Kenneth Williams came home Saturday from Rock Springs, Wyo., where he is working on the Union Pacific railroad, operating a block system, for a visit with his mother. He returned this week.

Mr. E. W. Ross, or Elmer, as he is more familiarly known, needs no introduction to the people of this city where he has been a familiar figure for several years. As mayor he made a good and efficient officer and is one of the very few men who have been re-elected to fill that office. He is a capable man and should be elected to the office of county clerk you may rest assured that the work of the office will be done in a proper manner. No republican has any good reason why he should not vote for county clerk.

CLOTHES TALK

Copyright 1907
The House of Kuppenheimer
Chicago

THERE are two classes of Men in this town--those who know all about our good Clothes, and those who have never been here.

Men Who Know!

Those who know, know that they have never had better Clothes than they buy here.

Never had better fitting, more comfortable, stylish or more fairly priced Clothes.

They know that, when they are ready for a Fall Suit, they will come directly here for it.

These Men know where the best Clothes come from.

Men Who Don't Know!

To the other class belong those busy mortals who haven't time to investigate. So they go to the exclusive Tailor and pay dearly for their lack of time, or content themselves with buying "Average Ready to Wear Clothing," and so go poorly dressed half their days.

Reader, if you are not already in the class of "The Men who Know," you'll do well to join it at once.

Fall Suits, $8, $10, $15 and $25.

Overcoats, $8 to $28.

THE COWDEN-KALEY CO.

Always Reliable.

First Door North of Post Office.

Postmaster T. C. Hacker left Sunday morning for Washington, D. C., to attend the National Postmaster's convention. On his return he will visit the Jamestown exposition, and expects to be gone about fifteen days.

O. P. Hendershot, the veteran breeder of Percheron horses, Kentucky jacks and Shorthorn cattle, will sell a draft lot of Percheron mares and close out his entire herd of Shorthorns. Read his display advertisement in this issue.

Al Slaby returned from his trip to Brush, Colo., the first of the week. Fred Smelser and John Errett, who accompanied him, each secured employment in a beet sugar factory at $70 per month, and will remain there indefinitely.

There is to be a Sunday school convention of the southwest district of Webster county at the Congregational church Sunday. A state secretary will address the meeting morning and evening. All Sunday schools in the district will be represented.

James DeWitt, living north of Red Cloud, was quite badly injured Tuesday evening. He had gone into his stable to feed his mules, when in some way they got him down and trampled upon him, badly injuring him about the head and elsewhere. His little son, who was with him, ran into the house and told his mother, who found Mr. DeWitt unconscious in front of the manger. He was badly dazed and was unable to explain how it happened for some time after regaining consciousness, but his injuries are not considered dangerous, and he is now much improved.

It will cost you nothing to attend the first and most expensive number of the Business Men's lyceum course, if you have a season ticket. The Cincinnati Ladies' Cremona Orchestra, a 75c attraction, will be here November 4. The five entertainments of the course will be the best Red Cloud has ever had. Four musical numbers and a humorous lecture by Ralph Parlette. Season tickets may be had from any of the P. E. O. girls or at Henry Cook's drug store, the Fair Store or at Turnure Bros.
