The Candidates.

While the primary is still two weeks away, we deem it timely to say a few words about the Republican candidates who have announced themselves for nomination to the various offices. Elsewhere we make mention of those who are up for re-election on the Republican ticket. In this article we will deal with those who are new candidates.

The candidates announced for county clerk, so far as this paper is concerned, are John J. Garber, V. B. Fulton and E. W. Ross. The first named was for four years deputy clerk under E. S. Garber, and practically conducted the business of the office during all that time. He has a knowledge of the affairs of the office not excelled by any man in the county.

E. W. Ross, the next on the list, was mayor of Red Cloud for two terms, has had considerable experience in clerical work, has made many friends among the farmers during his connection with the management of the Beatrice Creamery Co.'s branch agency in this city during the past year and a half.

V. B. Fulton, of the Fulton Grocery Co., is also well known in this county, he having been engaged in the lumber business for many years. He is a well known Sunday school and temperance worker.

For county assessor, H. C. Scott and George P. Cather have announced their candidacy. Both are old and well known citizens of this county, and either of them is amply qualified to fill the office.

H. G. Sawyer and George W. Hummel have announced their candidacy for commissioner from the Third district. Mr. Sawyer is the present incumbent and has made a good officer. Rev. Hummel is too well known to need an introduction to the voters. Both are good men, and no matter which one receives the nomination the county will be well served.

The Judgeship.

If E. U. Oerman does not get the nomination for district judge on the Republican ticket it will not be because he has not made every effort to do so. He has been doing some splendid campaigning and is receiving the heartiest encouragement wherever he goes. Outside of his home county he will have good support in Franklin, Harlan and Kearney counties. He will receive considerable support from the prohibition element owing to his well known opposition to the use of intoxicants, and he is conceded to be a man of exemplary habits in all other respects. There will be no question of his election should he receive the nomination, as he would undoubtedly be the strongest man the Republicans could nominate. His record as prosecuting attorney of this county shows legal ability of the highest order, he never having lost a case while in that office, nor had one reversed by a higher court. He is not a railroad attorney, and does not carry a pass. He carried Webster county in the 1900 election by a larger majority than was given William McKinley for president, and was the only republican elected on the republican ticket. He almost duplicated the performance two years later, when he was the again high man on the Republican ticket. This shows that he has a strength that will be of great assistance to him if he receives the nomination, which he undoubtedly will.

For County Treasurer.

County Treasurer W. C. Frahm will receive the unanimous indorsement of the republicans of this county at the primary election on September 3, and it is but just that he should. Mr. Frahm has made an enviable record and one of which he and his friends should be proud. He made a success of his own business at Blue Hill, and for two years he has conducted the treasurer's office in a manner that shows that he is in every way conversant with the details of the office. He is one of the cleanest, most level-headed and popular officers the county has ever had, and he needs no recommendation from us or any other man. However, you should not fail to vote for him at the primary just because he has no opposition, but give him that indorsement he so richly deserves.

For County Superintendent.

While we deem it entirely unnecessary, we feel like saying a few words in commendation of the work of Mrs. Nellie West Caster, who is a candidate for re-nomination to the office of county superintendent. So far as we are able to learn she will have no opposition at the polls next November, as no candidate has filed for the nomination in either party. Mrs. Caster's work as county superintendent has been so satisfactory that there has been no ground for complaint, and she has gained a reputation for hard work that should entitle her to the support of everyone interested in the schools of the county. She has a university education, and won her place through good hard work. This summer she has been engaged in Normal institute work at Alma, and her work there demonstrated that she was entirely capable of looking after the educational interests of any county.

Oliver Hedge.

Oliver Hedge has announced his candidacy for re-election to the office of sheriff. That he will be re-nominated and elected there is no question. He has given excellent service to the county, is big enough to scare most criminals into submission, and those whom he cannot scare he will sit upon and "squash." Laying all jokes aside, he has made one of the best sheriffs this county has ever had and, while he has had no dangerous cases in which to distinguish himself, all who know him know that he will be there with the goods when the occasion arises.

EMULATED TITLMAN

Farmer Near Campbell Uses Pitchfork On His Neighbor.

Robert McLamry, a farmer near Campbell, came to Red Cloud Wednesday in answer to a telephone call informing him that there was a warrant out for his arrest on the charge of having assaulted one Henry Boettgenback with intent to do great bodily harm.

