Mrs. Sanders, a sister of J. W. Starr is visiting in Lebanon this week. She was visiting her husband's people at Red Cloud a few weeks ago when her little girl was taken sick and was able to continue her visit until this time. Their home is in the west. —Lebanon Argus.

Wanted.—Local representative for Red Cloud and vicinity to look after renewals and increase subscription list of a prominent monthly magazine, on a salary and commission basis. Experience desirable, but not necessary. Good opportunity for right person. Address Publisher, Box 59, Station O New York.

Sheriff Oliver D. Hedge went down to Superior yesterday and brought back with him George Laffin, against whom a charge of bastardy has been preferred by a Miss Loper, of Guide Rock. Laffin is now lying in jail here awaiting his preliminary trial, which will be held Monday before County Judge Edson.

Mrs. David Whitaker was in Red Cloud the latter part of last week after their household goods. Instead of going to Stratton, Neb., as we stated last week, they went to Brush, Colo., where Mr. Whitaker has secured work in a best sugar factory at good wages, and where they will make their future home.

Miss Verne Hall of Creston, Iowa, elocutionist and reader, will give an entertainment at the Christian church under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor, assisted by local talent, November 18. She comes well recommended, is a graduate of two oratorical schools, and should receive a good crowd.

The Cincinnati Ladies' Cremona Orchestra was greeted at the opera house Monday evening by a medium attendance. Their performance was greatly enjoyed. This was the first number of the Business Men's Lecture Course, which consists of a number of first-class entertainments to be given here this winter.

I. Frisbie, living at Amboy, has lost about two hundred hogs recently through some disease which has not as yet been diagnosed. A state veterinarian has been on the grounds investigating the strange disease. Mr. Frisbie had about 1700 head, but the loss of two hundred of them will be felt quite severely.

Special services at the Congregational church next Sunday morning and evening. In the morning the sermon will have special application to the subject, "Lessons from Old Age." The evening sermon is on the philosophy of life. Subject "Shrouded in Mystery" The pastor and people extend a most cordial invitation to all.

Mr. Holiday, who managed the chautauqua last summer, and Paul S. Dietrick were in Red Cloud this week for another chautauqua again next year. The people of Red Cloud and vicinity certainly showed last summer that they were enthusiastically in favor of a chautauqua and would do all in their power to make one a success another year.

Roy Reese was brought to Red Cloud last Saturday by Deputy Sheriff Shelburn to be confined in the Webster county jail. Reese plead guilty to forging a check for $50 on a Harlan county farmer, before Judge Adams, and by request of relatives sentence was delayed for ten days. Reese's home is in Smith Center, Kan., and up to the present time he has borne a very good reputation. He will be given his sentence when court convenes in this city November 11.

L. A. Lovejoy bought 140 bushels of alfalfa seed Tuesday of G. R. Bantam for which Mr. Bantam received a check of $980.35. This was the rent share on 90 acres or one-half the total crop of seed which was raised after two crops of hay had been taken from the land. One load brought in by Mr. Bantam weighed out a little over 50 bushels and brought $397.41. Mr. Lovejoy on the same day bought of Robt. Farmer 36 bushels and 40 pounds of seed that was the product of five acres within the last 80 days. Mr. Farmer's check called for $257.56 or more than $50 per acre for his seed crop alone. What crop can you raise on any of the high-priced eastern land that can equal this?—Almena (Kans.) Plaindealer.

Suit Prices.

The lowest rung in the price ladder is $5.00 to $8.00. The greatest strength lies in the assortment at $15.00, $18.00 and $20.00. At these prices we know from observation and from information given us by those who have examined Suits in other houses, that we can give you positively superior results in tailoring, appearance, style and quality.

Do not judge of the merits of a Suit, however, by any advertised price alone. Anybody can quote prices.

It's the Suit at the price that tells the story.

Business College Notes

L. M. STEWARD, PRESIDENT.

And They Still Come.

Miss Jessie Brooks of Campbell entered the shorthand department Monday morning.

Mr. Carl Peterson from down in Kansas entered the business department on last Tuesday morning.

Pres. Steward and wife spent last Sunday at the Barlow ranch. They report plenty of chicken and enjoyment.

The Business College entertainment company will give an entertainment in Guide Rock Friday evening.

Don't fail to attend the foot-ball game Friday at 3 p. m. Come and encourage the boys on to victory and help land the state championship in Red Cloud.

Pres. Steward spent several days last week down in Kansas, taking in Womer, Smith Centre, Bellaire and Lebanon. While at Lebanon Saturday attended the Bellaire-Lebanon foot ball game.

School Notes

Roy Robinson was absent from school Monday morning.

Many of the ninth grade pupils seats were changed this week.

Next Friday the Red Cloud high school team will play Lebanon on Lebanon grounds.

Mabel Thomas was absent from school last week to attend the wedding of her brother.

Many of the non-resident students of the ninth grade are finding boarding places for the winter.

A surprise party was given last Friday evening at the home of Vernon Storey in honor of Miss Hazel Stiffler. All had a good time.

Last Friday the the foot ball game between Franklin high school and Red Cloud high school resulted in a victory for Red Cloud. The score was 54 to 0.

We have a new tardy rule which is working fine. If one is tardy his whole grade is retained fifteen minutes after school. Each grade looks after its late members much more carefully.
