

Newsy Notes From Neighboring Towns

GATHERED FROM OUR EXCHANGES

GUIDE ROCK

(From the News Letter.)

W. H. Barcus this week sold his residence property in the west part of town to J. D. Chrissman.

The revival meetings that have been in progress for the past four weeks at the Christian church, closed Sunday night.

The Wahoo Democrat gives an account of the death of Cora, the seven year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tremor Cone, on the 12th inst., of diphtheria.

On Tuesday, November 20, a number of the old friends and neighbors of Mrs. E. O. Parker spent the afternoon with her to assist her in celebrating her 77th birthday.

Frank Cooper, while working on a scaffolding at his chicken house, fell about ten feet to the ground, striking with his head and shoulders and injuring one arm so badly that he has to carry it in a sling.

SUPERIOR

(From the Express.)

Mrs. Masterson, who was taken sick in Edgar, was brought here yesterday and is at the home of her daughter, Mrs. B. W. Woolsey.

Elmer Hilebaugh, charged with the crime of burning August Schmeling's barn on May 10, 1906, was convicted in the district court at Nelson this afternoon.

About 4 o'clock this afternoon J. A. Cellar's father died very suddenly in Horton's barber shop. The old gentleman is from Waverly, Kan., visiting his son and family.

In the district court yesterday Harry Hill plead guilty to stealing the Gunnison team at Hardy about six months ago, and was sentenced to the penitentiary for six years.

The many friends of Mike Hodges will be grieved to learn that his mental condition has been getting so bad lately that his relatives were obliged to send him to the asylum at Lincoln yesterday.

BLOOMINGTON

(From the Advocate.)

John Hester was down to Kansas City the first of the week with a load of hogs himself and neighbors had shipped down.

Some one in this town will get blown to kingdom come if they do not keep out of other people's coal bins. We know of some that are loaded.

The surveyors of the Salina & Northwestern railroad camped in Bloomington over Sunday. They were on their way back to Downs, Kan., where they will winter.

Judge Losey performed an Irish wedding at his office on the 19th, at least Claud Irish, aged 21, and Susie Irish, age 19, of Smith county were married by his honor.

It has come to a pretty pass when a man cannot get married without having to "put up" to half of the town in treating. They came in droves and herds this week and demanded stated sums from Col. Holmes, and some of them not being satisfied with a reasonable "hold-up" became rude and used insulting language. It is high time to put a stop to this damphool nonsense.

FRANKLIN

(From the Sentinel.)

Workmen are now nicely started on the new brick for Brown's photograph gallery.

W. C. Jastram returned from West Point Thursday night, where he had been to attend the funeral of his aged father.

The young people of the Congregational choir are engaged in the laudable enterprise of raising funds for a new organ.

Playous P. Buster and Miss Angie Davis of this city were married last Tuesday in the office of the county judge at Alma.

The public schools of this city will begin again next Monday. No new cases of any sickness have come up in the last two weeks and everything is perfectly safe.

Mrs. Rosa Maser made a trip to Red Cloud Wednesday for a brief visit with friends. She brought back a big fat turkey with her which she will slaughter for Thanksgiving dinner.

S. B. Turnipseed, a private citizen, has voluntarily subscribed and paid into the fund created by the occupation tax the sum of five dollars as a contribution for the benefit of the town.

City Treasurer W. D. Blackwell informs us that there has been paid into the occupation tax fund a little over $325, or considerably over half the amount of revenue the tax was calculated to produce.

LEBANON

(From the Times.)

E. P. Root is busy this week installing a No. 7 hot air furnace in the basement of the new Methodist church.

Clarence Beardslee of Lebanon, has just finished putting in 23,000 square feet of most excellent cement sidewalks in Esbon.

A deal was consummated Tuesday whereby Hiram McCorkle of Mankato becomes proprietor of the L. M. Linton stock of goods in this city.

