

Alcohol not needed

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a strong drink. As now made, there is not a drop of alcohol in it. It is a non-alcoholic tonic and alterative. Ask your own doctor about your taking this medicine for thin, impure blood. Follow his advice every time. He knows.

We publish our formulas
We banish alcohol from our medicines
We urge you to consult your doctor

Ask your doctor, "What is the first great rule of health?" Nine doctors out of ten will quickly reply, "Keep the bowels regular." Then ask him another question, "What do you think of Ayer's Pills for constipation?"

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Items of News Found in The Chief of Twenty Years Ago This Week

Measles are in the city again. Miss Sylvia Cook, while attempting to hold M. R. Bentley's horse, got severely injured. Douglas Cather, son of Alderman Cather, was thrown from a horse the other day and quite severely injured. Miss Eva J. King, principal of the First Ward school, has accepted a position in the Blue Hill schools for the coming year. Cards are out announcing the approaching marriage of Dr. L. H. Beck of Riverton and Miss Maria Ducker of Illinois, which will occur on the 18th. At a party over on State Creek Henry Eckman was stabbed by a young man named Bobier, but was not seriously injured. They quarreled about a girl.

What is "The Union Class"?

Many of the young people are asking that and we will answer: It is what you make it. "You" are the ladies and gentlemen who join and not alone try to but do make this class become what it ought to: The greatest force for good in the upbuilding of this community. Come and join our happy throng and make yourselves at home. We meet once a week in some of the homes. Since we have not a Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. we are trying to help out the need that way, and therefore, young men and women, accept our hearty invitation and we will make you feel at home with us.

Deaths and Funerals.

Linford Sellars.

Linford, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Sellars, formerly of this city, died at the home of his parents in Boulder, Col., Wednesday, May 1. The remains were brought to Red Cloud this morning for burial beside those of his sister, Lulu Sellars, who died a few years ago. The funeral services were held at the home of his brother, A. B. Sellars, at 2:30 this afternoon. Linford was born in Red Cloud, February 22, 1893, and lived here practically all of his life, up to the time his parents removed to Colorado a short time ago in hope of benefiting his failing health.

MIRTH AT MEALS.

Flip In Jokes Like These Between Each Mouthful.

A doctor says, "Don't allow a meal to pass without a joke between each mouthful." This will enhance the value of humor to a great degree. Dinner will move along something like this: Mouthful of soup--screams of mirth, flakes of laughter and breadcrumbs pervading the air. Mouthful of roast duck reminds domestic humorist of something.

"Do you know why a duck goes into the water?" Long silence and more extensive eating. Domestic humorist answers it himself as follows: "For divers reasons." More bread, vegetables and general good feeling. "Why does he come out?" No answer and no sound but that of an old joke under the table cracking its knuckles. "For sun-dry purposes," explains the ready and brainy man, looking casually at a memorandum on his cuff. More dinner and then, "Why does he go in again?"

Nothing can be heard but the low mutter of a thinker, perhaps, as he grapples with the great problem. "To liquidate his bill." Yells of laughter, screams of delight and astonishing feats of diction promoted by mirth. "And why does he again come out?" More thought and mastication; then the gastric jester says, "To make a little run on the bank," and amid a great shower of vest buttons and mirth the genial, all round tonic humorist and joy promoter goes on.--Pearson's Weekly.

The Best Dressed Man.

Of course the best dressed man in the world is the English gentleman. If you enter the royal inclosure at Newmarket or visit the lawn at Goodwood on the day of a classic race; if you attend a fashionable orchid or horse show when some great personage presides, you will hardly see any one dressed otherwise than perfectly. But take the hurrying passengers in the city, on the street cars, trains or buses, go freely among the men in the street, and you will share the conviction I have arrived at--namely, that the American is in general dressed more stylishly and in better fitting and better cut clothes.--C. M. S. in Derrick's Trade Report.
