Dr. Boyajain, an Armenian, will preach a missionary sermon at the M. E. church next Sunday evening. He is an interesting speaker and his thrilling experiences with the Turks in Armenia will be well worth hearing. He will take no missionary offering. All are cordially invited to attend.

Next Sunday being so close to Abraham Lincoln's birthday, Rev. A. A. Cressman has decided to preach in the evening, February 10, on "Characteristics of Lincoln." A special and most cordial invitation is extended to all old soldiers to be present. The young people will also be interested in this eulogy of our martyred president.

Rev. N. A. Martin D. D., the presiding elder of the Hastings district, will preach at the M. E. church Friday evening, February 15, and the second quarterly conference will be held immediately after the preaching service. All members of the quarterly conference are requested to be present if possible. Dr. Martin will conduct the quarterly meeting Sunday, Feb. 17, at 11 o'clock, and also preach in the evening. All are cordially invited to attend these services.

Another virtuous spasm has come over someone connected with the city administration and as a consequence the poker players and pool "sharks" have received a jolt in the shape of a peremptory order to desist. However, gambling in its most vicious and most enticing form still flourishes—namely, the slot machines. Many persons who "buck" the slot machines hold up their hands in holy horror at the mention of the word "poker," yet one is just as much gambling as the other, with the best of the argument on the side of the poker game. And, if it is wrong for persons under 18 years of age to gamble on the "wheels," it is equally wrong for their elders to do the same thing. Let us at least be consistent.

Our reporters noticed a card in the post office lobby with the following written thereon: "Please send me one of your harness catalogues." We suppose that the card was addressed to Shears, Snowbuck & Co. The fellow forgot to sign his name hence the catalogue failed to arrive. Why not go to our home dealers and get a good harness. — Commercial Advertiser. We heartily indorse the foregoing. Red Cloud has three harness dealers, anyone of whom will give you a better bargain than the mail order house. Of course, because you do not see their advertisements in the newspapers you may be laboring under the impression that they are out of business, but we assure you they can be found at their old stands. Look them up.

The county commissioners have refused to pay the newspapers for publishing the proceeding of the board, although it has been the custom for years. The newspapers ask but the nominal price of $10 a year, barely enough to cover the cost of making the copy from the record. In years gone by the newspapers of this county received from one-third to one-half legal rates for these publications, and the county clerk furnished the copy. The clerk gets $400 a year for acting as clerk to the board. If you will look carefully into the matter, you will see that the printers are the only people who are asked to do their work at less than legal rates for the county. Lawyers, doctors, clerks, jurors, witnesses, laborers, election officers, bridge contractors, etc., all get full pay. So if the proceedings of the board hereafter appear in a very abbreviated form, our readers will know the reason.
