

Tribute to the Phonograph

Even John Philip Sousa, the great bandmaster, who has no use for Phonographs, has been forced to recognize the Phonograph as a formidable competitor. The two-step king says that people will no longer go to concerts if they can have music in their own homes so easily and so cheaply as they can with the Phonograph. This is an unwilling tribute, but it is nevertheless a tribute. The man who has a Phonograph has a concert in his own house. Even a king could not have more. At our store you can hear them any time.

BOISE TRIAL IN FULL SWING

J. H. HAWLEY MAKES OPENING STATEMENT FOR PROSECUTION.

HAYWOOD ONE OF PRINCIPALS

State Says It Will Prove Western Federation Officials Responsible for Death of Scores—Says "Inner Circle" Hired Assassins.

Boise, Ida., June 5.—Through James H. Hawley, senior of the group of prosecutors, the state of Idaho made the opening statement against William D. Haywood, whom it charges with the murder of Frank Steunenberg, and then began the presentation of the testimony by which it hopes to prove the indictment laid against him. The opening statement was a broad, sweeping arraignment of the leaders of the Federation of Miners, who were charged with plotting wholesale murder and hiring assassins, all in a giant conspiracy of vengeance upon those who obstructed their sway, to destroy opposition by terrorism, to control the political destinies of the communities covered by their organization, and to perpetuate their own power within the organization. It charged a widespread conspiracy, dating in inception from the northern Idaho disturbance fifteen years ago, reaching down to the murder of Frank Steunenberg, and whose murdered victims, by bullet and bomb, numbered scores. Hawley declared that wherever in the mining sections of the coast states the federation had been in control there had been left a trail of blood to mark its operations.

Inner Circle Hired Assassins. After retelling the story of the Caldwell crime, the arrest and confession of Orchard and part of the history of the Couer d'Alene trouble, Hawley said: "The original proposition and theory that the power of this federation, of the 'inner circle' at least of the federation, could best be perpetuated by the murder of those who in official life or in private situation ran counter to their interests, became intensified seemingly after these gentlemen assumed the entire control. The 'inner circle,' composed as it was of this defendant and his co-defendants to a great extent, brought around them a few choice spirits, and to them murder became a trade and assassination a means of living. We will show that a scale of wages was even devised, fixing the amount to be paid for different crimes by this 'inner circle' to parties who committed those crimes, and chief among those who were doing the actual work that was planned by the 'inner circle' and paid for out of the funds of the federation by the members of the 'inner circle' was this man to whom I have referred, Harry Orchard, and one Steve Adams."

Protest from Defense.

Hawley spoke for nearly an hour and a half to a court room crowded, but silent, to a jury which, sitting bolt upright, watched for every word, to a prisoner who, with his family around him, was several times moved to deep emotion as the prosecutor pronounced the charges. Counsel for the defense opened fire before the statement had proceeded ten minutes, and the repetitions of objections from them led to three or four sharp exchanges. They protested against the charge that the federation was guilty of "scores of murders" and the assertion that the conspiracy extended back to the first trouble in northern Idaho, which was years before the accused was a member of the organization, and they accused Hawley of arguing the case in an opening statement. They dotted the records with exceptions of overruled objections, and finally got an agreement whereby they could protect their rights as to the entire opening statement. Judge Wood permitted the wide scope in the opening statement on the assurance of Hawley that the state could show the existence later of the conspiracy which it charged and make the necessary legal connection.

Eight Witnesses Examined.

Eight witnesses were examined and there would have been time for three or four more if the available supply of the state had not unexpectedly run out, enforcing an adjournment. The witnesses were all from Caldwell, and those who did not tell of the crime itself, were called to locate Harry Orchard, who went to the town as Thomas Hogan, at various hotels and around the Steunenberg home, and to show that two months before the crime John L. Simpkins, a member of the executive board of the Western Federation of Miners, had joined Orchard and had lived with him for several days in the same room.

C. E. Wayne, who passed outward through the gate twenty minutes before Steunenberg was blown up, told of the explosion and the shocking condition of the victim when he, responding to Mrs. Steunenberg's calls, had ran to him.

J. W. Gue, the surgeon, described the body. He found leg bones broken to fragments by the great force of the explosion, while the skin that covered them was unmarked.

