

BOOMBROWER DEAD

WOULD BE ASSASSIN OF KING ALFONSO COMMITS SUICIDE.

Kills Guard Who Sought to Arrest Him and Then Sends Bullet into His Own Heart—Body Identified as That of Manuel Morales.

Madrid, June 4.—The capture and suicide of Manuel Morales, the chief suspect in the bomb outrage against King Alfonso and Queen Victoria, adds another dramatic chapter to the incidents surrounding the royal wedding.

Morales was recognized in the little town of Torrejon de Ardos. A guard sought to detain him, but Morales, drawing a revolver, shot the guard dead. Then he turned to flee, but a number of the inhabitants of the town were upon him, and turning the revolver upon himself, he sent a shot in the region of his heart, expiring a few minutes later. Senor Cuesta, proprietor of the hotel from the balcony of which Morales threw the bomb, viewed the body and completely identified it as that of his recent guest.

Morales, disguised in the garb of a workman, entered the station at Torrejon de Ardos. He asked a child who was in charge of the office the time the next train would depart for Barcelona. He then sought food in a nearby shop. His Catalan accent first attracted attention to him. It was then noticed that his workman's suit was entirely new and did not correspond in texture to that usually worn by a person of his station in life, his face and manner showing him to be a man of some distinction.

A private watchman from a neighboring estate chanced to be present and he noticed the facial resemblance of Morales to the descriptions given out of the man seen on the balcony from which the bomb was thrown, particularly the long, thin and deeply serious face and the closely cropped mustache. He then observed that a finger on the man's left hand, which the stranger was trying to conceal, was badly hurt, and also that there was a small fresh scar on his forehead. The stranger sought to take a road leading into the country, but the watchman intercepted him and demanded to know his identity. Morales declined to give this, whereupon a guard arrested him. Instantly Morales drew a revolver from his pocket and fired, the guard falling dead. Morales started up the road, but a small group of villagers ahead barred his passage. Then, turning, he deliberately pointed the weapon to his heart, fired and pitched forward in the roadway.

The body of Morales was exposed for the purpose of allaying public indignation. Thousands of persons surged before the municipal morgue, seeking to get in line to be admitted to the room where the body lay, but cavalry and infantry blocked the efforts of the throng, which murmured imprecations against the assassin. Public feeling was intense, chiefly because of the great number of victims. It is seldom that a bomb explosion has had such deadly effect, the casualties in this instance being twenty-four persons killed and more than eighty wounded.

Alfonso Says He Is Marked.
The American envoy to the royal wedding, Frederick W. Whitridge, had an opportunity for a brief conversation with King Alfonso during the reception at the palace. When the conversation naturally turned to the attempt on the king and queen, King Alfonso shrugged his shoulders and made the following significant statement, showing how he views the future: "Yes, fortunately, it was unsuccessful; but it will come again. It may be any time—perhaps tomorrow, perhaps within a month, perhaps within a year—but it will come."

The face of the king wore a look of calm resignation as he gave this forecast of the future. Although he bore himself splendidly throughout the terrible experience, the courtiers witnessed a trying scene as King Alfonso and Queen Victoria hurried within the castle after the attempt was made to assassinate them. For a moment Alfonso's nerves were completely unstrung, and turning to Queen Victoria, her dress spattered with blood, he exclaimed: "Why did I bring you to this country? It was wrong; you never should have come here."

Then the queen-mother and one of the infantas calmed the overwrought nerves of the king and the bridal couple repaired, sadly, to the nuptial chambers.

DECISION IN BEER REBATE CASE
Finds Against Railroads, but Dismisses Suit Against Pabst.

Milwaukee, June 1.—The United States circuit court for the eastern circuit of Wisconsin handed down its decision in the rebate suit against the Milwaukee Refrigerator company, six railroads and the Pabst Brewing company, on charges of alleged violations of the Elkins act, finding against the defendants, with the exception of the Pabst Brewing company, the suit against which is dismissed. The complaint recited that the refrigerator company had received commissions of from 10 to 12 1/2 per cent on all shipments of beer from the Pabst Brewing company routed by it. The railroad companies admitted having made such concessions, but claimed that these had been paid the same as commissions to other freight solicitors.

GRAND JURY HAS MUENTER CASE

Hearing Evidence Relating to Death of Wife of Harvard Instructor.
Cambridge, Mass., June 5.—Evidence relating to the death of the wife of Eric Muentner, a Harvard instructor, on April 12, was presented to the grand jury.

ERICK MUENTER.

Several physicians, an agent of the company in which Mrs. Muentner was insured and others were witnesses. District Attorney Sanderson announced that in case the grand jury reports an indictment the fact will be kept secret until Muentner is arrested.

