

When the Hair Falls

Then it's time to act! No time to study, to read, to experiment! You want to save your hair, and save it quickly, too! So make up your mind this very minute that if your hair ever comes out you will use Ayer's Hair Vigor. It makes the scalp healthy. The hair stays in. It cannot do anything else. It's nature's way.

Deaths and Funerals.

John A. Reid.

Another veteran of the civil war passed away Monday afternoon when "Jack" Reid died at the Soldiers' home at Milford, where he had been cared for since the 28th of June. Mr. Reid suffered a stroke of paralysis January 18 of this year and the only time he appeared in public here since that time was on Decoration day.

John A. Reid was born November 20, 1830, and died September 3, 1906. He was twice married, his first wife having died twenty-seven years ago. Two children were born of this union Harry Reid and Mrs. Tomp Truex, both of St. Joseph, Mo. He was again married twenty-five years ago to Mrs. Elnora Sharpe, in Hamilton county. Two daughters, Mrs. John A. Walsh of Seattle, Wash., and Miss Delia Reid of this city were born to this union. Mr. Reid first enlisted in the First Iowa infantry and later reenlisted as first sergeant Co. E, Eleventh Infantry, U. S. A. He was seriously wounded at the first battle of Bull Run.

Mr. Reid is survived by his widow, four children and three grandchildren, two brothers and one sister.

Funeral services were held at the Baptist church Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by I. W. Edson, and interment was in the Red Cloud cemetery, under the auspices of the Garfield Post, G. A. A.

Encountered a Shotgun.

Two of Red Cloud's gay young sports hired a livery team Tuesday evening to go out southwest and see a couple of young ladies. They saw the girls, all right, but the father of one of the girls didn't like the company his daughter was keeping and took out after them on horseback, armed with a shot gun. By taking a circuitous route and doing some tall walking the boys got into town by midnight.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Items of News Found in The Chief of Twenty Years Ago This Week

John Murray has gone to Iowa. Bertie Emigh is visiting in Wymore. J. W. Sherwood and son Homer are in the city.

Mrs. C. L. Cotting is visiting in Shellrock, Iowa.

A. M. Walters of Blue Hill was in the city Saturday.

The public schools opened Monday. The young hopefuls are now joyous.

Dr. Steele, of Crete, an old friend of Joseph Graves, was in the city Saturday.

The Red Willow cattle Co. sold sixty head of cattle in this city Saturday.

Miss Eva J. King has returned to the city after a sojourn of a couple of months.

Mr. Platt received word Wednesday that his wife's father had died at White Water, Wisconsin.

Mrs. C. S. Humphrey of Indianola, daughter of R. K. Orchard, is visiting her parents at Inavale this week.

The Red Cloud and Amboy mills are now furnishing our farmers with a splendid market for their wheat.

The school teachers now cry "rats" when they think about drinking the water out of the school house well.

Miss Sadie Dickerson tripped down on a Seward street walk the other day and hurt her herself quite seriously.

Married, at Red Cloud, September 8, by Rev. Geo. O. Yeiser, Mr. Fred Bill and Miss Sarah McCumber, both of Webster county.

The base ball club of Red Cloud is in bad luck having been downed by the Guide Rock club, the score, we understand, stood about 130 to 200.

Married, September 1, at the bride's home in Warren county, Illinois, Mr. Frank O. Slater of Webster county, Nebraska, to Miss Nerva E. Cling.

John Moore, cashier of the First National bank, is the happiest man we presume in Red Cloud, all because he is the father of a handsome little girl.

Mr. Wilhelmsen's little child was given too much laudanum the other day, and for a time it was thought doubtful whether the child could live or not.

On Monday night a lady passing by Mizer's store during the rain storm fell into the cellar excavated for the new buildings. Luckily she was not injured any more than getting her apparel begrimed with mud. The next morning His Honor, Mayor Tinker, issued an order that a railing be erected to prevent the weary pedestrians from sliding down hill in the summer, "gentle Annie."

Water Increase.

The work on the big ditch at the water plant is progressing slowly. On Wednesday they began digging an 8-foot well about half way between the south well and the old man-hole to the northeast. The supply of water has already been increased 50 per cent and when the work is completed it is hoped to have it doubled. We still believe the best system would have been to have followed out the plan suggested by Joe Burns—namely a chain of wells running northward across the creek, but this would have cost a great deal more money than the city cared to expend, so the scheme was abandoned. There is no question but the city water, at the present time, is almost unfit for drinking purposes, but it can not be helped until the work is completed.

Burden-Illingsworth.

Wednesday evening at 8:30, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Burden, occurred the marriage of their daughter, Miss Flossie, to Mr. Nature Dean Illingsworth of Cambridge, Iowa, Rev. I. W. Edson officiating. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the relatives of the bride and a few intimate friends. Miss Nellie Emerson was bridesmaid, and Darrell Burden, brother of the bride, acted as best man. Miss Fay Teel played the wedding march. The bride is well and favorably known here, having been born near Bladen seventeen years ago, and having lived all of her life in this community. Mr. Illingsworth is the local agent for the Medical Chemical Co. of South Omaha, and has made many friends during his residence here. They will make their home in Red Cloud, and for the present will occupy rooms at the home of Mrs. Anna Tulleys.

Killed a Rattler.

B. S. Van Dyke of Line township was visiting with his brother-in-law, J. C. Fouts, near Guide Rock, one day last week and while helping clean the hay-mow ran against a large rattlesnake. The snake struck at Van Dyke, but passed beneath his arm, and almost succeeded in striking Howard Fouts. They did not breath easy until they had disposed of his snake-ship.

Order Your Light Fixtures.

The chandeliers and other fixtures for the electric light plant have arrived and have been placed on display at Grice's drug store. All persons who expect to use fancy fixtures should call immediately and make their selections, as it will require two or three weeks time to get them here after they are ordered.

Card of Thanks.

Mrs. J. A. Reid and daughter Delia desire to thank their many friends for the kindness shown during the illness and death of their husband and father. They are particularly grateful to the comrades of the G. A. R. Post for favors extended.

Smashed the Mower.

Mint Steele's team, hitched to his mowing machine, ran away the other day. They went through a four-inch fence and came near running over Ernest Haskins. They ran for a mile, and succeeded in smashing the mowing machine to pieces.
