

CALUMET Baking Powder

The only high grade Baking Powder sold at a moderate price. Complies with the pure food laws of all states.

Trust Baking Powders sell for 45 or 50 cents per pound and may be identified by this exorbitant price. They are a menace to public health, as food prepared from them contains large quantities of Rochelle salts, a dangerous cathartic drug.

Newsy Notes From Neighboring Towns

GATHERED FROM OUR EXCHANGES

CAMPBELL

(From the Citizen.)

Chris Sorensen and Dena Christiansen were married Wednesday.

Some grading and filling is being done on Main street this week.

S. F. Greene yesterday sold the Campbell Roller Mills to E. J. and E. F. Reichstein. Consideration, $5000.

J. H. Chevalier, B. M. Chevalier and Remi D. Choquette are the incorporators of a new bank to be established at Upland.

E. Longprbt, of Montreal, Canada, stopped off Saturday for a couple of weeks visit at the home of his uncle, A. Forest.

The boys let us off easy Halloween, about the only thing done being to smear soap on the windows of the business houses.

I. S. Wright, called "Iky" by the boys and some of the girls, has shook the town for good. He left Saturday for his old home, Johnstown, Pa.

John Golbach, while driving up Main street Saturday morning with his sister, Mrs. Aultz, and the latter's little girl, met with a minor accident. As the wheels of the buggy struck the cross-walk, the front axle broke suddenly, and in trying to check the team Mr. Golbach, who was pulled forward, tried to use his face for a brake block with results disastrous to his beauty.

LEBANON.

(From the Times.)

Lebanon is without a laundry.

Word comes from Juniata, Neb., that Ed Fulton is one of the heirs to an estate of $50,000.

Jas. Ashbaugh was in Kansas City Monday and Tuesday on business regarding the new bricks of Mays, Maute and Tygart.

Mrs. Root returned from Topeka Saturday evening. She says that Miss Mabel underwent the operation successfully, and will be home in about ten days.

John Arkebour brought in four hogs Monday which were the finest that have been marketed in Lebanon for quite a spell. They weighed 1,950 pounds and brought him the neat sum of $114.75.

Monday afternoon Sheriff Helfenstine and Deputy-sheriff Timmons arrested one W. M. Chief, on a warrant charging him with conspiring to rob the First National Bank of this city and take the life of the cashier or assistant cashier. He unfolded his plans to his nephew, Leslie Dickey, last Friday afternoon, thinking that Leslie would assist him to carry out this damnable plot.

BLUE HILL.

(From the Leader)

F. T. Hopka expects to have his new home ready for occupancy before New Years.

Postmaster McNeer has purchased the residence west of his home place of W. C. Frahm.

Dr. Boles has made arrangements to make regular professional visits to Red Cloud each week.

About seventy-five of the young people enjoyed a Halloween party at A. M. Walters' Wednesday evening.

The children of Mrs. Emma Delehoy gave her a surprise birthday dinner in honor of her 69th birthday, on last Sunday.

One of Mr. Crawford's boys had the misfortune to get his left arm badly sprained and bruised Thursday while wrestling.

Word was received here Wednesday evening of the death of Mrs. P. J. Merten, at the St. Elizabeth hospital at Lincoln.

R. Armstrong and wife were called to Bertrand this week on account of the death of Mrs. Armstrong's father, Mr. Livingston.

About 25 of the young folks met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McKenzie Saturday evening and gave their son Ellis a farewell party.

GUIDE ROCK

(From the News Letter.)

W. A. Seeley has had a cement walk put down along the front of his business property.

Lew Ely is getting the material on the ground for a new residence on his lots on north Main street.

Miss Ella VanWoert, who is a practical and successful bee keeper, took over fifty pounds of honey from her bees Tuesday.

Ed Moranville is limping around with a disabled leg as a result of getting tangled up with a telephone wire that was down.

The pupils of the high room gave Prof. Swisher a surprise by invading his home on Halloween in full force and unannounced.

W. Richard left at the News Letter office last Saturday a beet weighing 7½ pounds—not a sugar beet but a table beet—and wants to know who can beat it.

