

NEW YORK

APPLES

in Barrels

ALL HAND-PICKED

NO WINDFALLS

McFARLAND

The GROCER

All the Phones

A FEW

TIPS

Straight from the Ladies on what they would like for Xmas.

Burned Wood Novelties,

Back Combs,

Side Combs,

Powder Puffs,

Ideal Hair Brushes,

(Imported)

Handkerchiefs,

Hand-painted Sacht

Envelopes.

Finest Variety Fancy

RIBBONS

especially adapted for Christmas Collars and made up in any shape free of charge.

Remember, your X-mas packages are not complete without one of those Xmas Holly tags and enclosure cards for sale at

EMMA GRAVES' Hair Dressing Parlor

Just Received, a Car of

FLOUR

—AT—

PLUMB'S FLOUR and FEED STORE

You can save money by taking 500 pounds of him.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Wm. D. Gifford

LOCALETTES

M. C. Sherman is home from Lincoln.

Dr. E. A. Thomas, Dentist, Damerell block.

Dr. T. Albert Jones is home from Texas.

Ed Garber was up from Guide Rock Thursday.

One of E. W. Ross' best horses died Tuesday.

Allen Tulleys will spend Christmas in Naponee.

Dr. Raines has removed his office to the Potter block.

J. A. McArthur has five Berkshire male hogs for sale.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Hayes is quite sick.

Mrs. Lulu Matthews of Inavale was in the city Tuesday.

Mrs. Harry Cloud was down from Inavale Wednesday.

Mr. and Mr. R. Skeen will spend Christmas in Falls City.

Colonel Winfrey is home from his trip to Toronto, Canada.

Mrs. Holmgren is visiting with her daughter in Guide Book.

Mrs. Hartwell and Mrs. True were down from Inavale Monday.

L. E. Tait was out in Red Willow county the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Arnold were down from Blue Hill Saturday.

Miss Alice Pope underwent an operation for appendicitis Wednesday.

Christmas exercises will be held at the Christian church Monday night.

Mrs. Fred Guthrie and sister were over from Bellaire, Kan., Wednesday.

"Eek" Brown, the Franklin photographer, was a Red Cloud visitor Sunday.

Whenever you happen to think of a news item, phone it to Bell 73 or Mutual 23.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Clark of Oxford are visiting with relatives in and near Red Cloud.

Ray Palmer will go to Hastings tomorrow to spend Christmas with the Van Camps.

Ancil Crabill returned home Monday from a several months' stay in St. Joseph, Mo.

Jack Doyle of Newberg, Ore., is visiting with relatives in Red Cloud and vicinity.

There will be a game of football between the clerks and the high school on Christmas.

Misses Bertha and Bernice Potter are home from the State University for the holidays.

H. B. Simons will spend Christmas with his old comrades at the soldiers, home in Milford.

S. O. Hayman of the electric light force goes to Grand Island tomorrow to spend Christmas.

Miss Margery Stover of Edgar, Neb., will spend the holidays at the home of Mrs. Anna Tulleys.

Mrs. Fred Peterson is very ill at her home in the south part of town, and her life is despaired of.

C. L. Jones was down from Hastings the first of the week, and traded automobiles with Dr. Cook.

D. S. Coombs suffered a stroke of paralysis last Tuesday and is in a very precarious condition.

Miss Laura Sanson of Pontiac, Ill., is the guest of her sisters, Mrs. Ed McAlister and Miss Zoe Sanson.

Mason & Dixon's "Uncle Tom" show played to a fair sized audience at the opera house Wednesday night.

The Degree of Honor will meet next Tuesday (Christmas) night. All members are expected to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Heinlen and daughter Mary of Bucyrus, O., are guests at the home of John Kellogg.

W. F. Conner of Dallas, Tex., delivered an interesting address at the meeting of Garfield post last Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Houchin left Wednesday morning for a visit at their former home near Bowling Green, Kentucky.

There will be a Christmas entertainment by the Sunday school at the Congregational church Monday evening at 7:30.

Floyd Pitney, who farmed the Art Myers place the past season, left the first of the week for Max, Neb., where he may locate.

Has your school or church a nice clock? Better hustle up ten new subscribers to THE CHIEF and get one of those eight-day regulators.

We Wish You a MERRY CHRISTMAS

Christmas comes and every heart overflows with Yuletide Joy.

What shall I give "Him" for Christmas?

This is the same difficult problem that presents itself at every recurrence of the season.

Copyright 1906 The House of Kuppenheimer

We come to your rescue and say: "Come here with all your troubles and let us show you."

We're in Holiday attire and have the things a man buys for himself and appreciates most. We can also fill the Boy's stocking as satisfactorily as a Man's.

Copyright 1906 The House of Kuppenheimer

A FEW SUGGESTIONS.

- OVERCOATS, RAIN COATS, SUITS, TROUSERS, FANCY VESTS, SMOKING JACKETS, BATH ROBES,
- NECKWEAR, GLOVES, HOSIERY, UNDERWEAR, SUSPENDERS, UMBRELLAS, SHIRTS,
- COLLARS, CUFFS, MUFFLERS, CAPS, REEFERS, SWEATERS, SUIT CASES.

