

Coughs of Children

Especially night coughs. Nature needs a little help to quiet the irritation, control the inflammation, check the progress of the disease. Our advice is—give the children Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Ask your doctor if this is his advice also. He knows best. Do as he says.

If you think constipation is of trifling consequence, just ask your doctor. He will disabuse you of that notion in short order. "Correct it, at once!" he will say. Then ask him about Ayer's Pills. A mild liver pill, all vegetable.

The CANDIDATES.

Next Tuesday is election day, and as the time approaches the indications are stronger and stronger that the entire Republican ticket will be elected. This year under the primary election law the people of the county have selected the entire ticket with no chance for the politicians to interfere. There has been but very little discussion this year owing perhaps to the fact that the voters have shown themselves satisfied with the candidates of their own choosing. In state politics, we are satisfied that the men chosen by the Republicans are easily the strongest men and perform the duties of their respective offices faithfully and in the interests of the people of the state as a whole. Through some mistake or oversight this state may elect one socialist as regent of the state university to fill a vacancy. For Judge of the tenth district, Mr. James, who ran four years ago, impresses one as being a man in every sense of the word. His record as an attorney is above reproach. He is not a corporation tool, and as will be seen by an article in another part of this paper, he is not a pass-taker. There is no good reason why any Republican should vote against him. He has conducted himself as a gentleman and has not attempted to slur his opponent, either before the primary or since.

H. C. FRAHM.

As county-treasurer for the past two years Mr. Frahm has made a record of which he may feel justly proud. The work of his office has been kept up-to-date at all times and has been performed in a very creditable manner. He is a genial, whole-souled, good-hearted gentleman and should receive the liberal support of everyone who wishes the county well, and who believes in rewarding one who performs his duty faithfully and without unnecessary display.

E. W. ROSS.

Mr. Ross, our candidate for clerk, is so well-known that but very little need be said in his behalf. He is well qualified to fulfil the duties of the office, and has been a success in whatever he has undertaken. His character is above reproach and we bespeak for him the vote of every loyal Republican.

OLIVER D. HEDGE.

Those who two years ago, when Sheriff Hedge was elected to office, were his friends, have certainly been justified in their confidence. He has shown himself to be a conscientious and careful officer performing the onerous duties of his office with tact and in a manner to rebound to his credit. There is not one single instance in which it can be truthfully shown that he has been other than honest and upright both in his charges to the county and with those with whom he has had to deal, either as sheriff or as an individual. We have been informed that some of his enemies have attempted to show that he has made excessive charges in one case only, but upon investigation we find there is no grounds for their complaint and have become convinced that it is only one of those stories which after election is over they themselves will only be too glad to forget; bringing in as they do innocent persons and as those who are most interested are among his most loyal supporters, and are people whose integrity is beyond question. This should be enough to settle the question and in favor of Mr. Hedge.

J. S. GILHAM.

Probably no man in the county has a wider acquaintance than Mr. Gilham, nor are their abilities better known. For this reason we don't think it necessary that he be given an extended notice in these columns, as what we might say might be superfluous.

Lack of space alone forbids us giving any lengthy reasons why each of the Republican candidates are entitled to the votes of their party. Mrs. Nellie West Caster's work has been so satisfactory that she has no opposition. Edward Hanson, while comparatively new in the politics of the county, has been a resident for a number of years and though a young man has sufficiently impressed those with whom he has come in contact and among his neighbors is very highly spoken of.

For county assessor, H. C. Scott, by reason of his many years of residence and his having previously been sheriff has an acquaintance and standing which is his alone.

For county commissioner there are two Republicans running this year both of whom are very well known. It was unfortunate that Mr. Sawyer's, who is running by petition, name was left off the primary ticket after he had complied with all the other requirements of the law, and the voters of the primary election thereby missed the opportunity to choose between him and Mr. Hummel. But that is something which is past and cannot now be helped whichever one is elected will make a good officer. They have both had experience and both are well known.

