

For Thin, Poor Blood

You can trust a medicine tested 60 years! Sixty years of experience, think of that! Experience with Ayer's Sarsaparilla; the original Sarsaparilla; the strongest Sarsaparilla; the Sarsaparilla the doctors endorse for thin blood, weak nerves, general debility.

But even this grand old medicine cannot do its best work if the liver is inactive and the bowels constipated. For the best possible results, you should take a few doses of Ayer's Pills while taking the Sarsaparilla. The liver will quickly respond, and so will the bowels.

REUNION THIS FALL

Red Cloud Captures the District Reunion Without Opposition.

The Kansas and Nebraska Reunion Association held its annual encampment in Red Cloud Wednesday afternoon and by a unanimous vote decided to hold the annual reunion in Red Cloud this fall. The meeting was very harmonious. Superior was the only other city which made a bid for the reunion, but as she sent no representative to look after her interests Red Cloud had a walk-away.

Following are the officers of the association elected for the ensuing year:

Commander—D. G. Whitaker, Red Cloud.

Senior Vice Commander—Harry Remley, Bloomington.

Junior Vice—C. C. McConkey, Red Cloud.

Quartermaster—J. W. Warren, Red Cloud.

Adjutant—F. N. Richardson, Red Cloud.

Council of Administration—J. W. Warren and W. A. Brown of Red Cloud, John McCallum of Bladen.

The Ladies' Auxiliary also held its annual meeting. All the old officers were re-elected with the exception that Mrs. Henry Remley of Bloomington was elected senior vice president.

The following is a list of the delegates in attendance at the encampment:

Franklin county—John H. Davidson and mother, H. M. Warriner and L. B. Edwards and wife, S. H. Williams and wife, Mr. Burton, John Sawyer and wife, G. W. Prather and wife, Harry Remley and wife, George Clapp and wife, John Ess, Eli Brown, Chas. Ryckman, Mrs. Joseph Williams, Robert Van Stenburgh, W. H. Coultrin, John Patterson.

Adams county—A. E. Reynolds, Juniata.

Osborne county—Merrick Davis.

Webster county—Curtis Beal and Thomas Paul, Cowles; Jesse Brooks, Bladen; J. W. Warren, D. Francis and

D. L. Groat, Red Cloud. The ladies of the Red Cloud Relief Corps entertained the visitors at dinner in the hall and, while the attendance was large, there was plenty and to spare for the hungry delegates as well as the home people who attended. The ladies are especially grateful to Mrs. Henry Diederich for the handsome flowers which she donated to adorn the tables.

The date for the reunion will not be set until after the meeting of the state encampment at Lincoln next month, though it will undoubtedly be held some time in September.

The next encampment will be held in Franklin in May 1907.

The Red Cloud Commercial club bore a part of the burden of the expense of the encampment, paying the transportation charges of the visitors to and from the depot and otherwise assisting in their entertainment.

Credit should also be given to Joe Warren for his work in securing subscriptions to the guarantee fund, he having pledged amounting to over $700, and there will be no lack of funds with which to furnish entertainment and amusement for the large crowd which will attend the reunion this fall.

Swindled His Employer.

Editor Tait of the Argus is just now paying for a little experience he had in trusting a stranger. A few weeks ago a printer by the name of Ray C. Packard came to Red Cloud and secured a position on the Argus. Mr. Tait stood good for a $23 clothing bill for him at Cowden-Kaley's, which was to be paid for in installments. Packard paid ten dollars on the account. Monday evening he borrowed $3 from Mr. Tait, ostensibly to pay his board bill at the Pioneer hotel. Instead of using the money for this purpose he gave Mr. Tennant a draft on the Omaha Electric Co. for $7, receiving a balance in cash. It has not yet been learned whether or not the draft is good. He also succeeded in borrowing $2 from Art McArthur, "devil" in the Argus office. Tuesday morning early he hired a livery rig and drove to Guide Rock, where he boarded the train for the east without buying a ticket. As a consequence Mr. Tait is out about $20.

Honeywell as a Preacher.

The Princeton Republican gave a comparison of Evangelists Sunday and Honeywell in a recent issue which will be of interest to those interested in the coming evangelistic meetings. It said that in vigorous evangelistic attributes Mr. Honeywell is a good second to Mr. Sunday. As a preacher he is in some respects superior to Mr. Sunday, which no one is more willing to admit than the latter. His efficiency as a leader has been demonstrated and he has won the admiration and esteem of the Princeton people in the sermons he has delivered. The outcome of the meetings of these men will be watched with interest by all because of the different lines along which they will be conducted. Mr. Honeywell will omit from his sermons the slang, rough words and unpleasant descriptions used so forcibly by Mr. Sunday.

Ethel Globe and some one else had her. He had a very bad habit and it bothered him very much but he could not find any way to cure it. The young lady that went with Ethel Globe went away and of course he got in with here and when they went together awhile they got married and then the bad habit was cured."

Mrs. Zarybnicky.

Mrs. Anna Zarybnicky, mother of Mrs. Joseph Polnick and sister of Mrs. Joseph Pavlicek, Sr., died Tuesday at Oketo, Kan. Mrs. Polnick and son Emil left for Oketo Wednesday morning to attend the funeral. Besides Mrs. Polnick, two sons and two daughters, residing at Odell, Neb., and Oketo, Kan., are left to mourn her death. Mrs. Zarybnicky formerly lived here, but moved to Oketo twenty-two years ago.

Switchman Injured.

James Amick, switchman in the Burlington yards here, had a narrow escape from death Tuesday noon. While making a coupling he got caught between the engine and a freight car and was badly crushed about the hips, and will be laid up for a long time to come. Had the bumpers caught him a few inches higher the result would have been much more serious and might have proved fatal.
