloud returned to her home in Superior Wednesday morning.

Jas. Peterson has been decorating the interior of his vacant store building this week preparatory to renting it for a billiard hall.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wright returned to their home in Hebron Wednesday, after a few days visit at the home of D. M. Abel and family.

During the absence of the editor in Lincoln this week Rev. George H. Rice kindly took charge of the editorial and repertorial work.

Jas. Bogenrief is planning the erection of a new dwelling house in the near future. He will move into town from his farm in Garfield.

L. A. Haskins returned from Elroy, Wisconsin, to see his aged mother, who has been dangerously sick. He reports her to be no better.

While our two local contemporaries are handing bouquets to each other in such a beautiful way they might at least allow the rest of us a small.

Don't forget E. B. Goble's big sale of 210 head of stock on the Moon ranch three miles west of town, Thursday, March 8, at 10 a. m. Everybody come.

The business college is organizing a baseball team which will be heard from in the future. Several of the regular Red Cloud ball team will play in it.

Rev. E. C. Davis left on Thursday for Edgar to help in a series of special meetings. His pulpit will be supplied on Sunday by Rev. Coonrod of that place.

Walter Warren is planning to move his family here from Chariton, Iowa, as soon as he can secure a house. He expects to make Red Cloud his future home.

Drs. Weirick & Riddle, oculists and aurists of Hastings, will meet eye, ear, nose and throat patients and those needing glasses fitted in Dr. Creighton's office in Red Cloud, Friday, March 9.

The ladies of the W. R. C. will give a dinner in the Damerell block Saturday, March 3. They will also have a few aprons, sunbonnets, and a couple of quilts.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Tait and Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Phares and wife were east bound passengers Monday enroute to the State Press Association meeting at Lincoln.

Mrs. Ed McCune, who has been sick for the past three weeks is so much improved that the family has been able to move into their new house in the west part of town.

Mrs. J. R. Harrington went to Superior Wednesday morning to visit her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Bradshaw. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. F. A. Smith.

Ed Gillard is planning to give up his business in Naponee and go on the road as traveling salesman. If he does so his family will make Red Cloud their home in the future.

The Odd Fellows lodge of Guide Rock have fixed April 26 as the date for the dedication of their new hall and have invited the Red Cloud lodge to participate in the ceremonies.

Now Is the Time

To set the "wooden hen" if you want to get early chickens.

More important is the kind of an incubator you use.

"HIAWATHA" Incubators

are "Honest Injun" Hatchers

HEATS EVENLY
REGULATES PERFECTLY
HATCHES SURELY

They are hot air incubators. No cold corners, no leaky tanks, no sudden changes of temperature. Positively the easiest operated and the most satisfactory incubator on the market.

"NOT HOW CHEAP, BUT HOW GOOD."

On exhibition and sold exclusively by

MORHART BROS. Hardware Co.

A good, big bunch of our SPRING SUITS are in and are attractive enough for you to spare a few minutes to look at them. Nothing like them in this part of the country, and we certainly are entitled to the careful consideration of Clothing buyers who want to dress right for Spring and Summer.

Selz Shoes in all Styles and Qualities. Prices always right.

The Cowden-Kaley Clothing Co., ALWAYS RELIABLE

First Door North of Postoffice, Red Cloud, Nebr.

The building on Webster street occupied by Fred Plumb as a feed store was sold at sheriff's sale on Wednesday and purchased by C. H. Potter for $494.00. It formerly belonged to John O. Yeiser.

George Reed has decided to return to the tiling of the soil in the spring, and will give up his position with John Griffith as soon as the farming season opens. He will move on to a farm on Elm creek.

David Davis, who has been sick with pneumonia, died at his home in Bladen on Wednesday and was buried Thursday at 11 o'clock in Plainview cemetery. He leaves a family to mourn his loss.

For an exclusive claim to the right to produce the drama it advertised the "True Kentuckian" which held forth at the opera house Tuesday evening was pronounced by those who saw it as "unspeakably rotten."

Robert McBride is moving his cottage twenty feet north of its present location and will put it on to a new foundation. He is making his newly acquired property as homelike as any in that section of the city.

A. A. Frame and family expect to move on to their farm near Blue Hill this week, and last Saturday evening the friends in their part of town tendered them a surprise party and spent the evening in social pleasantries.

Three indications of spring are abroad in the land: The robin and the meadow lark, the small boy with his marbles and the housewife with her carpets on the line in the back yard. Men are scarce around home as a result.

Mrs. Henry McCune and Miss Ethel McKeighan were at Inavale during the past week caring for the sick children of Clarence Jones and wife. The entire family have been wrestling with the mumps.

Frank Beal's colt indulged in a lively runaway last Thursday evening in the north end of town, and Frank was considerably shaken up as a result. Fortunately nothing serious resulted from the incident.

Naponee has organized a law and order league and is preparing to make war upon joints and bootleggers. We may expect interesting developments if the nerve of the law abiding part of the hamlet does not fail.

Morhart Bros. are busy this week preparing their new storeroom for use, and have cut through the dividing partition in two places. They will be in much better position to display their immense stock when this work is finished.

Neil Lindsey took advantage of his father's absence on Monday to disappear from his home for the second time. Mrs. Lindsey reported the fact to Sheriff Hedge and someone informed him that the boy had gone to Bladen. While Mr. Hedge was searching for him, however, John Crans discovered the boy wandering about in the yards near the Burlington station and took care of him until his mother could be notified.

George Baylor will move to town next week and take possession of the rural telephone office as "central." He will undertake the running of the switchboard with the assistance of his family and will care for the lines over the system.

When the bridge has been repaired the people on the south side of the river would greatly appreciate having some strong railings placed at points on the west road where the river has forced it up against the bluff and made it dangerous.

P. C. Phares has been with his paper, the Red Cloud Chief for the last twenty-two years. "We have the files of our paper complete for the past thirty-four years," he said last night. "I run a column called 'Twenty Years Ago,' which is read with as much interest as the late news."—Lincoln Star.

Mrs. Hannah Garber will return Boulder, Colo., next week bringing Anson Garber with her. E. S. Garber says that if his son's health will permit he will probably move back on to the farm near Guide Rock, where they can live out of doors and let nature do her work in healing Anson of his sickness.

A Few Leaders

Dill Pickles, each 1c
Sour Pickles, doz. . . . 5c
XXXX Coffee, lb. . . . 15c
Lion Coffee, lb. . . . 15c
Arbuckle's Coffee, lb. 15c
Bell Coffee, lb.
. 20, 30 and 35c
Barrington Hall, the steel cut Coffee, lb. . . 35c
Large Mackerel, ea. . 10c
Whole Codfish, lb. . . 8c

The supply is unlimited.

I can save you money on Groceries.

Give me a trial.

Highest Price for Good COUNTRY BUTTER

The Bee Hive Grocery

B. E. McFarland

PROPRIETOR.

Rural phone 35. Bell phone 79.