

CALUMET Baking Powder

The only high grade Baking Powder sold at a moderate price. Complies with the pure food laws of all states.

Trust Baking Powders sell for 45 or 50 cents per pound and may be identified by this exorbitant price. They are a menace to public health, as food prepared from them contains large quantities of Rochelle salts, a dangerous cathartic drug.

Newsy Notes From Neighboring Towns

GATHERED FROM OUR EXCHANGES

CAMPBELL

(From the Citizen.)

Pearl Waufler, who has been operating a pool hall in Bladen, had his license revoked last week, but is openly defying the order to close.

Wm. Ellinger, while in Beatrice last week, purchased a car of thoroughbred Aberdeen cattle, which were unloaded in Campbell Saturday morning.

Dr. Palmer, of Holdrege, was called in consultation with Dr. Patterson, Wednesday, over the case of Henry Myers, whose condition is serious.

Noah Monroe, who was taken quite ill the latter part of last month, does not recover rapidly, and it was thought best to send for his wife, who has been visiting relatives in eastern Tennessee.

RIVERTON

(From the Review.)

Mrs. Harvey Eggelson is seriously ill.

Dr. T. B. Myers has been appointed coroner.

Miss Anna Allen is sick with pneumonia fever this week.

It is reported that Louis Olmstead is quite sick with pneumonia.

Morris Groat, a blacksmith from Red Cloud, is working for A. M. Cooke.

Patrick Gilroy, who has been on the sick list for some time, is reported better.

One day last week Carl Onstot sold one hog that brought $36, selling at market price per pound.

BLUE HILL.

(From the Leader.)

Mrs. M. Durden left Wednesday for Omaha, where she will enter the St. Joseph hospital.

W. S. Ashby was an east bound passenger as far as Rosemont Monday. As this was his first experience in purchasing a ticket for twenty years, he found it a very novel and not altogether pleasant ordeal.

At a meeting of the Odd Fellows Hall Association Monday afternoon, the matter of building a new hall was brought up and fully discussed and the members of the association decided to take hold of it in earnest and build next spring.

Capt. Koehler, a brother of George of this city, who is in the Philippines has been court-martialed for alleged disrespect to superior officers. He asked for better quarters for his men and because no attention was paid to his request, had the matter reported. He was court-martialed and some of the disclosures made by fellow officers in his behalf have caused quite a sensation in army circles. The case has been referred to President Roosevelt.

BLOOMINGTON

(From the Advocate.)

Dr. Meyers, of Riverton, has been appointed coroner in place of Dr. Olson of Hildreth.

The Christie brothers, over south had a disagreement again this week and a warrant has been issued for the arrest of Forbes for making threats to carve some one with an axe.

Mesdames C. H. Waldo and W. A. Deary gave an afternoon party yesterday in honor of Mrs. I. B. Hampton,

Mrs. C. E. Harman and Mrs. C. E. Harris at the home of the latter.

County Attorney Miller was down to Franklin last Saturday to try his first case. Complaint was made because Ezra Fager was too strenuous in his treatment of a balky horse, and he pled guilty and was given a small fine.

The case of Lin Nelson vs the Burlington for damages sustained for failure to start a freight train on which Nelson had stock for the market, on time was affirmed by the supreme court last Saturday. In the lower court Mr. Nelson was given $750 damages.

FRANKLIN

(From the Sentinel.)

Prof. A. L. Burton, his brother Billy and Art Beitel have signed an engagement with Haase's Concert Band of Omaha and will leave Monday for their new work.

We have just received word that N. J. Cheline lost his only daughter in Orleans shortly after moving there, death resulting from a short but fatal attack of diphtheria.

Ed Thompson, the county clerk, is sick in bed at the home of his father in Franklin township. Miss Rose Owen has been employed to act as deputy at a salary of $50 per month.

A telegram was received early Monday morning telling of the death of Miss Oberkotter's father. Miss Oberkotter and her sister who is attending the Academy left immediately on the morning train for their home at Geneva.

Milo Malary had an exciting run-way Monday morning while on his way to town for a load of coal. In jumping out of the wagon in order to walk a while his feet caught in the lines which jerked the horses and away they went. Milo up and followed about six feet in the rear but to save himself couldn't gain that two yards and the team came on to town, took three spins around the square and then turned in to the Hevner boys barn where they stopped.

LEBANON.

(From the Times.)

Margaret Jane Murry was born March 7, 1846, in Monitor county, Mo., and died Jan. 6, 1907.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Simmons, northwest of town, at four o'clock p. m., Sunday, January 6, Miss Lena Simmons and Burley A. Starr were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, Rev. C. A. Lee officiating.

SMITH CENTER

(From the Messenger.)

Jack Maunering was in town Friday taking his farm off the lists of the various real estate agents. He has decided to sow his 40 acres of bottom land in alfalfa.

Two more pioneers of this county were quietly laid to rest north of town last Saturday, viz: David Clark and J. H. Trevett. They were 1871 homesteaders, making a continuous residence of 35 years on the homesteads.

George Cooper was released from the county jail last Monday, which sentence he had served for six months, for unlawful trouble in the David Bell family. Mr. Bell was promptly on the

Tribute to the Phonograph

Even John Philip Sousa, the great bandmaster, who has no use for Phonographs, has been forced to recognize the Phonograph as a formidable competitor. The two-step king says that people will no longer go to concerts if they can have music in their own homes so easily and so cheaply as they can with the Phonograph. This is an unwilling tribute, but it is nevertheless a tribute. The man who has a Phonograph has a concert in his own house. Even a king could not have more. At our store you can hear them any time.

