

Special Discount

—ON—

FANCY LAMPS

TO CLOSE OUT STOCK.

COME IN AND SEE THEM.

Chas. L. Cotting
The Druggist

LOCALETTES

Dr. Raines is in Lincoln this week.
F. W. Studebaker has the mumps.
Dr. E. A. Thomas, dentist, Damerell block.
Lucile Davis is sick with the measles.
Eli Cox of Bladen was in the city Monday.
E. O. Garner was down from Inavale Monday.
Dr. Hall was down from Cowles

Wednesday.
Mrs. E. A. Moranville went to Guide Rock Sunday.
W. A. Howard was up from Guide Rock Monday.
Born, Monday, to Mr. and Mrs. John O-berne, a son.
Mrs. Dwight Jones is up from Guide Rock this week.
Bloomington went dry in the election on Tuesday.
Mrs. Dora Wilson of Inavale was in Red Cloud Monday.
Born, to Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brown, Tuesday, a baby boy.
Attend the stock sale at Cowles, Saturday April 14, 1906
Frank Vough of Kearney is the new clerk at the Bon Ton.
R. D. Gaston of St. Joseph, Mo., was a Red Cloud visitor Friday.
Miss Mabel Howard is home from Sromsburg for a brief visit.
Miss Cora Tuileys was down from Lincoln the first of the week.
Will Duvoid went to McCook Friday to see about selling his claim.
Mrs. M. Finch returned to her home in Wray, Colorado, this morning.
Misses Mamie and Inez Ellis are spending their vacation in Lincoln.
Mrs. John McCune went to Kearney Thursday noon to visit her parents.
Mrs. Florence Mitchell will return to her home in Glenwood, Iowa, today.
Miss Helen Walters of Blue Hill is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. C. Frahm.
Roscoe Cather came home from Fallerton to spend the spring vacation.
Mrs. G. W. Hutchison went to Hastings Saturday for a visit with relatives.
George Hutchison and son Ray are at the Platte river hunting ducks this week.
Mrs. Eugene Hunter of Riverton is visiting with Mrs. A. A. Pope this week.
Misses Grace and Lucille Grice are in Lincoln, the guests of Miss Pattie Galusha.
Mrs. Patterson of Campbell was visiting at the home of A. T. Walker on Wednesday.
Ladies, attention! The rose bush offer in this issue of the CHIEF is for your benefit.
George S. Bense returned to Denver

