Not Aesop's Day.

West Point's aim is to teach men to meet any situation with the best there is in them. When General Custer was a cadet, he ventured into the French section room without having so much as looked at the day's lesson. The section had been engaged in the translation of Aesop's fables from French to English, but on this particular day the task consisted of a page of history written in French. Cadet Custer was given the book and very bravely dashed into the translation of this sentence: "Leopold, duc d'Autriche, se mettit sur les plaines de Silesie." But the Duke of Austria did not seem to appeal to him, for without hesitation he read:

"The leopard, the duck and the ostrich met upon the plains of Silesia."—Lippincott's Magazine.

Some Very Old Trees.

Brazilian coconut palms live for 600 to 700 years, and the Arabs assert that the date palm frequently reaches the age of 200 to 300 years. Wallan's oak, near Paisley, Scotland, is known to be over 700 years old, and there are eight olive trees on the Mount of Olives, near Jerusalem, which are known to have been flourishing in 1099. The yews at Fountain abbey, Yorkshire, were old trees when, in 1132, the abbey was built, and a redwood in Mariposa grove, California, is a manifold centenarian. Baobab trees of Africa have been computed to be over 5,000 years old, and the deciduous cypress at Chapultepec is considered to be of a still greater age.

$5,000 in Prizes

Absolutely Free!

First Prize--Clarendon-Haddorff Upright Grand Piano--Value, $350.

To more thoroughly advertise our name and the Pianos we market, we, with the co-operation of the manufacturers we represent, have decided on this method and will in a "word contest" give away absolutely free a superb Clarendon-Haddorff Upright Grand Piano and prizes to a total value of $5,000.

You have nothing to pay. An earnest and instructive effort, a little hunt through the dictionary is all that is required.

Hundreds of satisfied customers can hereby witness to the fact that "Gaston's is the Firm that Makes Piano Buying Easy." But we want to impress the name of GASTON on the minds of every prospective buyer. How many words can you make from the letters in the word,

R.-D.-G.-A.-S.-T.-O.-N

RULES--Make words from the letters in name R.-D.-G.-A.-S.-T.-O.-N. Use any letter only once in each word. Proper names, places, plurals, possessions, foreign words or abbreviations will not be counted. Words spelled the same but with different meanings will be counted only once.

PRIZES--First prize: A magnificent $350 upright Grand Clarendon-Haddorff Piano, on exhibition in our warerooms, in Bostwick Block, Hastings, Neb.

2d Prize---Credit Check for $150.
3d Prize---Credit Check for $125.

Other Prizes: Five credit checks for $100 each, 10 credit checks for $75 each, 25 credit checks for $50 each and the balance in lesser amounts until we have distributed a total of $5,000 in prizes. These checks represent their face value on my new Piano we handle and are a saving of that amount in the purchase of a Piano.

Date of Closing--All lists must be in our office on or before June 10, 1907. Prizes will be awarded by the judges and all those receiving prizes will be notified promptly. Credit checks will not be accepted on sales made prior to June 10, 1907.

No person connected with the piano business can compete. In the event of a tie, neatness and general observance of rules will govern decision. On all questions the decision of judges will be final. Credit checks may be transferred if assigned at our office. One check only will apply on each piano purchase. After deducting the credit check the balance may be paid in installments to suit convenience. Webster's Dictionary will be our authority.

The list of words is to be made out alphabetically and each word numbered consecutively. Coupon below, properly filled out, must accompany each list.

Every piano in our warerooms is marked in plain figures and the price on each is the lowest consistent with grade. Every check therefore is an actual saving of its face value.

COUPON.