The Victor Gramophone.

The Victor Junior.....	$14.20
The Victor Z.....	21.20
The Victor No. 1.....	26.20
The Victor No. 2.....	34.20
The Victor No. 3.....	44.20
The Victor No. 4.....	54.20
The Victor No. 5.....	64.20
The Victor No. 6.....	104.20

The above prices include 12 8-in. records with each machine

The Edison Phonograph.

The Edison Gem Phonograph.....	$10.00
The Edison Standard Phonograph.....	20.00
The Edison Home Phonograph.....	30.00
The Edison Triumph Phonograph.....	50.00

Records, 35c each; $4.20 per dozen.

Compare these prices with anyone's, and remember we save you the freight.

Newhouse Brothers,

Jewelers and Opticians.

Burlington Watch Inspectors.

scene and rearrested him for larceny. Bell charges him with taking money and notes at the time of his arrest.

Our friend Julius Jarvis, Sunday night was at the depot and started to walk around the east end of the building and along the north side as had been his custom in former years. At one time not long ago the platform extended clear around the depot. Jule supposed it did yet, and walked off, falling in such a manner to break his leg in two places.

SUPERIOR

(From the Express.)

The Chaney boys have again embarked in the livery business, having leased the brick barn.

The Masons had an unusually interesting meeting at their hall last night. Dr. L. H. Beck and Fred Myers received the Master Mason degree.

Mrs. F. Drake left this morning for Dorchester, Neb., to meet her husband, who will arrive at that place with the remains of his mother, who died in Michigan recently.

CORRESPONDENCE

Interesting Items Gathered by Our County Reporters

COWLES

The institute Thursday and Friday was well attended.

Teachers' meeting was held in the school house Saturday.

Mary Waller and Arthur Vance started to school Monday.

We understand that a Mr. Wooley from Nelson will start a blacksmith shop in Cowles.

Miss Green of Red Cloud accompanied her teacher, Miss Irene Hall, home Friday evening.

John Thompson came home Thursday to be present at the marriage of his sister, Miss Bernice.

John Ellington, who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Wm. Waller, left for Franklin Monday evening.

GARFIELD

Chris Hansen lost a cow in the stalks this week.

The frost filled air still envelops this part of the mundane sphere.

Miss Dessie Throne was baptized by Rev. N. B. Wagoner last Sunday.

Mrs. Louisa Ailes was visiting with Frank Ailes the first of the week.

L. L. DeHart butchered a hog Tuesday, which was so large that it required the help of three men to handle it.

The meetings at the German Baptist church now in progress is very poorly attended on account of the weather.

Mrs. Barber is on the sick list yet; some days she is a little improved in health, and on others she gets a little worse.

Charles Ailes is digging a new cistern. It will be partly under his house, so that he can pump the water while in his kitchen.

The sale at Mr. Robinson's on the John Coon farm Monday was scarcely attended on account of the weather, yet property brought good prices. Mr. Robinson moved to Red Cloud Tuesday.

INAVALE.

Dan Norris has his new elevator nearly done.

Mr. Gilroy is reported to be still improving very slowly.

Mrs. Clarence Jones was a Red Cloud visitor on Thursday.

A. McCall shipped two cars of cattle to Kansas City Wednesday.

W. H. Cloud went to Kansas City with cattle the first of this week.

Glen Olmstead expects to build a new house in Inavale in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Worden are the proud possessors of a baby girl, which arrived on Monday.

It is reported that E. O. Garner has rented a place in California and will remain for a year.

Mr. Deisley has finished painting the Methodist church and the building looks much better in its new garb.

Mrs. Wm. Irons departed for Iowa Thursday morning, having been called there by the serious illness of her mother.

Don't forget the third number of the Inavale lecture course. Harry Trumbull Sutton, Saturday evening, Jan. 19 in his wonderful monologue, Ben Hur.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo quinine tablets. Druggists refund money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25 cents.

The relief of Coughs and Colds through laxative influence originated with Bee's Laxative Cough Syrup, containing Honey and Tar, a cough syrup containing no opiates or poisons, which is extensively sold. Secure a bottle at once, obtain a guarantee coupon, and if not fully satisfied with results, your money will be refunded. Sold by Henry Cook's drug store.

Notice of Tax Sale.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned on the 10th day of April, 1905, purchased of the county treasurer of Webster county, Nebraska, at private sale, the following described real estate sold for delinquent taxes for the years 1901, 1902 and 1903, and situated in Red Cloud, Webster county, Nebraska, to-wit: South 15 feet of lot ten (10) and all of lot eleven (11), in block four (4), Railroad addition to the city of Red Cloud, Webster county, Nebraska, taxed in the name of Mrs. James Velten. The above named person and all others who claim an interest in the above land will take notice that the time of redemption of said land from said tax sale will expire on the 11th day of April, A. D. 1907, after which I may apply for a tax deed for all of the above land that is not redeemed. Dated this 20th day of December, 1906. dec285 SILAS A. FINCHER.

RHEUMATISM CURED IN A DAY.

Mystic Cure for Rheumatism and Neuralgia radically cures in 1 to 3 days. Its action upon the system is remarkable and mysterious. It removes at once the cause and the disease immediately disappears. The first dose greatly benefits, 75 cents and $1. Sold by H. E. Guice, druggist, Red Cloud.