Monday night, after a two weeks visit in Red Cloud
Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wolfe this week moved to the farm recently vacated by Albert Wright
Miss Myrie Gittings went to her home in Superior Saturday for a week's vacation.
Mrs. Walter Garner of Inavale was having dental work done at Dr. Thomas' Monday.
Miss Mildred Thompson is spending her vacation from school duties at her home in Stamford.
Miss Vernon Storey is visiting in Plattsmouth at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wescott.
Miss Daisy Phillips left Monday for LaGrande, Oregon, where she will visit her brother.
J. F. Harbaugh of Holdrege was doing business at the office of county judge on Wednesday.
Six choice rose bush plants free with The Weekly Inter Ocean and this paper, all for only $1.50.
Mrs. Josie Moranville moved into her residence Monday, just vacated by C. W. Bushce and family.
Mr. Sheeley and wife of Guide Rock were in the city Saturday and Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Sauer.
J. S. White came down from University Place Wednesday morning to look after some real estate business.
Will Fulton and daughter were down from Riverton Monday visiting relatives in Red Cloud Monday.
Mrs. H. Squires of Esbon, Kansas, is in Red Cloud this week visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. Frank Smith.
Anson Garber has accepted a position in a store in Guide Rock and will enter upon his duties next week.
WANTED—position by experienced and competent stenographer. Address Grace A. Winter, Hastings, Nebr.
Make home pleasant and life worth living by having roses. You can have them free. See offer in this issue.
C. W. Brigham, representing the Crancer Piano Co. of Lincoln, was in Red Cloud Wednesday on business.
Don't forget that there is another election next Monday, even more important than last Tuesday's election.
That we lead all competitors is proven by our rose bush offer in this issue. Act today. It is for a limited time only.
Mrs. Tuileys and son Allen came in from Naponee Tuesday morning and will make Red Cloud their future home.
The repair work on Boren's barn is nearly done. The work interfered but little with the regular course of business.
Mrs. Stonebreaker is improving her residence property this week by placing new porches in both front and rear of the property.
All of the saloonkeepers have filed their petitions for licenses, notices of which will be found on another page of today's paper.
John Barber and wife of Concordia, Kansas, arrived in Red Cloud, Thursday night and are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ed McCune.
G. H. Hollister has purchased the property south of the Christian church and will soon commence the erection of a new residence.
The CHIEF always leads and never follows. A garden of roses is given free to every subscriber. See offer printed elsewhere.
The Weekly Inter Ocean offers a garden of roses free with each yearly subscription. Call at the CHIEF office for full information.
The morning sermon theme at the Congregational church on Sunday will be "Thou Standest on Holy Ground." Evening service at 8 p. m.
The Brunswick barber shop is equipped with bath tubs and all modern appliances. Under Taber's billiard hall. Frank Henson, proprietor.
There will be a public sale of mitch cows and young cattle at the Cowles stock yards at 1 o'clock, Saturday, April 14. Don't forget the date.
Rev. Rice received a call to the pastorate of the Congregational church in Edmonds, Washington, this week. He says he will not accept the position.
Mrs. N. B. Porter and Mrs. Melendy of Franklin were the guests of Mrs. C. J. Pope this week. They were in attendance at the Congregational meeting.
Jim Wiggs, the Lebanon real estate man, was in Red Cloud Saturday on his way home from Rawlins county, where he went with with some land buyers.
You feel the life giving current the minute you take it. A gentle soothing warmth, fills the nerves and blood

EASTER

At this, the most joyous of all the seasons of the year, we send to our patrons

AN EASTER GREETING

Trusting that we will not be forgotten when replenishing your wardrobe for Easter Sunday, and reminding you that we have the best of everything that's made in

Men's Garments and Toggery

Not only for the Easter Festival, but for General Spring Wear.

Very Truly Yours,

The Cowden-Kaley Clothing Co.,

ALWAYS RELIABLE

First Door North of Postoffice, Red Cloud, Nebr.

MILLINERY.

This department is now complete in every detail, and increasing in popularity, as it justly should. We have spared neither time or money to make this Millinery Emporium a credit to Red Cloud, and we are glad to know that the Ladies appreciate our efforts.

New Spring Goods

Our store is brimful and running over with new Spring and Summer Goods consisting of all the new fabrics and weaves in Silk, Silk and Wool, and Wool Suitings; also Wash Goods in unlimited quantities. Embroidered Waist Patterns and Waistings to please everybody.

Ladies' Tailor Made Suits

Just received our new tailor-made Suits that range in price from $10 up to $22. These Suits were manufactured by Landesman-Hirschheimer Co., recognized leaders of fashionable Ladies' Suits and Coats. We also have their line of Ladies', Misses' and Children's Spring Coats and Jackets. They are certainly the noblest we have ever seen. We can save you money on these garments. Let us show you.

Ladies' and Misses' Tailored Skirts

The new Spring Skirts are in. They will please you in stole, workmanship, fit and price. We have no competition in skirts. Buy your Skirt of us and be in style.

TURNURE BROS.

with life. It's a real pleasure to take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35 cents, tea or tablets. C. L. Cotting.
Frank Peterson had made all his arrangements to attend the automobile show in Omaha Thursday, but the mumps "got him" before he could get out of town.

Ed Garber has entered the employ of Turnure Bros as a clerk in the dry goods department. He takes the position which John Yaple resigned to go to California.

E. T. Fassett, editor of the Review-Herald of Arlington, arrived here and spent Sunday with Rev. G. H. Rice. He is enroute to Colorado on a health seeking tour.

