Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Sherman have received from their daughter Winnie a very interesting letter descriptive of her trip to California. She has fallen in love with the country and would like to stay there, but she is too useful as a teacher in this state for us to allow her to remain out there, and she will be back in time to take up her work at Holderidge this fall.

Wednesday evening was the most peaceful "night before the Fourth" that Red Cloud has known in years. Everybody went to bed early so they could get up early and go to Guide Rock, where the big celebration in this part of the country was held. Over 300 tickets were sold to Guide Rock yesterday morning, and half as many more went down in carriages.

A young son of John Mason, of Guide Rock, was seriously injured at that place yesterday, by the explosion of a giant cracker. He was standing in the middle of the street when some man on the sidewalk threw a lighted cannon cracker which struck on the boy's hat just as it exploded. The force of the explosion tore the brim from his hat, stripped nearly all the hair from the back of his head, and severely burned the back of his head and neck. He was taken to Pace's drug store, where his wounds were dressed.

"Biz" Points, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Points of Walnut Creek, has returned here after a two month's sojourn in Rawlins county, Kansas, where he owns one-half section of land near the town of McDonald. He has many friends and relatives in this community, who are considerably "swelled up" on account of the success of this enterprising, hustling success agriculturist. He has a crop of about 75 acres of corn that he has been tending. He reports crops looking fine in his neighborhood at the time of his departure.
