Hiram Hicks and family went to Bagler this week.

Gus Lauterbach and family of Colby, Kans., are visiting with Joe Herburger this week.

Lloyd Crabill raised about twenty-five bushels of peaches in his orchard this year.

Charley Platt, the handsome treasurer of the Platt & Frees Lumber Co., was sightseeing in Cowles this week.

L. H. Rust, the flour and feed man, donated this office a juicy watermelon.

W. B. Cramer has our thanks for some very excellent peaches.

Highland's Giants were disbanded for the season and John Shirey and Charley Platt have organized a team called the "Red Cloud Knockers."

Sam Dyer has resigned his position as agent for the Wells-Fargo Express company and taken a position on the road.

The engine house for the waterworks is almost completed.

Eddie Emigh received the first premium at the fair last week for writing the best proposal of marriage.

It is thought that the well now being excavated for the waterworks will not be of sufficient capacity to supply the demand.

On Saturday afternoon we will commence the publication of the "Evening Chief."

Tuesday, D. F. Atkins, while wandering around in the south part of town, was held up and robbed of $19. Five men were arrested on suspicion but were discharged by Judge West up on the non-appearance of the prosecuting witness.

Burr Oak Takes Two.

The Burr Oak baseball team came to Red Cloud Tuesday for two games.

In the first game the Burr Oak boys had the best of the umpiring and won by a score of 5 to 3. Coyner, who pitched for Burr Oak, sent three men to first by hitting them with the ball. Smith was still suffering from the injury he received in the game with Cambridge and was unable to get the balls over the plate—at least the umpire thought so.

In the second game "Pap" White was in the box for Burr Oak and Charley Bennett did the slab work for Red Cloud. Bennet pitched a better game than White, but two errors by Saunders at second and a misjudged fly in right field let in enough scores to win the game. Boone Saunders got a clean three base hit which could have been stretched into a home run by a fast runner. The final score of 3 to 1 in favor of Burr Oak should have read the other way had the Red Cloud boys kept their eyes open when they had as tricky a pitcher as Frank White to buck against. The Burr Oak team was made up from players gathered from Smith Center, Lebanon and Burr Oak, and one from Downs, who did not contribute much to the winning of the game.

Wert-Snapp.

On last Sunday morning at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Henry Cook, occurred a quiet wedding, at which time Miss Jessie Wert was given in marriage to Mr. Alvin Parker Snapp, Rev. J. M. Bates, rector of the Episcopal church, performing the ceremony. The bride wore a white point d'esprit net over silk and carried red roses. After a wedding breakfast the couple left for a short trip to Oklahoma. They will be home to their friends after October 15, in Red Cloud.

The groom is the popular leader and director of the Citizens' band and orchestra, and during his brief residence here has made many friends. His bride is a musician of exceptional ability and has won the hearts of the people of Red Cloud by her beautiful contralto singing. She is also a pianist of merit, and the people of Red Cloud have cause to congratulate themselves upon the union of these two well known musicians and their decision to make Red Cloud their home.

At 7 p. m., Christian Endeavor. Let the young come and learn of the Lord.

At 8 p. m. Preaching. "Come, let us build ourselves up in wisdom and understanding, for he that mediteth with the Lord doth a good thing."

"Not every one that sayeth unto me, Lord, Lord, entereth into the kingdom of God; but he that doth the will of my Father which is in Heaven." Matt., 7, 21.

One man shied utterly at the primaries and refused to vote because he had to tell the judges which ticket he wanted, or, as he put it, what party he belonged to. Another in Bloomington, got mad because the judges wouldn't give him two tickets and wrathfully withdrew from the polling place, no doubt firmly convinced that he had been "disfranchised."

Communicated.

The baseball game between the Cowles and Red Cloud junior teams was very exciting up to the seventh inning, when some awful bad decisions were given by the umpire which let in three runs. The rain made it very disagreeable to play, and at last we had to stop in the last half of the ninth inning, when the score was 8 to 7 in our favor. We have played four games this season, winning each one: Cowles, 23 to 16; Riverton, 33 to 5; Guide Rock, 4 to 2; Cowles, 8 to 7. We challenge any team of our age—all under 16 years old. Let's hear from you. LLOYD HIXES, Capt.