Dr. Warrick, the specialist, will meet eye, ear, nose and throat patients and those needing glasses at Dr. Damerell's office, Wednesday April 18 Hours 10:20 to 5 p. m.

The Ladies Aid society of the M. E. church will hold their annual Easter bazaar in the vacant room in the Damerell block, Saturday, April 14. Dinner and supper will be served.

J. P. Hale, Ezra House, A. C. Hale, Julius Nelson and two other gentlemen whose names we did not learn, left Tuesday morning for El Rito, N. M., on a land-seeking trip.

Sam Hogate was in town yesterday on his way home from the Heath stock sale at Republican City, Wednesday. Mr. Hogate had two fine animals in the sale which brought good prices.

Last week we said the frame work was up for A. McCall's new residence. Our informant saw the framework of Mr. McCall's big new barn, and mistook it for the skeleton of the house. All smart-up-to-date women of today, know how to bake, wash, sing and to play.

Without these talents a wife is N. G. Unless she takes Rocky Mountain Tea. C. L. Cotting.

Ernest Reed, who was injured three weeks ago at the Gund elevator in Bladen, is still in a semi-comatose condition. Another operation was performed last Saturday, but apparently without resulting in any change in the patient's condition.

A prairie fire was started west of town last Sunday afternoon by a Burlington train and the farmers in its vicinity had a lively fight with it for a time. Fortunately it was extinguished without any great damage although the wind was very high at the time.

During the past week Rev. Rice has raised the larger portion of the subscription list needed for the preliminary work for the evangelistic meetings. The hearty way in which everyone has responded is an evidence of the widespread interest being manifested in the meetings.

Last week we made mention of the fact that some of the south end farmers had used some fertilizer on one of their streets, and were curious to know what they intended to raise. On Monday we were informed that they had planted a mayoralty mushroom which they expected to attain its full height of some 6 feet 6 inches by Wednesday morning. Careful examination Wednesday morning revealed nothing but an undersized toadstool where the mushroom should have grown.

A GARDEN OF ROSES FREE

By special arrangements with The Weekly Inter Ocean—the only weekly published by a great Chicago daily—we are able to offer our readers an assortment of choice Rose Bushes Free with every subscription to THE CHIEF. These Rose Bushes are grown expressly for this offer and if planted by May 1st should produce a supply of Roses this summer. Each is not less than one year old, absolutely healthy and selected with reference to this climate.

Select any 6 of this list of 22 varieties.

- | | |
|---|---|
| No. 1—Helen Gould, red. | No. 12—Yellow Rambler, climber. |
| No. 2—Maman Cochet, pink. | No. 13—Pink Rambler, climber. |
| No. 3—White Maman Cochet. | No. 14—White Rambler, climber. |
| No. 4—Etoile de Lyon, yellow. | No. 15—Mad. Francisca Kruger, fawn and copper yellow. |
| No. 5—Meteor, crimson. | No. 16—Aurora, silvery pink. |
| No. 6—Gen. Jacqueminot, br't red. | No. 17—Pres. Carnot, blush rose. |
| No. 7—Clothilde Soupert, pink, deep center. | No. 18—Burbank, deep pink. |
| No. 8—Kaiserin Auguste Victoria, white. | No. 19—Hermosa, clear pink. |
| No. 9—La France. | No. 20—Frances E. Willard, pure white. |
| No. 10—Bridesmaid, pink. | No. 21—Bouquet of Gold, yellow. |
| No. 11—Crimson Rambler, climber. | No. 22—Winnie Davis, apricot pink. |

Cost does not enter into this offer. The publishers of the Weekly Inter Ocean have absolutely disregarded expense in having these Rose Plants grown for our readers.

The price of the Weekly Inter Ocean one year is always $1.00
The price of "The Chief" one year is $1.00
Until May 1st you have the opportunity of securing both papers each one year, and SIX beautiful ROSE BUSHES for only $1.50

In ordering Rose Plants, designate by number only.
Order today and have Roses in June.
GIVE DATE PLANTS ARE TO BE DELIVERED.