

For Coughs and Colds

There is a remedy over sixty years old—Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Of course you have heard of it, probably have used it. Once in the family, it stays; the one household remedy for coughs and hard colds on the chest. Ask your doctor about it.

"I have had pneumonia three times, and Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has brought me safely through each time. I have just recovered from my last attack, aged sixty-seven. No wonder I praise it."—E. V. HIGGINS, Stevens Point, Wis.

EXCURSION.

To the Sunny El Rito Valley, New Mexico, Will Leave Red Cloud Tuesday, April 3, 7 A. M.

Are you one of the party to visit this garden spot of the world? Do you want to see the great Southwest country?

We go by Denver, then take the Rio Grande railroad through some of the grandest scenery in the world.

Irrigated lands now only $40 per acre, will be worth $100. Remember, $40 pays for land and perpetual water right fully paid.

New townsites in the El Rito valley, in the center of the fruit growing district. The land is subdivided in 10 acre tracts for fruit growing, thereby making a beautiful and delightful place to live. These tracts go on the same liberal terms as the larger tracts, at $50 per acre. One-fifth cash, balance in five equal payments.

Grain and Vegetables—Everything common to the south temperate zone is raised, including corn, wheat, oats, rye, barley, clover, variety of vegetables of the best quality, potatoes, sweet potatoes, beans, peas, beets, the finest quality of sugar beets, turnips, pumpkins, squash, melons, cantaloupes, tomatoes, celery and other vegetables.

Come join this party. Remember the date, April 3, 7 a. m. Fare for the round trip, $29.55.

J. P. HALE, The Real Estate Man.

Building Collapses.

Thursday morning about half past four a large beam in the front part of Boren's livery barn gave way and came near causing the collapse of the entire front part of the building. The front of the building is built of brick, and in the upper story there was stored about 60 tons of baled hay. There were no posts supporting this heavy load, and a large beam stretching from east to west across the center cut through the brick wall on the east for a distance of about two feet. This caused the west wall to bow out about a foot, and it will be necessary to tear down and rebuild the west wall of the building. There was no one in the building at the time except the night hostler, who was sleeping in the office.

He did not wait to put on his clothes, but used Webster street for a dressing room. The building is owned by E. U. Overman.

Overman for Float Representative.

The following is taken from yesterday's Lincoln Star:

"Some interest is being manifested in the coming legislative campaigns. Candidates are being mentioned and several have announced their willingness to run. Among those already spoken of is E. U. Overman, a well-known Red Cloud attorney, who would like to be float representative from Webster and Adams counties."

Well, why not? There is probably no man in the two counties better qualified than Mr. Overman. However, this is our first intimation that he had his eye on a seat in the Legislature. We have for some time had a faint suspicion that he had loftier aims—a seat in Congress or the district judgeship, either of which positions he is competent to fill with dignity and honor to his constituents.

Painful Accident.

The little daughter of County Clerk Lee DeTour suffered a painful accident which might have resulted very seriously. As she was passing through a doorway in their barn an ax which was hanging over the doorway fell and struck the little girl a glancing blow on the head, cutting a severe gash. The ax fell about four feet, and had the blade struck the child fairly the result would have been very serious.

Sullivan Has Not Sold Out.

Last week someone started a story that Will Sullivan had sold his lumber yard in this city and that it would be consolidated with one of the other yards. A letter received by a friend from Mr. Sullivan states that there is no truth in the report, and that should he sell at all it will be to someone who will continue to run the yard as an independent concern.

Notice.

The statement which has been gotten out to the effect that I have sold my yard to my competitors is absolutely untrue, as I have not sold my lumber yard to them, neither do I intend to sell to them. I wish to further say to all of my customers, that I sincerely appreciate what they have done for me and hope to receive a continuation of their patronage. While of course you all realize that I have a hard proposition to go up against in the way of competition, inasmuch as I have two yards to buck against, both of whom are bending every effort to drive me out of business, and the further fact that I am handicapped on account of the condition of my health, this fact alone makes it doubly hard for me to cope with the situation. You must remember that it is only by the co-operation of those interested in the eradication of trusts and combinations and also the satisfaction of knowing that when you buy a dollar's worth of material you will get value received that the desired result will be obtained.

It will further be remembered that for nearly two and one half years I have been struggling against a double-handed deal and during this time I have saved the farmers and consumers of Webster and adjoining counties thousands and thousands of dollars. I have forced lumber and building material of all kinds from the extreme highest price down to a legitimate profit. In other words, I brought the price down and made it possible for people to build and improve their homes.

You may rest assured that I will bend every effort to keep competition with you. On the other hand, I will expect you all to assist me in this work. I hardly think it is fair for you to expect me to fight two yards. I am willing to meet any one of them, and with your hearty co-operation in this matter you can rely on a continuation of competition. I wish to state that as soon as my health permits I shall be with you, and you will find Sullivan's lumber yard doing business in the same old place and in the same old way.

Yours truly
WILL SULLIVAN.

"The Folks Up Willow Creek."

Frank S. Davidson and his company gave a very creditable performance of the comedy-drama "The Folks Up Willow Creek" at the opera house last night. Mr. Davidson is versatile and his portrayal of the various character sketches which he assumes was good, his "Dr. Gregoire" being exceptionally fine. "Landers" the villain, gave one the impression that he was hurrying through his lines from fear that he would forget them. With the exception of the weakness of the villain and a rather "smutty" parody on "In the Shade of the Old Apple Tree," sung by "Silas," and which at least a part of the audience appeared to appreciate, the entertainment was very enjoyable.
