

Newsy Notes From Neighboring Towns

GATHERED FROM OUR EXCHANGES

SUPERIOR

(From the Journal.)

Grant Usher went to Hebron this morning to attend the funeral of his uncle, the late S. F. Spokesfield.

Port Beeman, formerly of this city, but now of La Junta, Col., had the misfortune to lose an eye recently by being struck by a flying nail.

Numerous architects were here yesterday and today submitting plans for the new high school building. Lattin & Grant of Omaha were selected to draw up the plans.

Those who attended the tin wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. McGregor, at their home last evening, report having had a delightful time.

BLUE HILL.

(From the Leader)

Dr. Boles was called to the home of his parents in Iowa, by the death of his grandfather, who passed away at the age of 90 years.

The wolf hunt northeast of town Tuesday was quite a failure, from a wolf killing standpoint. Only one wolf was sighted and it got away.

The Independent Order of Odd Fellows of this place took possession of their new lodge rooms Monday evening and commemorated the event by participating in a banquet, in which they were joined by the Rebekahs.

Mr. Cotner, who resides a few miles northwest, left home Wednesday evening in company with his family, with the exception of one son, who remained to look after the premises. They had suspected someone of being in their barn a few evenings previous, and before leaving home Wednesday evening Mr. Cotner loaded a shotgun and gave his son instructions to use it if he caught anyone in the barn. About 9 o'clock the son heard a noise out in the barn and went out to investigate. As he started out of the house, some one came out of the barn, and started on a run across the yard toward the field. The son immediately opened upon the fellow, and that the fellow received a few of the shot was evident from his actions. The boy was unable to identify the escaping man.

BLADEN

(From the Enterprise.)

James Anderson arrived Wednesday on the freight with a new bride in the person of Miss Hannah Johnson of Hastings.

A. C. Christensen this week became the possessor of the jewelry and musical merchandise stock of L. E. Spence and the business will be continued at the old stand.

A big wolf hunt in Catherton township last Tuesday resulted in the round-up of five wolves, but owing to the fact of so few participating in the drive all of the animals escaped.

Habeas corpus proceedings were instituted before Judge Edson in Red Cloud Tuesday, which freed E. M. Hoffman, who was sentenced by Justice of the Peace Solomon to twenty-five days in jail for drunkenness and carrying concealed weapons.

GUIDE ROCK.

(From the Signal.)

Rev. Willahan will preach his farewell sermon next Sunday morning. He will go to Erie, Pa., where he is called to the pastorate of the First Baptist church.

Wednesday morning, while unloading hogs at his farm, A. Whitmore, a prosperous farmer living five and one-half miles northwest of town, broke his wrist.

Miss Addie A. Ely died January 15, at the home of her uncle, J. F. Watt, at the age of 16 years and 4 months. Her death was caused by a complication of diphtheria and heart trouble.

W. H. Scott a son of Wm. Scott, is visiting here. He was seriously injured in an accident a year or more ago and is now resting up from treatment received while in a hospital.

Thursday, January 9, was the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hughes, and a number of their old time friends and neighbors gathered in to help them celebrate the event.

Monday evening after the chapter had closed the ladies and gentlemen of the Eastern Star repaired to the home of sister Ida Hayes, having previously planned a surprise for her, it being the twenty-second anniversary of her marriage.

SMITH CENTER

(From the Messenger)

Mrs. S. L. Amis, who has been lingering between life and death for the past ten days, is much improved.

Tuesday night was the third time E. W. Luse's hardware store has been broken into during the past few months.

Mrs. Margaret Wolfe, mother of Register of Deeds Duane Wolfe, died at her home in Monta Vella, Oregon, January 6, after an illness of several weeks.

Little Harriet Palmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Palmer of Cora township, who underwent an operation for appendicitis last week, is improving rapidly.

The city has installed new electric fire alarms at different places in the city and in case of fire the alarm can be turned in more quickly than by the old system of phoning.

LEBANON.

(From the Argus.)

Mrs. J. N. Bates has been quite sick again this week.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Beardslee, Wednesday, January 15.

The Stanley school has been closed on account of the sickness of the teacher, Leonard George, the trouble being smallpox in a light form.

About the hardest jolt that we have heard of by hog disease is the case of John Custer. A few weeks ago his herd numbered 295, while today he has but nine left, all the others dying within a few days.

A little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dillon of Esbon was accidentally killed last Saturday. The little one was playing on a pile of railroad ties, that had been taken out and piled up for fire wood, when they rolled and crushed the little one's head.

CAMPBELL

(From the Citizen.)

Mrs. A. Chartier, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis at Omaha, returned home Tuesday, entirely recovered.

Miss Anna Meyers and her brother-in-law, Herman Kumke, who have both been taking hospital treatment, returned home yesterday morning.

Peter Oberg returned from Omaha Saturday, having left his little girl at a hospital, where she remains to take treatment. Ben Arvidson also came back without bringing his boy, as he had intended.

August Hinkel met with a severe accident Tuesday evening, as the result of which he is minus his right arm. On the road home from town the team ran away and Mr. Hinkel was found by the roadside in an unconscious condition, with a badly fractured arm. The injured man was brought to town and his arm dressed, but next day it became evident that amputation would be necessary and the operation was performed. He is now resting easy and it is hoped no further complications will arise.

The Best Part.

"Tommy, did you give your brother the best part of the apple, as I told you to?"

"Yesum, I gave him the seeds. He can plant them and have a whole orchard."

Wifely Cheer.

"I haven't a pull with any one," said the unsuccessful man.

"Oh, yes, you have, dear," said his wife encouragingly, "with the fool killer."—Life.

The Wonderful Big Horn Basin

To Renters

I have a selected list of irrigated farms in the Basin for rent; why not rent for a year or two and learn the profits from irrigated farming in the Basin, and become acquainted with the climate and desirability of settling in that region? We also help you homestead irrigated lands, or to buy them at prices that will make you money. Millions of dollars are now being spent irrigating Basin lands. Homeseekers' excursions first and third Tuesdays of 1908. Write D. Clem Deaver, General Agent Land-seekers' Information Bureau, Omaha.

PANHANDLE, TEXAS,

Excursion Dates are the 1st and 3rd Tuesdays of Each Month

We have made arrangements to handle lands through one of the largest and best land companies in the United States and we can sell you as fine land as the sun ever shone on at $15 per acre; $4 per acre cash, and the balance on 10 years' time at 6 per cent interest.

With $4 per acre down you and your neighbors who are renting a farm may just as well buy one of their own on long time and a low rate of interest.

Our company has sold 800,000 acres of this choice land on these favorable terms to parties, in many instances, who could not purchase land in any other way, and are thus enabled to secure a home.

Don't wait until you get a little more money, as the land is liable to advance as fast as your pile of money will grow, but get in on the ground floor and get the advance yourself.

Our Next Excursion Will Be Tuesday, February 4, 1908.

Our next excursion date is Tuesday, January 21, 1908, and we stand ready to show you a good thing at a moderate cost and we extend an invitation to you to come to our office and talk it over with us and make arrangements to take advantage of this rare opportunity to secure a farm in a land of great opportunities.

Pecos Valley, New Mexico.

We have choice land in the Pecos Valley in the irrigated district for anyone who desires to purchase that kind of land, and we can show you some of the best bargains in irrigated land that you can find under any water service.

Yours for Business.

Red Cloud Investment Co.
