J., where he will continue to practice his profession. Dr. Morrison has attained high honors in the practice of his profession in this state and will no doubt be successful in his new location.

The changes in the time of trains which went into effect last Sunday are not so radical as it was at first thought they would be. No. 11, which takes the place of No. 13, is now due to arrive at 7:10 a. m.; No. 14 at 1:50 a. m.; No. 15 at 8:30 p. m., and No. 16 at 9:30 a. m. Owing to the late arrival of No. 15, the evening mail will not be distributed until the following morning.

Saturday evening when train No. 15 pulled into Red Cloud one coach was "set out" owing to there being four "dagoes" in the car whom it was thought had small-pox. Three of the foreigners were finally allowed to proceed on their way to Salt Lake City and the fourth was taken to the pest house near the river. The prompt measures taken by the officials will undoubtedly prevent the spread of the disease.
