

Newsy Notes From Neighboring Towns

GATHERED FROM OUR EXCHANGES

GUIDE ROCK

(From the News Letter.)

P. W. Roland has bought the J. M. Roland residence property in the west part of town for $1,500.

C. C. Dunbar came up from Superior the fore part of the week and is doing the carpenter work on Sawyer's new brick dwelling house.

Miss Flora Reeve is assisting her father this week on the mail route. He has not yet fully recovered from the injuries he received last week.

John Miner, who has been employed by the B. & M. as section boss for some time, and who has been located in the eastern part of the state, has returned to Guide Rock, and we understand will quit the road and engage in farming.

LEBANON.

(From the Times.)

Wm. Hicks of Red Cloud was in this city a short time Sunday.

P. F. Langan was born in Ireland in 1844 and died at his home in this city Thursday, October 4, 1906, at 10 o'clock p. m.

Again we are called upon to chronicle the death of one of Smith county's old and highly respected citizens, Jonathan Miles Isom, who died Tuesday, October 9, aged 62 years.

Mrs. Jud Livers, who lives north of Burr Oak, and who has been visiting Rev. and Mrs. Tremain for a few days this week, met with quite a painful injury Tuesday, as she started to return home. She had just gotten into the buggy and was holding a horse belonging to Rev. Tremain by the hitch rein, which she had wrapped around her hand, when the horse pulled back, severing the third finger from the left hand at the second joint.

SMITH CENTER

(From the Messenger.)

Dr. W. B. Slagle henceforth will be at home in his handsome new automobile.

It is hardly safe to publish it, but there are three vacant residences in Smith Center.

An electric motor of seven and one half horse-power arrived for the new school building this week.

An Iowa man was in town yesterday trying to rent a room for a racket store. So far he has not succeeded.

Miss Minnie Wilson and Clifford Starbuck were united in marriage last Sunday, Rev. U. S. Brown officiating.

Papers are being circulated about town for signatures of the business and professional men, the object being to reorganize the commercial club.

R. W. Allen, our popular marble man, is suffering from brain trouble and will be taken to a Kansas City sanitarium for treatment. His many friends hope that his recovery may be rapid and permanent.

FRANKLIN

(From the Sentinel.)

The Hevner boys took out 340 head of their cattle from the pasture Wednesday and began feeding them.

Robert Knee is recovering rapidly from the injuries he sustained two weeks ago by falling from a high ladder.

Miss Aileen Hildreth, the only diphtheria patient in town, is now rapidly improving and, barring accidents, will recover.

The academy football team played its first game Saturday with the Smith Center high school team. The score was 0 to 0.

Mrs. A. L. Byerly is in Omaha this week in attendance upon her daughter Mrs. Lucille Byerly Miller, who has been sick with pneumonia.

J. M. Emery's wife and children returned Sunday from Eureka Springs, Ark., where his son Earl was in a hospital following an operation upon his palate.

Ira Wiands, the bronco rider, left Monday evening for Denver, where relatives will join him for an outing in the city of the plains.

Mrs. Nancy Dolen, after a long and peaceful life, passed away Saturday evening, October 6, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. T. J. Bowen. She was born in Kentucky in 1819.

Clayton Kellam, who came here a few years ago from Beatrice and located on a ranch south of town, has sold his place and abandoned farm life, for the time being at least. The purchaser is J. M. Lancaster of Inavale.

Pete Garrett has this week installed a furnace in the basement of his new dwelling. The Peterson boys of Red Cloud did the work. We understand they will also install a heating plant in the new Methodist church.

Miss Tilly Laux of Macon has gone to Kansas City for a second treatment with Dr. Carson, to whose hospital she was taken two months ago with most gratifying results. Miss Laux has been an invalid for years and has been operated upon once for cancer.

RIVERTON

(From the Review.)

Bert Harwood, by "butting in," got kicked by a mule Monday.

Rev. Bates visited the school last Friday and passed a few very complimentary remarks.

Elmer Emmerson was arrested last Wednesday and fined $12.50 for being drunk and disorderly.

Dr. Byerly came down from Franklin Monday to investigate the sickness at this place. He ordered the Franklin House quarantined, which has been done.

Last Friday Geo. Fisher brought in a load of hogs which he put on the market, and later purchased a span of young alligators which he took home with him.

Clara Teats of Keota, Ia., has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Ben Allen, for some time. Mrs. Teats has four sisters and one brother near this place whom she had not seen for sixteen years.

What do you think of an officer (a county officer) that will break the law by getting drunk? Franklin has such an officer—one that has repeatedly filled himself with tanglefoot to such an extent that he has to "go to the hay" for awhile to recuperate before he is able to transact his business.

SUPERIOR

(From the Express.)

L. P. Goodhue has purchased a fine two-seated surrey of the Peterson implement house.

Mrs. Brodstone and daughter Eveline start next week for their return trip to England.

Proposed Constitutional Amendment.

The following proposed amendment to the constitution of the State of Nebraska, as hereinafter set forth in full, is submitted to the electors of the State of Nebraska, to be voted upon at the general election to be held Tuesday, November 6, A. D. 1906

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Nebraska:

Section 1. That at the general election for state and Legislative officers to be held on Tuesday, succeeding the first Monday in November, 1906, the following provision be proposed and submitted to the electors of the State as an amendment to the constitution.

Section 2. There shall be a State Railway Commission, consisting of three members, who shall be first elected at the general election in 1906, whose terms of office, except those chosen at the first election under this provision, shall be six years, and whose compensation shall be fixed by the Legislature.

Of the three commissioners first elected, the one receiving the highest number of votes, shall hold his office for six years, the next highest four years, and the lowest two years. The powers and duties of such commission shall include regulation of rates, service and the general control of common carriers, as the legislature may provide by law. But in the absence of specific legislation, the commission shall exercise the powers and perform the duties enumerated in this provision.

Section 3. That at said election in the year 1906, on the ballot of each elector voting thereat, there shall be printed or written the words: "For Constitutional Amendment, with reference to State Railway Commission" And "Against Constitutional Amendment, With Reference to State Railway Commission." And if a majority of all votes cast at said election, shall be for such amendment, the same shall be deemed to be adopted.

I, A. Galusha, secretary of state of the state of Nebraska, do hereby certify that the foregoing proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Nebraska is a true and correct copy of the original enrolled and engrossed bill, as passed by the Twenty-ninth session of the legislature of the State of Nebraska, as appears from said original bill on file in this office, and that said proposed amendment is submitted to the qualified voters of the state of Nebraska for their adoption or rejection at the general election to be held on Tuesday the 6th day of November, A. D. 1906. In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the great seal of the state of Nebraska. Done at Lincoln this 24th day of July, in the year of our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Six, of the Independence of the United States the One Hundred and Thirty-second, and of this state the Fortieth.