OHIO STRIKERS IN UGLY MOOD.

Feared Situation Will Become Acute When State Troops Arrive.

Steubenville, O., June 5.—The fear is general that the strike situation will become acute when the troops arrive from Columbus. At Dillonvale the strikers are in a turbulent mood. It is reported that they and their sympathizers have made large purchases of rifles, revolvers and ammunition. Every attempt is being made by the leaders of the mine workers to hold the men in check, but the failure to pay strike benefits, together with the conflict between miners and guards yesterday, in which four men were wounded, have excited the strikers to a desperate condition. The guards of the United States Coal company, who were involved in the outbreak, are entrenched near Crow Hollow, and persons living in the vicinity, fully expectant of trouble, are keeping to their homes.

FIGHT ON STATEHOOD.
Foraker Will Raise Parliamentary Point Against Bill.

Washington, June 5.—When the conference report on the statehood bill is called up for action in the senate a representative of the opponents of the union of Arizona and New Mexico—probably Senator Foraker—will make a point of order against the compromise provision on the ground that it is new legislation. The fact that the proposition is the language of the Foraker resolution in the previous congress, they contend, will not relieve it of this charge and they will make an effort to have the report rejected on the ground that the conference had no right to originate legislation.

South Dakota Republicans.
Sioux Falls, S. D., June 5.—Insurgent Republicans, who expect to control the state convention today, have agreed on a ticket, except a congressman from the Black Hills, where two candidates, Mayor Frederick N. Erick of Rapid City and Colonel W. H. Parker of Deadwood, are in the field. The platform will declare for a state primary law, for equal assessment and taxation of property belonging to railroads and other corporations, for an anti-pass law and for a corrupt practice law, which will require candidates for office to make sworn statements in reference to campaign expenses.

Investigating Drug Trust.
Washington, June 5.—President Roosevelt has declined to entertain any proposition looking to further investigation of the alleged drug trust before the proceedings recently instituted at Indianapolis by the attorney general are pushed. It was stated at the department that the investigation has been going on for several months, that the department is entirely satisfied with the evidence secured and that the prosecution will be conducted without delay.

Steamer Mataafa Safe in Harbor.
Duluth, Minn., June 4.—The stranded steamer Mataafa is safe in the sheltered harbor at last. The boat was released and was soon inside Park point. Hundreds of people thronged the shore, watching the wrecking operations and expecting every minute to see the vessel released from the sand cradle that had been her bed since Nov. 28, when nine sailors lost their lives in the terrible storm.

RATE BILL BACK TO CONFERENCE

Foraker Insists Conference Have Injected New Matter in Measure.

Washington, June 6.—The senate passed the naval appropriation bill and gave considerable attention to the conference report on the railroad rate bill. The only important amendment made to the naval bill requires the secretary of the navy to submit plans for the proposed big warship to congress before proceeding with its construction. The bill carries an appropriation of $103,117,670.

There is no doubt that the rate bill will be sent back to conference. Senator Tillman admitted that some of the changes made in conference cannot be justified under the rules, but said they had been necessary to make the bill harmonize.

Senator Foraker criticised the changes in the anti-pass provision, the amendment compelling connections with lateral lines and the omission of the provision regarding "Jim Crow" cars. Discussion of the report will continue.

Red Letter Day in House.

Washington, June 6.—In many particulars it was a "red letter" day in the house, not only in the number of bills passed, but in the general character of the legislation enacted. What bid fair to cause endless trouble, the naturalization bill, was passed under suspension of the rules, the speaker and the gentleman in charge of the bill, Bonyne (Colo.), doing team work of superior kind. The house refused to pass a bill leasing to a private firm or corporation the right to mine coal on the island of Batan, in the Philippine group, although it was stated that such a lease would decrease the amount paid by the government very considerably.

Dunkards Close Their Session.

Dayton, O., June 6.—The annual convention of the old German Baptists, known as Dunkards, closed its sessions. The rite of footwashing was observed. The business session was practically unanimous in the opinion that telephones and automobiles should be left severely alone. Traction cars, however, met with sympathy, and this mode of travel may be used. The next convention will be held in California.

Liquor Dealers Assail Drunkenness.

Louisville, June 6.—The National Liquor Dealers' association, which opened its annual convention here, issued an address to the people of the United States, in which the belief of its members in temperance is expressed; obedience to the law is endorsed; the work of the various temperance societies is commended and the statement made that intoxication should be considered a crime.

Delahanty Awarded Verdict.

New York, June 6.—A jury awarded to John Delahanty a verdict for the full amount of his claim in his suit for $45,000 counsel fees against Richard Canfield for legal services after District Attorney Jerome's raid on Canfield's gambling house in this city.
