MARRIAGES.

Crone-Peterson.

A quiet home wedding occurred last night at 7:30 o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Crone, 427 south Cedar street, when their daughter, Miss Edna Vida Crone, was united in marriage to Mr. Frank Peterson of Red Cloud, Neb., Rev. J. F. Jenness performing the ceremony. Only Miss Crone's parents and her little niece, Irene Crone of Red Cloud, were present. The bride, who, with her parents, came to Ottawa from Red Cloud a little more than a year ago, has made many friends in church and social circles during her residence here. The groom is a prosperous hardware merchant in Red Cloud. Mr. and Mrs. Peterson will leave Saturday for their new home where the best wishes of Ottawa friends will follow them.—Ottawa Daily Republic July 6.

Mr. and Mrs. Peterson arrived in Red Cloud Sunday morning and went immediately to housekeeping in the upper rooms of the Overing block. THE CHIEF along with a host of friends extends congratulations.

Haskins-Hartz.

Miss Ellen Victoria Haskins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Haskins, was united in marriage last Sunday to Andrew Hartz, who is at present employed in the freight department of the Burlington in this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. C. Davis. Both young people are well known and have a host of friends who join us in extending best wishes.

"Music Hath Charms."

We have often heard that "music hath charms to soothe the savage breast," but we never heard until recently that honey bees were susceptible to music. One day last week Jack Wilnot located a swarm of bees near his home and, getting out an old flute, he proceeded to lull the bees into a peaceful sleep with sweet strains from the instrument. He succeeded in hiving the bees without once being stung. Here is a pointer for bee-keepers.

You Don't.

- You don't pay a hired solicitor $100 per month.
- You don't pay car fare to some distant city.
- You don't send your money out of your own community.
- You don't expose your boys and girls to evils of a strange city.
- You don't put them in the hands of strangers.
- You don't pay double what the tuition ought to be.
- You're not far away from your child, and, if he takes sick, you are not at a big expense, if you send him to the Red Cloud Business College.

YOU DO.

- You do pay $40 and not $80 for a scholarship.
- You do pay $2 for board and not $4.
- You do place your money where it comes back to you.
- You do know where your boy is and what he is doing.
- You do know the school and its management.
- You can visit the school and become acquainted with his motives.
- You do know the instruction is as good here as elsewhere.
- You do know, you and your boy will like it much better and in the end be much satisfied if you send him to the Red Cloud Business College.

Deaths and Funerals.

Mrs. B. F. Reed.

Mrs. B. F. Reed died at the Congregational parsonage last Saturday morning after an illness of ten days duration. Her death was due to cancer of the throat. For some years past she had been afflicted with a goitre, which grew so troublesome that its removal became necessary. She went for this purpose to Mercy hospital in Chicago and it was during this operation that the cancer was discovered. A second operation became necessary and she was brought to town for that purpose, but it became apparent at once that she was beyond human help and she passed away ten days after the second operation was performed.

Mrs. Effie Reed was the oldest daughter of N. L. D. Smith and wife and lived in this section of Nebraska nearly all her life. She was born in Wisconsin, August 15, 1869, and the family removed here among the earlier settlers. She was the oldest of a family of eight children, all of whom remain with the parents to mourn her death. In October 18, 1890, she was married to B. F. Reed and three children, two boys and a girl were born of the union. The husband and children also remain to mourn the loss of a wife and mother.

Mrs. Reed was an earnest christian, a member of the Congregational church at Indian creek, where her services will be greatly missed by the members of that organization. The funeral took place from the Congregational church on Sunday afternoon, Rev. Rice preaching the sermon, Rev. Hummel and Austin officiating. Interment in the Red Cloud cemetery.

L. L. DeHart.

Lucas L. DeHart was born April 23, 1822, at Perryville, Indiana. Married April 6, 1843, and died July 9, 1906. He was a member of the United Brethren church. In 1855 he with his family removed to Red Cloud, after which he united with the Christian church and has always been a faithful, earnest christian. He was a very quiet unassuming man, living a retired life, but with constant an abiding trust in God, through a diligent reading and study of the Bible, which was his daily companion and guide. Since the death of his aged and faithful wife some three years ago, he has made his home with his daughter, Mrs. John Corbett, in Kansas, and also with his son Levi, in this county, at whose home he was his death occurred. He leaves six children, three sons and three daughters; twenty-seven grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren, besides many friends. Funeral services were held at the Ash creek church, conducted by Rev. Hummel, assisted by Rev. Wagoner, at 2 o'clock, Tuesday, July 10. Interment in the Red Cloud cemetery.

Obituary.

Charles H. Teachworth was born in Swanton, Ohio, January 21, 1840, and died at Lester, Neb., July 5, 1906. Deceased was married to Jerusha Tabor in 1867, and to this union seven children were born, four sons and three daughters, all but one of whom are living. Mr. Teachworth had been a resident of this county for more than thirty years. He was a member of the Christian church, with which organization he united in 1894. Mr. Teachworth served in the Union army in the 67th Ohio infantry, and was a member of the Guide Rock Odd Fellows lodge. Funeral services were held at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Chas. Frisbie, conducted by Rev. G. W. Hummel, who had known him for over thirty-four years. One pathetic incident related by Rev. Hummel was the loaning to him of a postage stamp by Mr. Teachworth many years ago, when he was in distress. The Guide Rock Odd Fellows attended the funeral in a body and had charge of the services at the grave.