John C. Rice, N. S. Ellis and A. Ballentine, residents of Caldwell, traced Orchard about the town at various times before and after the crime, and then came Julian Steunenberg, son of the dead statesman, to tell how Orchard had three days before the murder inquired of him about his father's movements.

L. J. Bowman, James Russell and Steve Dempsey, proprietor of the Pacific hotel at Caldwell, traced the movements of Orchard and Simpkins.

ENJOIN WOODMEN OF WORLD

Daughter of Official Would Prevent Erecting His Memorial.

Denver, June 5.—A temporary injunction was issued here by District Judge George Allen on application of Mrs. Jessie Falkenburg Fallis, daughter of the late F. A. Falkenburg, head of the Woodmen of the World of the Pacific jurisdiction enjoining the officers of the order from proceeding with the building of a monument to Falkenburg. The complaint is filed in the name of Denver camp No. 1 and Mrs. Fallis, John Alton, Edwin N. Burdick and W. P. Horan, constituting the Falkenburg Memorial association, against the head camp of the Pacific jurisdiction of the order with its officers and board of managers.

I. I. Boak, consul of the head camp, it is alleged, assumed charge of the $6,300, which was subscribed by the various camps of the order for the erection of a monument to cost that sum. According to Mrs. Fallis and the Falkenburg Memorial association there was a misappropriation of the funds as they could have secured the ground and monument for $3,500.

The trouble originated over the wish of Mrs. Fallis to rest beside her noted father when she dies. The head camp, Pacific jurisdiction, did not recognize family ties in this particular, and planned to place the body of Falkenburg in a magnificent vault surmounted by a monument of imposing proportions.

RAILROAD ASSESSMENT STANDS

State Board Completes Its Work After Strenuous Session.

Lincoln, June 1.—There was a strenuous session at the capitol of the state board of assessment, at which representatives of the railroads intimated they would resist the increased railroad valuation, amounting in the aggregate to $5,000,000. The board formally announced it would not reduce the assessment one cent. The meeting at times was stormy. Attorney J. E. Kelby, for the Burlington, said it meant an increase in taxation for his road alone of $600,000. He produced a list of sixteen questions bearing on the methods of the board, and requested an answer to each. Members of the board told Mr. Kelby they were not under examination; and that he was without power to make motions.

"I represent a taxpayer and will continue to make motions until I am forcibly ejected," was the reply of the attorney.

In the midst of the wrangle a motion to adjourn was put and hastily carried. It was then the railroad men intimated an intention to resist the assessment.

Chairman Winnett of the state board of transportation formally notified attorneys for the Union Pacific and Burlington that the commission will not require lists of interstate passholders, but only the names of those holding passes good in Nebraska. The two roads have not complied with the law requiring the furnishing of lists. The attorneys said the order would simplify matters.

Iowa Crop Report.

Des Moines, June 5.—The beneficial effects of abundant moisture, followed closely by sunshine and warmth, were visible in pastures, meadows and fields of small grain. The corn crop has made fair progress, considering the adverse conditions, but reports indicate that the stand is uneven, and somewhat more than the usual amount of replanting will be done.

Three Drowned in Boise River.

Boise, Ida., June 5.—Three men were drowned in the Boise river while working on a log drive. They were George Corack, F. Augusta and F. Yrondo, all foreigners. One fell in and the others jumped in to save him. Two of the rescuers and the man whom they sought to aid lost their lives.

Indorse Knox for Presidency.

Harrisburg, Pa., June 5.—United States Senator Knox will be formally indorsed for president and pledged the support of the Pennsylvania delegation to the national convention by the state convention, which will be held in this city on Thursday for the nomination of a state treasurer.

Cotton Market Breaks.

New York, June 5.—A drop of about $1.25 a bale in the price of cotton, as quoted on the New York Cotton exchange, followed the announcement of the government crop report, showing the estimated condition of the crop to be better than 70 per cent.

Fatal Accident at Birmingham.

Birmingham, Ala., June 5.—A street car ran into a train loaded with pots full of molten metal this morning, which set the car on fire and entirely consumed it. Several persons are said to have been burned to death.

The Cause of Many

Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell. Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.