It seems that Mr. McLamry was cutting some hay, when Butt—etc., came up and claimed the hay as his own. After a short dispute Butt—etc., struck at McLamry with a whip, whereupon the latter prodded the man with the long name with a pitchfork, the tines of which took effect in Butt—etc., legs. The injured party caused a warrant to be sworn out for "Mac's" arrest, and it was in answer to this call that he came to Red Cloud. He was placed under $500 bond to appear next Monday for trial.

P. W. Roland Badly Stung.

On Wednesday morning, P. W. Roland was attacked by a swarm of bees which approached him from the rear covering himself and team almost in an instant. Both he and the horses were very warm and the bees stung furiously. Andy Guy happened to be near at hand and ran across the road to his home, getting a dish pan with which he soon set up a din that attracted the bees and caused them to settle on the grass. This undoubtedly saved Mr. Roland's life as he could not have fought them more than a few minutes in the intense heat. The horses simply rolled and tumbled about until the bees left them. Both man and beasts were literally covered with stingers. Dr. Pace happened to be available and the patient was made as easy as possible and it is thought he will recover in good time.—Guide Rock Signal.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.

Farmer Near Inavale Removes Shotgun From Buggy Muzzle First.

John DeBrunner, a well known farmer living north of Inavale, received a bad wound Tuesday evening while attempting to remove a shotgun from a buggy. It seems his sons had gone to town, taking the gun along to shoot rabbits by the roadside. When they returned home they left the gun in the buggy, and Mr. DeBrunner took the gun by the muzzle and drew it toward him. In some way it was discharged, the charge entering his right side. Physicians were summoned and the wound dressed. They pronounced the injury serious, though not necessarily fatal. This is the second accidental shooting in this family, one of the boys having shot the other while out hunting last fall.

"Skiddoo" For the Odd Fellows.

Wednesday afternoon's game between the Eagles and the Odd Fellows resulted in a score of 34 to "23" in favor of the former. The game was replete with brilliant errors on both sides, the Ben Adhemites having a little the best of it in the number of errors made. "Denial" Garber, of the Odd Fellows, gave an exhibition of stick work that should entitle him to a place on the Chicago White Sox, he having three home runs and a three-bagger to his credit. The American Bald Eagles had the advantage of having played one game before, and they rang in two professional pitchers in the persons of "Fatty" Richardson of Chicago, an ex-National League pitcher, and Jesse Ray, who "fired" for Charley Milligan long enough to put him in the professional class. The game did not last quite as long as the game last Friday between the Eagles and the Knights of Pythias, as the playing was at times fast and furious. Lloyd Bradbrook officiated as umpire, and there were repeated calls for "Burroughs" to take his place. However, he refused to give up.

POUNDED HIS STEPMOTHER

William Vonderfecht Gets Into Trouble Over Defending His Cattle.

Sheriff Hedge went down to Guide Rock the first of the week and brought back William Vonderfecht on a charge of having assaulted his stepmother with intent to do bodily injury. The warrant was sworn out by Henry Vonderfecht, father of the accused. William was placed under $400 bond to appear for trial.

From the best accounts that can be obtained of the affair, it seems that Mrs. Henry Vonderfecht had gone to the pasture to look after some cattle, and the dogs got after William's cattle and ran them. He it understood that while the two Vonderfecht families occupy separate homes, their cattle browse together in one pasture, hence trouble.

When William saw the dogs chasing his cattle he came to the rescue and an altercation with his stepmother was the result. In the natural course of events William handled his stepmother rather roughly, and an examination by a physician showed that she was rather seriously bruised.

An Unfair Statement.

Those who attended the Chautauqua at Red Cloud complain of the extortionate prices charged at the hotels, eating houses and other public places.—Guide Rock Signal.

The above charge is manifestly untrue. At the lunch counters the same prices prevailed that have ruled for years. At the hotels and restaurants the prices were the same as before the Chautauqua began, the restaurants having raised to 25 cents per meal a short time before the beginning of that event. If that is extortion, then the alleged restaurants of Guide Rock and other surrounding towns have been charging extortionate prices for years, as Red Cloud was the only town in the neighborhood where meals could be procured for less than 25 cents.
