

Newsy Notes From Neighboring Towns

GATHERED FROM OUR EXCHANGES

CAMPBELL

(From the Citizen.)

H. Crilly shipped a car of hogs to St. Joe Tuesday, and another one yesterday.

There is talk of a new brick opera house and hall, of an electric light plant and new buildings almost without number.

As per announcement, the restaurant and confectionery establishment of Wm. Osborn was transferred August 1 to Emil Demars.

A Sunday school was organized last Sunday at the Patterson school house northeast of town, with J. C. Crom as superintendent.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Brunke, who have been visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Everling, left for their home in Rosemont Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Sears of Kansas City, Mo., drove up from Riverton yesterday, in company with Ira Ellis, at whose home they have been visiting for a few days.

RIVERTON

(From the Review.)

Mrs. Jerry Sullivan has been sick for some time with mountain fever.

F. L. Daggett of Phillipsburg, Kan., was shaking hands here Wednesday.

J. E. Morris got homesick and left town Sunday morning enroute for Kansas City and thence to Sterling, Kansas, to see his parents.

Miss Winnie Irvin took the train Monday morning enroute for Libson, Michigan, to visit for a short time with her aunt and family at that place.

Ben Allen returned from Arlington, Oregon, Monday morning, after having spent about 40 days in and around Arlington with his brother James.

Cards are out announcing the Cross-Owens wedding which will occur Wednesday evening at 7:30 on August 8. Dr. C. E. Cross spent his early childhood days in and around Riverton.

SMITH CENTER

(From the Messenger.)

The Smith Center band furnished music at Downs' celebration last Friday.

Thomas May, aged 45 years died at the poor farm at 5 o'clock Sunday morning, July 29, 1906, after an illness of several days.

William Newton, who has been section foreman here for a number of years, has been given the position of roadmaster for the Rock Island for this division at a salary of $1,200.

Charles Dettman of Cedar was in this city Tuesday. Mr. Dettman brings fair reports for the wheat harvest. He had 200 acres that threshed out 18½ bushels to the acre, all round.

Ada Irene Fillmore was born in Mills county, Iowa, October 20th, 1874. She moved with her parents to Smith county, Kansas, in 1876. She was united in marriage to Al Gentzler, November 7, 1897 and died July 29, 1906.

Warren Clark met with quite a painful accident Monday while swimming at the big pond east of town. He was diving off of the ice chute and struck his head on a pole under the water, inflicting a wound about four inches long that required four stitches.

BLOOMINGTON

(From the Advocate.)

The Alma ball club was in the city last Tuesday and crossed bats with the home club winning the game by a score of two to one.

Arrangements have been made for a Workman picnic at Bloomington on the 23rd of August. The grandmaster will be present to address the crowd.

Robert, a son of Joseph Schepler of

Weak Lungs Bronchitis

For over sixty years doctors have endorsed Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for coughs, colds, weak lungs, bronchitis, consumption. You can trust a medicine the best doctors approve. Then trust this the next time you have a hard cough.

"I had an awful cough for over a year, and nothing seemed to do me any good. I tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and was soon cured. I recommend it to all my friends whenever they have a cough."—Miss M. MEYERS, Washington, D. C.

Ayer's Pills keep the bowels regular. All vegetable and gently laxative.

Lincoln township, was before the insane board last Tuesday and was pronounced insane. He was taken by Sheriff Walrath to the asylum at Lincoln.

Mr. Tuttle, who lives across the river and who was mixed up with the scrap in town last week, came in Monday and pleaded guilty of being drunk and was fined $10 and costs for the luxury.

Last night at the depot twenty cases of empty pop bottles were put on the trucks and placed near where the passenger train stops so they would be convenient to load, but in some manner they were placed to close and the engine hit the trucks tipping it over and scattering glass all over the platform. No one was hurt by the flying glass.

The Rock Island surveyors have passed this point of their survey. The line passes on the second bottom at the foot of town, passing through U. H. Malick's alfalfa lot, and on west just about forty feet from Chas. C. Brown's barn. There are fifteen or twenty in the outfit and they are making a pretty careful survey taking all the grades.

LEBANON

(From the Times.)

Mrs. Fred Pennington and daughter of Cape Nome, Alaska, arrived in this city Monday evening on a visit to Mrs. Pennington's father and other relatives.

While Will Wadly, wife and child and Miss Edna Abbott were returning home from town, Tuesday evening, their team became unmanageable at the hill in front of Lewis Hawkins' residence and started to run, throwing them all out and bruising them quite seriously.

Mrs. H. Hartmon visited the J. D. Huntsinger family in Esbon Saturday. In attempting to alight from the train on her return, she was thrown violently to the brick sidewalk, caused by the train starting before she had time to get off. She escaped with a few bruises.

