

Newsy Notes From Neighboring Towns

GATHERED FROM OUR EXCHANGES

SUPERIOR

(From the Journal.)

Mrs. David Beitler, who lives on the Superior Cattle Co.'s ranch, is about the most cool headed lady driver we have seen in a long time. Saturday afternoon the lady was holding a team hitched to a wagon near the Journal office when one of the horses became anxious and began to rear. After several attempts the horse got his front feet over the wagon tongue and threw himself. All the time the horses were backing up and "tearing up Ned" Mrs. Beitler was as cool as a cucumber, and at times used her whip expeditiously. Most women in similar circumstances would have thrown down the lines, hollered "murder!" and jumped from the wagon.

Miss Sadie Adams has been having a serious experience with one of her hands the past few days. Miss Adams ad been either stung by a poisonous insect or the eruption was only a small pimple. She is unable to account for its origin. The day of the Ruskin carnival her hand began to swell, and for a few days it was thought to be a serious case of blood poisoning, but the young lady's condition is improving.

The case against R. S. Hinkle for wife desertion, in the city hall this afternoon, was dismissed and the prisoner discharged. The reason for the dismissal was the failure of Mrs. Hinkle to appear as a complaining witness against her husband.

Paul Boehm met with a very bad accident yesterday, one and one-half miles west of Hardy. It is reported that while chasing pigs he in some way fell over a gun which he was carrying and broke it. This caused the gun to discharge and the contents struck his leg between the knee and the thigh, badly shattering that member. The young man is badly hurt and his condition is considered serious.

J. E. Fitzsimmons, who was charged with obtaining money under false pretenses and brought here this morning for trial, plead guilty and was fined $40 and costs. Fitzsimmons drew two checks here a short time ago, one to B. C. Amberson and one to J. H. Morrison against the Lindsey State bank in which he had no money on deposit for a long time. His reason for committing the offense was that the money for cattle which he was taking to Kansas City would be in the bank before the check was there, but his scheme failed and his arrest was the result.

CAMPBELL

(From the Citizen.)

Ed Osborn had rather a trying experience Monday. In attempting to hive a swarm of bees he must have said something to make them mad—and what those bees did to Ed was a sin and a shame. When they got through with the job he looked like an advanced case of erysipelas with iodine trimmings, not to mention being swelled to twice his normal size.

After three weeks of intense suffering Mrs. Chas. Harper passed away early Thursday morning at her late home in Campbell.

It is a matter for some speculation when one of the Campbell boys hires a livery rig Sunday evening and returns in the morning with a baby's shoe stowed away beneath the seat. Can anyone furnish a plausible explanation?

Mrs. Wm. Matheny and sister Miss Bessie Seymour left Saturday for Winchester, Va., where they will spend about three weeks visiting at the old home with relatives and friends.

LEBANON.

(From the Times.)

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Myers and Mr. and Mrs. John Cooley went up near Inavale Tuesday on a fishing excursion.

Last Thursday, the members of the Smith county bar presented Miss Lelia Mossman with a handsome diamond and pearl brooch in appreciation of the courtesy shown them by her during the nine years she has been court stenographer.

Mont Nichols has commenced excavating for his new brick building.

GUIDE ROCK

(From the News Letter.)

Peter Fish was in town one day this week looking over the place and visiting with friends. Mr. Fritz is 88 years old, and since coming from South Dakota has been making his home with his daughter, Mrs. Chas. Lowry, south of the river.

It got so hot Wednesday afternoon that Dr. Robinson's bees swarmed into the well, where it was cool, and refused to come out until he turned the hose on them.

J. S. Marsh informs us that Elmer Parsons threshed twenty acres of wheat the other day that yielded 625 bushels—a little over 31 bushels per acre.

We understand it has been definitely decided to run the new bank and Hayes building up another story. This will make it the finest building in Guide Rock, not excepting that of the Odd Fellows hall.

BLOOMINGTON

(From the Advocate.)

The sad news was received here this week of the death of Marie, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Volney Douglas.

Mr. Reynolds, the hog buyer, met with a painful accident at the stock yards yesterday that will probably cause him the loss of one of his thumbs. While assisting one of his customers to unload stock at the yards, his thumb got caught between the wheel and wagon box and was horribly mashed.

Marsh & Moore are building a good sized addition to their warehouse in which they will store their implement.

FRANKLIN

(From the Sentinel.)

Cochrane Bros. have disposed of their hardware and implement business, selling out to the Crittenden Bros., who moved here from Iowa about six months ago.

J. S. Williams received a telegram Sunday morning informing him of the death of his daughter Lena at Fairbury.

J. A. Chapman returned this week from a trip to southwest Missouri.

Joppa Lodge A. F. & A. M. attended in a body and conducted the ceremonies at the burial of Grandpa Hirsch at Naponee Wednesday.

Stone is partly in place for a good serviceable sidewalk from Central avenue to the high school grounds which is a much needed improvement.

RIVERTON

(From the Review.)

Mr. Ladd of Inavave gave Dr. T. B. Myers a large meerscham pipe with German silver mountings that had been a part of the Ladd ownings for over 50 years.

Miss Grace Rakestraw had the misfortune to break her leg as the result of a fall.

The Cross-Owen wedding occurred Wednesday evening of last week at seven o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Owen.

Jess Edwards' little son, two and a half years old, was drowned at Scotts Bluffs on August 19.

Wedding bells again ring at Bloomington, announcing the marriage of Mr. Geo. Harwood of this place to Miss Maude Foster of Bloomington.

John Chaney, a farmer living near here, suffered a severe accident Monday afternoon. After returning home from a hunt he took his gun from the buggy and in attempting to place it against a post that stood near the buggy, struck the hammer of the gun on the step of the buggy, which discharged the gun, blowing off the second, third and fourth fingers on his right hand, and breaking the bone tearing off the nail and otherwise lacerating his thumb, also blew off the rim of his hat. A few of the shot came so close as to graze his cheek.

BLADEN

Rev. Priestley and son Willie of Harvard, Neb., were visiting in town this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert McCoy spent Sunday at the home of her father, Mr. Walburn.

W. B. Householder and family are enjoying a visit from relatives from the east.

Thrown From a Wagon.

Last Friday afternoon as Walter Means was coming into town his team became frightened and gave a sudden jump. Walter was thrown to the ground with great violence and his nose was fractured. Medical aid was summoned, the wound was dressed and he was able to go home in the evening.

Common Case.

The Scotchman's disposition to regard his own judgment as the best that can be found is well illustrated in a story once told of the moderator of a Scotch presbytery. This man's opinion differed widely on a certain question relating to church discipline from that of the associates with whom he was ostensibly consulting. At last he said that he would lay the matter before the Lord in prayer and then wait for his guidance. "O Lord," said the moderator fervently and with perfect sincerity of purpose, "O Lord, grant that we may be right in this matter, for thou knowest that we are very decided."

No Longer an Impossibility

The idea that has become general that first class building material could no longer be had is certainly knocked out, when you take a look at the complete line of clear Soft Pine Finish and Siding carried in stock by of Red Cloud, Neb. What is also pleasing to the buyers of Lumber and building material is the fact that their prices are reasonable, and they guarantee a SQUARE DEAL. They also have a nice line of Oak, Hickory and Poplar Wagon Material. See their Shingles. You can not help but admire them.

The members of this enterprising firm, assisted by plenty of excellent help, are always glad and take pleasure in showing to the public this nice stock.
