Newsy Notes From Neighboring Towns

GATHERED FROM OUR EXCHANGES

BLOOMINGTON

(From the Advocate.)

B. McNeny, one of the brightest lawyers of Webster county, was up from Red Cloud Thursday on legal business.

Mr. and Mrs. John Parker started for Omaha Wednesday night, where they go for consultation with a specialist for Mrs. Parker, who has been very sick for the past three months.

Another editor is about to "go wrong" this time it being one from our own midst. Judge Losey issued a marriage license to J. Frank Lantz of the Hildreth Telescope and Miss Florence E. Shear of that place.

Last Saturday while listing corn C. C. Ingram got tangled up with a young mule he was driving and had a narrow escape from great bodily damage, and as it was his face was pretty badly bruised and his nose broken.

Married, last Sunday, at the home of Rev. and Mrs. R. W. Mills, northwest of town, Miss Karen Christofferson and Mr. Jay Hill, in the presence of a number of relatives. After the ceremony, which occurred at 11 o'clock, the company gathered at the home of Pent Hill, a brother of the groom, and sat down to an elegant wedding dinner prepared by Mrs. Hill.

FRANKLIN

(From the Sentinel.)

F. W. Barber's residence was slightly damaged by lightning Monday.

The mother of L. B. Robinett is suffering from a broken shoulder received in a fall Monday.

C. W. Way has the contract for furnishing the architectural plans for two store buildings and a bank building at Guide Rock.

John Scheaneman and H. Whitmore, president and secretary of the Franklin county mutual, went out to David Robertson's Tuesday to adjust the loss on a steer which was struck by lightning.

W. A. Chitwood's elevator at Riverton, containing $600 or $700 worth of grain, was totally destroyed by fire set by No. 16 Sunday morning. Mr. Chitwood had only $1600 insurance on the buildin, which with the contents will entail a loss of $4000 or more.

SMITH CENTER

(From the Messenger.)

Two successful operations for appendicitis, were performed Sunday by Dr. Bowen of Topeka, assisted by Drs. Slagle and Relhorn of this city. The patients were Mary Land, the fifteen year-old daughter of Mrs. Ed Munsinger and Mrs. Clarence Boston.

Emmett George, a well-known and popular young man in this and Jewell county, has purchased the Mankato Advertiser and will proceed, the first of June, to get out a first class paper. Mr. George is a teacher of state reputation, having been principal of the Paolo schools for the past few years.

A pretty hot time is reported at a dance in Dorr township last Saturday night. It seems that it turned out to be a kind of a free for all fight and in the mixup Ernest Byfield was stabbed with a knife in the left arm by Mike Janda. Young Janda was brought before I. A. Mullen, Monday, on a charge of assault with intent to kill and was bound over for a hearing the first week in June.

Rob Lott and Alden Bryant, sons of Henry Lott and H. S. Bryant, southwest of town, were arrested and brought before I. A. Mullen last Saturday, on a charge of swimming in the creek on Tom Knight's farm east of town. Mr. Knight claimed they were in plain view of the house while in swimming. The boys were fined $1 each and costs amounting to $450 each. Young Lott then had Henry, the oldest son of Tom Knight, arrested for striking him. Knight pleaded guilty and was fined $1 and costs, which amounted to $6.

RIVERTON

(From the Review.)

The graduating program at the opera house last night was quite well attended.

Frank Booth surprised us last Sunday by meeting Miss Louise Werdin of Denver, Colorado, at this place, and being quietly married before Justice Glick at the Franklin house.

Henry Warriner, of Franklin was on our streets Wednesday, renewing old acquaintances. He brought down 45 pounds of maple sugar, which he delivered to Abe Cray. The sugar was from Mr. Warriner of Ohio, a brother to Henry.

Eight inches of water fell Monday afternoon in two hours. This is the most water that has ever fallen in that length of time in this part of the country so far as anyone knows. During the two hours rain, over an hour of that time hail fell.

CAMPBELL

(From the Citizen.)

E. T. Jones, who has been painting quite steadily for the past two weeks, was attacked with lead poisoning.
