Come and let us pay a tribute of honor to one of American's greatest sons. All cordially invited.

Last season, Frank H. Gamel was to lecture under Y. M. C. A. auspices in a Kansas town, and the boys of the organization were pressed into service to sell tickets. One youngster offered a ticket to a business man, and the business man asked gruffly, "Eh? What you got? What's this all about anyhow?" The boy was a bit rattled and not having been any too carefully instructed in his duties, could only stammer, "Why—Why, I dunno. It's somethin' about Gambelin." "Gambelin?" shouted the business man. "Yes, but they aint a-goin' to do none of it down to the church." College course next Wednesday.

Complies with all requirements of the National Pure Food Law, Guarantee No. 2041, filed at Washington.

Advice of the largest coffee dealers in the world is always to buy the old-fashioned Arbuckles' ARIOSA Coffee in the sealed packages. Don't ask for a pound of Mocha and Java, or buy by the price, for coffee fluctuates and you cannot get the same coffee for the same price all the time unless you pay too much for it. Most of the so-called Mocha and Java Coffee is simply masquerading, and is not nearly as good coffee for you as Arbuckles' ARIOSA, the blend of the Brazilian Coffees most suitable to the taste and health of American people. By the looks there is no difference between roasted Java and Brazilian Coffees; many people drink Brazilian but pay for Java. The principal difference is that Arbuckles' costs you less. It is a mistake to believe that a high price guarantees quality. When you buy Arbuckles' ARIOSA Coffee, you get a full one pound package of the leading Coffee of the world. Its sales for 37 years are greater than the combined sales of all the other packaged coffees. By giving better Coffee for the money, we have built up a business exceeding the combined businesses of the four next largest coffee firms in the whole world. If your dealer will not supply the genuine, write to ARBUCKLE BROS., New York City.
