Two of Red Cloud's nice girls were returning from church one night not long ago and heard what they thought were some chums "trilling" to them. They returned trill for trill about a dozen times and then discovered that they were flirting with a windmill which was screaming for oil.

Cloyd Cummings, who is ill at a sanitarium in Beatrice, underwent an operation last Saturday by which a large piece of bone was removed from his left foot. It was feared for a time that amputation would have to be resorted to. At last reports Cloyd was getting along as nicely as could be ex-pected.

The switch engine and crew have been restored to the Red Cloud yards, Engineer A. Clark and Fireman Clayt Brown being in charge, with Switch-men Beard and Goth doing the yard work. It took but a short time for the management to discover that it does not pay to have the train crews do the switching.

Mike Strobl, one of our prosperous Bohemian farmers, returned Monday from a trip to Friona, Tex., in the Panhandle country, where he went in search of land. While he did not make a purchase, he was more than pleased with the country and thinks the Panhandle has a bright future. He has, however, decided to remain in Webster county for the present.

Under a new ruling of the postoffice department publishers of newspapers will be required to pay the third class rate of 1 cent each upon all papers that are not paid for in advance. As a consequence we will be forced to cut off all delinquents from our list and place the accounts in the hands of an attorney for collection. We hope YOU will not compel us to do this, but come up like a gentleman, without being dunned personally by an attorney, and settle that long overdue account. We need the money.

The Ladies' Altar Society of the Catholic church is holding a series of socials and bazars at the homes of the members, to raise money to clear the debt on the church. The last one was held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. John Polnicky, and was a success both socially and financially, about fifty guests being present. Next week Mrs. E. J. Pulsipher will be the host-ess.

Brakeman Skelton of the west end is taking a thirty-day rest in conse-quence of his negligence last Saturday in permitting a freight car to crash into the west end of the depot. A fly-ing switch was being made and Skel-ton, after cutting the car loose and giving the signal to "push," failed to climb on the car and set the brakes. The car was under such headway that it flattened out the "bumper" post and crashed into the freight depot, doing between four and five hundred dollars damage. Hence Skelton's involuntary vacation.

Wedding Bells.

McIntyre—Bowen.

A very pretty wedding took place on Wednesday evening, January 29, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McIntyre, south of the city, at which time their daughter Ruth was married to Richard Bowen by the Rev. A. A. Cressman, pastor of the Congregational church. After the ceremony the guests sat down to a most sumptuous wedding supper, to which all did ample justice. Only intimate friends of the contracting parties were present. The Chief extends congratulations and best wishes.
