Child Labor Statute Prevents Boy, Only Support, from Working.

Omaha, June 8.—Working in a South Omaha packing house for $1 a day, Frank Metzger, a fifteen-year-old boy, has been the sole support of a mother and six small children. The child labor law now interferes with the situation, and the packing company has announced that he can no longer be permitted to hold his job.

Labor.

The doctrine of the farm is merely this, that every man ought to stand in primary relations with the work of the world; ought to do it himself and not to suffer the accident of his having a purse in his pocket, or his having been bred to some dishonorable or injurious craft, to sever him from those duties and for this reason, that labor is God's education; that he only is a sincere learner, he only can become master who learns the secret of labor and who by real cunning extorts from nature its scepter.—Emerson.