Billy Ellinger, Billy Humbolt and Billy Tupper are on a trip to the northwestern part of Kansas to buy land.—Riverton Review.

A candidate for a county office was in town Saturday. This gentleman may perhaps possess all necessary qualifications for the office desired, but we must admit that a 3-days stubble of whiskers, surmounting a celluloid collar, does not inspire one with any high degree of confidence, notwithstanding that it has no bearing on the matter at issue.—Campbell Citizen.

Convention Notes.

The largest and most enthusiastic W. C. T. U. state convention for years was held in Lincoln week before last. 241 delegates were present.

The national president, Mrs. Lillian M. N. Stevens, was present, and added much to the dignity, order and interest of the convention.

On Tuesday evening a four-course banquet was given to the delegates by the White Ribbon Shoe Co. Covers were laid for 300 guests, and there were no vacant seats. The tables were decorated with smilax and standards bearing different styles and makes of the White Ribbon shoes were upon each table. Each guest was presented with a rose, carnation or chrysanthemum. After dinner toasts were given by prominent people and were much appreciated.

During the Thursday afternoon session, a telegram was handed to the desk bearing the greetings of the Commercial club of Omaha, one thousand strong, together with an invitation for the next state convention to meet in their city. It was voted that return greetings and thanks be extended.

Dr. Sarah A. Millen, a lady of prepossessing and commanding appearance, and a noted club woman, paid a high tribute to the convention, by saying that they were a body of women after her own heart. Women of earnestness and zeal, who reached out for something besides self and a few clothes.

A resolution was adopted censuring President Roosevelt in connection with the report that he had drunk liquor at the banquet recently given by the business men of St. Louis.

An interesting feature of the convention was the dedication of four small children of Mrs. Bess Gearhart Morrison, the little son of Mrs. Allen of Lincoln, and Dorothy Challis, the daughter of Mrs. Lillian Challis of Omaha. Part of the ceremony consisted of the tying on of the bow of white ribbon.

The W. C. T. U. yell was given with zest, when a telegram was read announcing the gift of $100 by the Commercial club of Omaha.

Over $700 was subscribed for state work in addition to the proceeds of two entertainments, and many subscriptions will come later.

It was universally regretted that so much money is spent in prosecuting criminals, and so little in protecting the boy.

There are 35,000 paid-up members of the W. C. T. U. in Nebraska, besides young women's auxiliaries, and 15,000 members of the Loyal Temperance Legion. The invasion of an army may be conquered, but never the invasion of an ideal.

Buttons bearing the words "For Omaha" had been furnished the delegation from that city by the Commercial club. The delegates had consented to wear them, if permitted to attach the white ribbon. They were very conspicuous.

By the practice of polygamy, Utah has forfeited her rights as a state, and is therefore not entitled to a senator. There was a decided change in the attitude of the saloon element at the legislature last winter, they all the time being on the defensive side instead of the aggressive.

Much enthusiasm was created by the receiving of telegrams of greeting from all of the states where conventions

INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM CURED IN 3 DAYS

Morton L. Hill, of Lebanon, Ind., says: "My wife had Inflammatory Rheumatism in every muscle and joint; her suffering was terrible and her body and face were swollen almost beyond recognition; had been in bed six weeks and had eight physicians, but received no benefit until she tried Dr. Dechow's Relief for Rheumatism. It gave immediate relief and she was able to walk about in three days. I am sure it saved her life." Sold by H. E. Grice, Druggist, Red Cloud.

were being held. Return courtesies were extended.

The White Ribbon Shoe Co. sent a telegram of greetings with success for the cause.

Four invitations were received for the locating of the next state convention, and after a spirited contest between Omaha and Hastings the latter city won, and it was voted to hold the 1908 convention there. The convention closed with a grand gold medal contest, in which there were seven participants. The medal was won by Miss Martha Garlock, of Idaho, who is now a student at the Wesleyan University.
