Court opens on the 25th. A large number of immigrants came into town Friday.

Rev. Yeiser is holding meetings on Walnut creek this week.

Potter & Frisbie send a team regularly to the railroad every week with flour from their mill.

George Winton of Oconomowoc, Wis. is with us and is looking the ground over thoroughly.

Rev. Kirkwood has sold his farm on Crooked creek to A. W. Cook and will move to town in a few days.

Dr. Dillard, medical adviser of the summer school of science, is a brother-in-law of Rev. George O. Yeiser of this city.

The Inavale ghost does not come around when the snow is on the ground, probably for fear of being tracked to her home.

We had the pleasure of meeting yesterday Mr. M. B. Thompson, who, in connection with Smith Bros., bankers of Beatrice, is preparing to open a bank at Red Cloud for the accommodation of the Republican valley. The banking firm will be "Smith Bros. & Thompson" and the names of the gentlemen who compose it will be sufficient recommendation to the people of western Nebraska. No institution in the state bears a better reputation for promptness, reliability and responsibility than the First National bank of Beatrice, under the control of Smith Bros. The new bank of Red Cloud will commence business early next week.—State Journal.

The Grip.

Grip has been widely prevailing in the United States. Many years ago, when it was widely prevailing in Boston, we sent an officer to a large match factory, who found that not a single person of all employed there had been troubled with the grip, the reason being that they were at work on sulphur. We have several times published articles on this subject, showing that in sulphur mines everybody escaped the malaria which was prevailing all about them, that in California men engaged in bleaching with brimstone fumes escaped epidemics.

Casey Young, member of Congress from Memphis, Tenn., assured us many years ago at Washington that when the yellow fever was raging in that city he advised some dozen or more gentlemen in his offices to wear powdered sulphur in their shoes, and all who took his advice escaped the fever. It is well known that the old practice of taking sulphur and molasses in the spring would so penetrate the body as to blacken the silver coins in the pockets of the persons taking it. We wish that some of our eminent physicians would carefully investigate the advisability of wearing powdered sulphur about the body in times of epidemic diseases.—Geo. T. Angell, editor Our Dumb Animals.

WHY Stockings Don't Wear.

It is true that Stockings ought to wear better than they do. The Hose we sell, it sometimes seems, ought to wear better. Customers occasionally say that no stockings wear as well as they used to do. Of course, the trouble is partly in the Stocking and partly in the wearer.

Women don't wear as heavy Hose as they once wore. They say: "Give me something thinner; I can't wear those thick ones." And, of course, the material is not in them to give service. We would not expect the same service from a lace and broadcloth gown, yet we do something similar in our reasoning on Hose.

Then many require that their Hose fit like a glove. If they were to buy a half size larger they would add much to the life of a pair of Hose. A good deal depends on the treatment given a Stocking. If it is pulled on, twisted on, jerked on, or worn with ill-fitting shoes, even a firm Stocking will soon give way.

It must be said, too, that dyes which are too strong will ruin a Stocking. That is where the customer is powerless, and it is where we are powerless as well. The old iron-wearing Hose were ingrain dyed—colored in the yarn before knitting. The newer fast blacks are much more evenly dyed, but an acid is used that sometimes gets ahead of the watchfulness even of experts. But people would not have the old gray-touched Hose and they can't have guaranteed wear combined with fast, even color.

In ladies' Hose we have the following Embroidery Hose:

Medium Weight Cotton Hose,
Heavy Weight Cotton Hose,
Fleece Lined Cotton Hose,
Cotton Hose with White Soles,
