Inconsistent.

The Com-Ad is pluming itself over the reduced majority of Congressman Norris in this county, and intimates that the Com-Ad had something to do with it. As a matter of fact, Norris received 65 more votes than did Sheldon for governor, only six less than Hopewell for lieutenant governor, and more than any other Republican candidate except Thorne for state senator. The Roosevelt wave of two years ago greatly helped the Republican candidates, and the vote of that year bears no relation to the vote of this year. According to Hosmer's theory of the value of the Com-Ad's influence in matters political, the majority of 413 for Blackledge should have been on the other side, as that paper gave a great deal more space to booming Mr. Walters than it did to "knocking" on Norris.

A Problem for Mathematicians.

George Clauson, who has been engineering a pile driver for more than thirty years, wants somebody to figure out a problem which has been puzzling him all that time. The pile driver which he now uses has a hammer weighing 1,400 pounds, and Mr. Clauson would like to know how many times the hammer increases its weight in a drop of 20 feet. Mr. Clauson has noticed that the pile driver will drive a post into the ground almost exactly the same distance at every blow, notwithstanding the earth becomes more packed and the post harder to drive the farther it is driven into the earth. He would also like to know how much the weight of the blow increases, say for each additional four inches the hammer falls. Will somebody please figure this out and send the reply to THE CHIEF?

Biten by a Cat.

Jack Wilnot's little baby suffered a peculiar injury yesterday. Mrs. Wilnot gave the baby a piece of meat, and then went into the cellar on an errand. Hearing the baby cry, she hurried into the room and found that a cat, in trying to take the meat from the baby, had nearly bitten off one of its fingers.

GROOMING COUNTS

But it cannot make a Fair Skin or a Glossy Coat.

Women with good complexions cannot be homely. Creams, lotions, washes and powders cannot make a fair skin. Every horseman knows that the satin coat of his thoroughbred comes from the animal's "all-right" condition. Let the horse get "off his feed" and his coat turns dull. Curying, brushing and rubbing will give him a clean coat, but cannot produce the coveted smoothness and gloss of the horse's skin, which is his complexion. The ladies will see the point.

Lane's Family Medicine

Is the best preparation for ladies who desire a gentle laxative medicine that will give the body perfect cleanliness internally and the wholesomeness that produces such skins as painters love to copy.

Played "Indian."

The P. E. O's gave a "Hiawatha" party at the home of Dr. and Mrs. N. H. Morrison last night. According to the reports there were "big doin's." The P. E. O's and their guests wore Indian costumes, but it seems that Editor Tait and Will Auld, laboring under a misunderstanding, went to the function dressed as ordinary people. When they appeared upon the scene they were immediately surrounded by the "bucks," thrown to the floor, "scalped," and then made to smoke the "pipe of peace." The latter penalty was quite severe, as neither of them ever indulges in tobacco. There is also a rumor afloat that Dr. Rob Mitchell created quite a sensation as the "big medicine man."

The Vocal Choir.

The famous vocal choir of the Klities (from 16 to 20 voices) renders "Ye Banks and Braes," "Annie Laurie," "Scots Wha Hae," "The Hundred Pipers," "My Love She's But a Lassie Yet," "Robin Adair" and many other exquisite English and Scottish songs, harmonized, as well as popular Canadian airs. A good indication of the choir's popularity is the fact that at every concert given on the various tours, without exception, their selections were encored from three to six times. Opera house, Thursday afternoon, November 15.

ELEVATOR CONTRACT ALL RIGHT

Berlinghof Investigates Materials Used at Hastings Asylum.

Lincoln, Nov. 5.—George Berlinghof, selected to investigate the contract for putting in food elevators at the Hastings asylum, will make his report in detail today. Mr. Berlinghof will report that the state made a good contract. He will say he has investigated the material used in the job, and it is all right, and according to specifications. The motors, he found, were one-half horsepower instead of one horsepower, but that these had already been held up and would be changed. Mr. Berlinghof secured bids on the work from various firms, and, according to the material used, he is satisfied the contract is all right. The contract for furnishing the elevators was let to Earl Wescott.

FARMER 'CHOKED ON WINDMILL

Setscrew Seizes His Coat and Twists It Tight Around His Neck.

Newman Grove, Neb., Nov. 6.—Merritt B. Otis, a farmer whose home is twelve miles from this place in Emerick township, was choked to death in a tragic way. He had gone up on his windmill to shut it off. There was no wind when he started and apparently no danger. Before he could turn off the wheel a breeze sprang up and set it in motion. A set screw caught in the collar of Otis' coat and began choking him. He managed to call his wife for aid and she ran out of the house and climbed up on the frame and tried desperately to disentangle his coat from the screw, but failed. Then she descended and sought—but also in vain—to shut off the power. As a last hope she rushed into the house and telephoned neighbors for aid. When they reached the mill Otis was dead from choking.

Family Ill From Trichina Poison.

Fremont, Neb., Nov. 6.—From eating trichina pork, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heine and young son, Wilbur, residents of the new town of Leshara, are critically ill. They were brought to the Fremont hospital, where Mrs. Heine is in a precarious condition. A week ago Mr. Heine butchered a hog the family had raised in a pen back of the house. Some of the meat was eaten and the following day the family were taken ill. When the physicians pronounced the disease trichina poisoning the sick persons were brought to the hospital.

Wants Wife to Work Like Farm Hand.

Nebraska City, Neb., Nov. 3.—Carl Malzer and Miss Staphina Hruby were married by County Judge Wilson. They are both Germans and cannot speak a word of English, and the clerk of the court acted as interpreter. It developed that the groom had paid a friend $50 to secure him a wife, and he had induced this German girl to marry Malzer because he had a good farm and was well to do. The groom insisted that the judge make her promise to work for him just like a farm hand, because he had to pay so much money to get her.

Engineer Sellars of the water works has been compelled to keep the pump going almost constantly the past three or four days in order to keep the water out of the way of the workmen in the big ditch. At last it seems that a plentiful supply of water has been struck at the waterworks plant, thanks to the persistency of H. E. Grice and the Commercial club.