C. Weigel, a brother of John Weigel, drove in this week from Colorado, a distance of about 400 miles making the trip in ten days or an average of about 40 miles a day. Mr. Weigel lived here about 15 years ago.

FRANKLIN

(From the Sentinel.)

Railroad workmen were engaged this week in repairing the stock yard scales.

Clarence Davis is putting up a new house in the southeast part of town.

Lind Nelson shipped a carload of lambs, 250 in number, to St. Joe Wednesday.

Sheriff Walrath went through town yesterday having in his custody Alexander Silvrants who refused to pay a judgment for alimony to his divorced wife.

The government live stock inspector came up to Franklin Tuesday in order to put Uncle Samuel's official O. K. on Mr. Nelson's sheep prior to their shipment.

Noble Owen surprised his parents Saturday night by coming in on the flyer from a trip out to the mountains where he has been "seeing some of the world."

The foot ball team went to Norton Friday, Oct. 26, to meet the Norton County High School eleven. The game was called at 3:30 p. m. and during the first half the ball was in Franklin's territory most of the time. The second half things were reversed and the Academy made a touch down and kicked goal, making the score 6 to 0.

John Patterson says that if the fellows who stole his chickens Halloween night will call at his front door when they make their next marauding expedition he will take his lantern and help them pick them out as he has several fine hens which he would like to keep.

SMITH CENTER

(From the Messenger.)

The electric lights so much talked of of late, were turned on in all their glory Thursday evening. They are certainly a progress.

Barnes-Sargent—At the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. Clare Sargent last night at 7:30 o'clock their daughter Ines Estalla and Mr. James Barnes were united in marriage.

William Chelf has failed to give bond up to noon today and is still in jail. The boy, Leslie Dickey, who divulged the plot, is at home near Lebanon and still maintains that his story is true.

Report reached Smith Center yesterday evening reporting the death of Miss Leita Farris at the home of her mother, Mrs. Strode, who is at present engaged in the hotel business at Esbon, of typhoid fever.

The Red Cloud Business college foot ball team arrived on time last Friday and the high school team here soon had them at their mercy. It was a good game and the high school have considerable credit due them for defeating this crack Nebraska team. Those Red Cloud students are a gentlemanly lot, and will be welcomed back any time.

BLOOMINGTON

(From the Advocate.)

The opera house has not yet materialized enough to be visible to the naked eye.

The Franklin County Agricultural Society has paid in full the premiums awarded to the high school at the county fair.

A cement side walk is this week being laid on the street east of the court house.

J. B. McGrew informs us that he is now grandpa, a son having been born to his daughter, Mrs. C. S. Harris, at Sumner, Miss.

Miss Clara Mallek is now assistant in the department of chemistry in the state university.

The fellows who smeared axle grease on store windows last Wednesday night should be daubed with the same thing from head to foot.

Claude Cole, who has been here visiting with his parents, has gone to Roca, where he has been placed in charge of the station.

Arrangements are being made to repair the Methodist church on both the outside and in, which will make it much more comfortable.

Last Monday night at about the mid night hour a lamp in the Commercial hotel went crazy and came near starting a fire before it was thrown out, and about two hours later a fire was discovered in the kitchen.

A number of the larger boys in the Bloomington schools recently organized a foot ball team and, under the guidance of Roy Garber, last Saturday played a team from the Franklin schools and won the game to the tune of 20 to 10.

CORRESPONDENCE

Interesting Items Gathered by Our County Reporters

COWLES

Nute Lorantz is home from Idaho.

Rev. Priestley spent a few days in Hardy this week.

Mr. Blaine and son John returned from Denver last Monday.

A. A. Boren has moved to his new home in the east part of town.

Merland Butler has accepted a position in a butcher shop in Red Cloud.

Miss Mabel Evans is visiting this week with her sister, Mrs. Walter Thomas.

Charles Foe arrived here the first of the week for a visit with his parents and other relatives.

STILLWATER

Weather fine for husking corn.

J. H. Greenhalgh has his new house plastered.

Hazel Finney came home Sunday and at present is sick in bed.