J. N. Elson sold his farm last Thursday to J. J. Timberlake for the neat sum of $8000. J. N. purchased this farm four years ago for $3900, thus making $4100 outside of the crops.

BLUE HILL

(From the Leader.)

Frank Smith, who was injured some time ago by falling off his dray, is able to be up town again.

The Happy Hour Dutch Club, as some of the members call themselves, gathered Tuesday evening and descended upon the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Scott, giving the mistress of the house a genuine surprise.

Four little boys have come to grace the homes of four families in this community the past week: Mr. and Mrs. Warren, south of town; Mr. and Mrs. L. Bostock, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rowlands, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Arndt.

Mrs. Mary Johnson, who lives five miles northeast of Blue Hill, returned Saturday from a visit to her old home near Peoria, Ill. She was called there six weeks ago by the serious illness and subsequent death of her sister.

CAMPBELL

(From the Citizen.)

Erick Bergman and Jack Farquharson returned Tuesday from their Canada trip.

Married, Monday, November 19, at the Catholic church in Campbell, Miss Albina Gagnon to Isaac Collette, Rev. Father Tastevin officiating.

An alarm of fire about 7 o'clock Monday morning brought the fire department out before breakfast for a run to the home of Wm. Burden. No damage to speak of.

Frank Smith, the 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, living on the Charles Scheneman place five miles north of town, met with an accident Monday from which he fortunately escaped with his life. He came to town with a team and trucks for lumber, accompanying his father, who drove another team, and after his wagon was loaded the team was tied in front of Robbins' saloon and the boy left to watch them while the other wagon was being loaded. After some time, during which the little fellow remained at his post in the freezing air, he untied the team and started back across the track. The horses were frisky and became frightened at the train just coming in, and, turning sharply, broke the tongue of the wagon and threw the boy, who was undoubtedly numb with cold, in front of the wheels. When struck by the wheels, however, the boy was pushed aside and, while the the flesh was bruised and scraped and the boy pretty badly shaken up, he fortunately escaped being run over, in which event he would without question have been killed.

Business College Notes

The football game last Friday between the team known as the Red Cloud Business College team and the Grand Island Business College team was a good one and the Red Cloud boys did all that could be expected of them. Their playing was more scientific all the way through, and when it came to making gains the Grand Island fellows most always had to resort to punting to make the required gain in the three downs. Grand Island has a fine punter and it was through him that they won the game. The score was 16 to 0 in favor of Grand Island. The boys all speak well of the Grand Island boys and say they were fine fellows and played a clean game. About 300 people witnessed the game. The boys wish to thank the business men who so kindly subscribed to get the game here. Following are the names of those who helped out: C. H. Miner, Paul Storey, Koon Bros., C. L. Cotting, W. H. Taber, Marion Neal, Saunders Bros., Ed Amack, Yost & Havel, Cowden-Kaley Co., Turnure Bros., C. C. Cox, Albright Bros., A. C. Hosmer, C. A. Schultz, F. R. Mandeville, D. S. Sheard, B. E. McFarland and C. W. Bushee.

Prof. Dietrick and wife made a trip to near North Branch, Kan., Saturday evening, where the Professor gave one of his entertainments you hear so much about these days. They took supper at the home of the teacher, Miss Vina Hutchison, and then proceeded to the school house to help laugh with the rest of them, as the program progressed. The house was

The CANADIAN West is The Best WEST

160 ACRES
FARMS IN
FREE

THE testimony of tens of thousands during the past year is that the Canadian West is the best West. Year by year the agricultural returns have increased in volume and value, and still the Canadian Government offers 160 acres free to every bona fide settler.

Great Advantages

The phenomenal increase in railway mileage—main lines and branches—has put almost every portion of the country within easy reach of churches, schools, markets, cheap fuel and every modern convenience. The ninety million bushel wheat crop of this year means $60,000,000 to the farmers of Western Canada, apart from the results of other grains as well as from cattle.