Sam Ellis had a very narrow escape from death Monday. He started across the Chas. Pennington bridge, near Salem and after he had gotten quite a distance onto it he noticed a hole which the horses also noticed and commenced to back up with Sam. They backed off the bridge at one side at the height of about six feet, horses, buggy and Sam all took a drop. Sam fell in such a way that the bows came across his body, thereby protecting him to some extent, and this undoubtedly saved his life. He yelled for help and Mrs. Davis came to his rescue and seeing that she could do nothing went after Geo. Babb, who succeeded in extricating Sam. George says by the time he got to Sam he was as black in the face as a negro and Sam owns up he had given up all hopes of ever getting out of there alive.

GUIDE ROCK

(From the News Letter.)

George Vollers pulled in at Frank Perry's with his threshing machine Wednesday evening in time to thresh out one wagon load of oats in bundles which yielded fifty bushels to the acre.

Mrs. D. Jones and Misses Mary and Carrie Farquhar, Clara Marsh and Mabel Day, expect to start for Colorado next week. Miss Mary Farquhar will again teach at Howard, Colorado, the others go to visit and view the scenery.

Geo. S. Parker and E. Peters have returned from Colorado, but we understand Mrs. Parker will remain there awhile for treatment. Miss Laura Trepf, a relative of the family, came home with Mrs. Peters and Mr. Parker and expects to remain here for some time.

On Monday, July 30, Frank Miner, who for some time has been afflicted with cancer of the face, died at his home in this place. For a long time he had known, and his friends had known, that the disease was incurable but he endured with the fortitude of a hero the suffering that he realized could terminate only in death.

The ladies have started a move to secure cement crossings from the Methodist church north across the street and from the Baptist church south across the street, and a petition to that effect has been numerously signed and will be presented to the board. Of course the ladies will get the crossings, and they ought to have them.

FRANKLIN

(From the Sentinel.)

Mrs. W. R. Robertson left yesterday morning for Indianapolis, Ind., where she will enter a hospital for treatment.

Fred Barber has been walking in the air for the past two days on account of the arrival of a bright little girl at his home yesterday.

Mrs. Ward, daughter of Mr. Klaus of this city, left last night for her home in San Francisco, after visiting here most of the time since the earthquake.

Noble Ball stopped for a day's visit in Franklin yesterday. He and Oscar Barrroughs are both going to Red Cloud to work on the new electric light plant now being installed at that place.

J. W. White missed his footing some how or other while coming down stairs Thursday morning and seriously sprained his ankle, necessitating the use of a cane in walking.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Moore left Wednesday morning for New York, where they will visit a brother of Mr. Moore who is very ill. Before returning home they will probably visit in Canada.

One day last week little Edna Gettle took a notion into her head that there were other places better than home, and started out bareheaded and barefooted to find one, and when her parents got word about her she was about five miles south of Alma, from which place they brought her home.

One of Sam Rogers' boys was thrown from a horse last Wednesday and was unconscious regarding certain matters for several hours. He has no recollection even yet of ever getting on the horse and doesn't remember a thing that happened in connection with his fall and injury. He appears perfectly rational on other subjects, but regarding the accident knows nothing at all.

SUPERIOR

(From the Journal.)

F. J. Johnston of Oberlin, Kan., is a new addition to the Red Eagle ball team.

Mary Jeanette Edenburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Edenburn, was born in Superior April 25, 1904 and died July 29, 1906.

Conductor Hicks made his first run into Superior this morning since his sickness. The report that he suffered a relapse was a little strong.

Geo. White has traded his interest in the brick livery barn to Marinus Anderson, formerly proprietor of the barn, for the farm he had traded to Mr. Anderson, and the firm is now Larson & Anderson.

The Nebraska Telephone Co. has a line gang here this morning working on its city line. They are going to rebuild from here to Bostwick, from Guide Rock to Red Cloud and from Red Cloud to Oxford.

Geo. Monk is in from a four months' trip in Colorado. Part of the time was spent with an old friend and former Superior merchant, J. A. Miller, who is still selling pants and prospering in real estate at Ft. Morgan.

Geo. Carter's barn east of Superior, was struck by lightning during one of our rains a few days ago. The bolt of lightning struck the east end, and luckily, as there was no hay in that side, there was no fire started and the roof was only shattered.

Sallie Croft Pierce was born in Greenwich, N. Y., Sept. 25th, 1886. Died in Superior July 24, 1906, aged 19 years and 10 months. "Tody" as she was familiarly called was a most lovable girl. She had lived most of her life in Superior coming here with her parents.

GARFIELD

We had a fine rain Tuesday.

Oliver McNutt departed for Lincoln last week to attend the Epworth League assembly.

A. J. Hawley returned last Friday from a little outing which took place in the cities of Beatrice and Lincoln.