Walter Ogilvie of Kearney, a former Stillwater boy, has returned to this combined with plain figure prices steadily adhered to, has brought us a constantly growing business. Quality first, price next. Nothing but standard made, reputable goods at lowest profit prices.

OUR MOTTO: "Satisfaction or your money back"

Always willing to show our goods and compare prices with either local or Chicago houses.

Newhouse Bros.,

Jewelers and Opticians.

B. & M. Watch Inspectors

vicinity and is shucking corn for different parties.

A few of the boys were out Halloween, but no serious damage was done so far as heard from.

A fine monument was erected last week in Eckley cemetery at the grave of the late Thos. Finney. The stone was purchased in Red Cloud.

A literary society was organized in district 56 on Thursday night of last week. It started out with flattering prospects and no doubt will be a great benefit to the neighborhood.

BLADEN

Election is over.

Fine weather for November.

Wm. Reed drove to Blue Hill Sunday.

H. B. Boyd returned from Hildreth Monday.

J. M. Lockhart and wife attended church at Plainview Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Crom visited his brother Emery and family Sunday.

Fred Brewer of Culbertson was visiting his sister, Mrs. J. W. McCoy, this week.

E. W. Tuttle moved in his new residence in the north part of town this week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Alexander are parents of a baby girl, born Sunday, Nov. 4.

Miss Bessie Strycker came up from Lawrence Friday and visited over Sunday with home folks, returning Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Newhouse and children drove up from Red Cloud Sunday and visited at the home of Wash Reed, returning home Monday.

DRY CREEK

Good time now to pay election bets. Melvin Crowder drew a fine lamp at Hodge Bros.

The I-told-you-so man is very much in evidence just now.

This neighborhood is receiving a thorough threshing this week.

Herman Bergfield helped Starke Bros. drive cattle last Sunday.

Miss Grace Peterson is going to give a basket supper the 16th of this month.

Mrs. Fringer, whose health has been quite poorly of late, is somewhat better at present.

Now since election is over it would be a very good time for us all to pitch in and help John Rockefeller pay that $5,000 fine.

Miss Ida Sommerhalder returned to her home in Pawnee county, after spending a few days at the home of her uncle, Sam Sommerhalder.

GARFIELD

Alva Mefford has built a new barn.

L. L. Dehart has a new barn in course of building.

Cora Reed was visiting her parents the first of the week.

L. C. Munger was calling on N. P. Campbell last Sunday.

This time it is a bouncing boy which the stork left at the home of T. W. White.

S. D. Andrus has a new corn crib and wagon shed completed.

B. F. Reed and family were visiting friends in Garfield last Sunday.

Clinton Smith, whose skull was crushed in by a horse, is getting along fine. Hopes are now entertained of complete recovery.

Election passed off very quietly last Tuesday, and everyone looks smiling and happy, except the fellows who were compelled to make the voyage unaided up the turbulent waters of salt creek.

Dean Smith, one of Garfield's former residents, on last Sunday took unto himself a wife, one of the fair daughters of the Sunflower state, and his many friends now wish him a long and peaceful voyage over life's tempestuous sea.

To Cure Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo quinine tablets. Druggists refund money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25 cents.

Miss Jessie Wert

INSTRUCTOR OF

Piano, Organ and Voice

Studio at Mrs. Josie Moranville's, two blocks east of school house. Phone 204.

I HAVE

Six Companies

800 policies representing over $2,000,000 insurance in Webster county. Now is the time to get in the Band Wagon.

O. C. TEEL,

Insurance and Notary.

Telephones: Country, No. 26; Bell, No. 98.

Local Grain Market.

(Furnished by J. B. Wisecarver agent for Updike Elevator Co.)

Ear corn	31½c
No. 3 corn	32½c
No. 3 Yellow corn	32½c
No. 3 White corn	33½c
No. 3 White oats	23c
No. 3 Mixed oats	21c
No. 2 Hard wheat	51c
No. 3 Hard wheat	48c
No. 2 Spring wheat	51c
No. 3 Spring wheat	48c
No. 2 Rye	36c