Getting Even.

"No, I don't believe in expensive practical jokes," said a San Francisco business man, "except by way of retaliation."

"Now last year I received a telegram from a friend who was traveling in Italy. It came collect and cost me seven dollars; and when I opened it all I read was, 'Thank you, I am well.'"

"Then I sallied forth and sought me out a cobblestone—a nice, large cobblestone weighing about eleven pounds. And I wrapped it in excelsior, pink cotton and white paper, and I boxed it up in a handsome box; and I sent it by express, collect, to my facetious friend far across the bounding billows."

"And when he had paid his little fifteen dollars, and had opened the box in St. Petersburg, if I remember rightly, he found in addition to the precious contents a note from me that explained, 'This is the load that rolled off my heart on receipt of the news of your good health.'"—Woman's Home Companion for April.

Admiral Evans Improving.

Paso Robles Hot Springs, Cal., April 6.—Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans was strong enough to take a two hours' carriage ride through the hills surrounding the springs. The admiral was given his first "mud" bath in the Kurhaus since his arrival here. This was followed by massage treatment for an hour. He not only enjoyed the novel experience, but declared himself as wonderfully benefited by the treatment.

Congressman Hepburn Improving.

Washington, April 4.—Considerable improvement was noted in the condition of Representative Hepburn of Iowa, who has been confined to his home in this city since Wednesday. It was thought that he would be able to resume his duties at the capitol next week.