We will lay aside your selection until Christmas and we'll make any exchange desired after Christmas. Our prices are fair and reasonable. No "hold up" here. Come early and avoid the rush

The Cowden-Kaley Clothing Company

ALWAYS RELIABLE.

First Door North of Postoffice, - Red Cloud, Nebraska

While it is not expected the new Catholic church will be dedicated before Easter, services will be held in it on and after Christmas day.

The county commissioners held a short session this week. The business transacted consisted chiefly of making settlements with road overseers.

Last Friday was the twenty-fifth anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. S. Beckwith, and they celebrated the day in a fitting manner.

Dr. Warrick, the specialist, will meet eye, ear, nose and throat patients and those needing glasses properly fitted, at Dr. Damerell's office, Tuesday, January 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smelser and Mr. and Mrs. Alex Smelser have returned to Red Cloud from Cortland, Kan., and expect to remain here this winter.

Pine Salve Carbolyzed acts like a poultice; highly antiseptic, extensively used for Eczema, chapped hands and lips, cuts, burns. Sold by Henry Cook's drug store.

Charles Whitaker arrived from Colorado the first of the week and in company with his father and brother Dave left for the west again Tuesday in search of a new location.

C. P. Stewart of Oxford assisted Snapp's orchestra at the club dance Wednesday night. Mr. Stewart was formerly director of the Fourth Regiment Band of St. Joseph, Mo.

The Nebraska Telephone Co. has opened a down town business office and public pay station in the frame building across the street south from the Mutual telephone exchange.

Boyd and John Harrington and Mrs. McIntyre left last Saturday for a visit with their aged mother in Pennsylvania. She is 73 years of age, and recently suffered a stroke of paralysis.

J. S. Johnson, past grand master of the Nebraska grand lodge of Odd Fellows and for nineteen years grand receiver of the A. O. U. W., is dead. Funeral services were held at Superior Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Johnson was also vice president of the Citizens' Bank of Superior.

Fred Hillis, wife and child, of Greencastle, Ind., visited at the home of J. O. Caldwell the first of the week. They are returning home from a trip to Vancouver, B. C., and Portland, Oregon.

W. A. Holmes, traveling salesman for the Millikan-Mulloney Saddlery Co., will remove his family from Washington, Kan., to Red Cloud as soon as he can find a house for them to live in.

We care not how you suffered, nor what failed to cure you, Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea makes the puniest, weakest specimen of manhood or womanhood strong and healthy. 35c. C. L. Cotting.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Robertson, east of town, are preparing for a big family reunion of the Robertson and Serl families, to be held Christmas day. Eighty-two members of the two families are expected to be present.

T. L. Bridgeman, state inspector of high schools, paid a visit to the Red Cloud schools yesterday, and his remarks concerning the management of the schools were very complimentary to Prof. Dudley and his assistants.

If you miss the Grinnell College Glee Club at the opera house December 26, you will miss the best thing of the season. The club consists of 20 members, and Red Cloud is its only stop between Denver and Kansas City. Reserve your seats now at Mitchell's.

There will be a Christmas sermon at the Congregational church next Sunday morning at 10:30, with special Christmas music by the choir. The church will be appropriately decorated for the occasion. All the Sunday school pupils are expected to be present.

Good homes are wanted for orphan and destitute children of all ages by the Child Saving Institute, 1806 Ohio street, Omaha. Over 300 children pass through the institute to homes and care in a single year. From forty to sixty constantly on hand. If interested write, inclosing stamp for reply.

The Red Cloud high school football team went to Franklin last Friday and trimmed the high school team of that place by a score of 20 to 0. The boys report a nice clean game and royal entertainment by the Franklin boys. It is also said that Jake Kellogg got lost from the bunch and did not show up at the hotel until after midnight, and for a time it was feared he had been kidnapped.

A series of lectures on the Sabbath question is being given by the Rev. Samuel W. Gamble of Ottawa, Kan. The first lecture was given last night at the Congregational church. Tonight Mr. Gamble will speak at the Christian church, and Saturday night and Sunday night at the Methodist church. The lectures begin at 8 o'clock and admission is free. Everybody should hear this gifted and talented lecturer on this all important subject.

Mrs. William Giwitz, formerly of this city, died at her home in Pattonsburg, Mo., Saturday, December 15, age 76 years. She is remembered by many of our older citizens as a woman of strong Christian character, faithful to her family and her church. Her husband, who died in this city several years ago, is buried in the Red Cloud cemetery. She leaves three sons, all grown to Manhood—Murray, of California; Rev. C. E., of Omaha, and Fred, of Pattonsburg, Mo.

Clyde Whitaker Breaks Leg.

Clyde, the 16-year-old son of D. R. Whitaker, broke his right leg below the knee yesterday evening by falling upon the cement walk at the high school building. After school was out several of the boys were kicking a football about the grounds and in running after the ball Clyde tripped on the edge of walk and fell with great violence, breaking his leg.