

GUIDE ROCK.

(From the Signal.)

We see by the Nelson papers that Miss Ella Dugger, of north of town and Mr. Alfred Hansen, of Cadams, were married by the county judge at Nelson last week.

D. Jones received word on Sunday of the death of his brother, R. D. Jones, of Berkley, Calif. The message stated no particulars and as yet no further word has been received. R. D. Jones will be remembered by many of the older citizens of this county having been engaged in business here a number of years ago.

SUPERIOR

(From the Express.)

Frank Felt is having a cement curb put in along the front of his premises on North Central.

The crushed rock and flint for the concrete work in the basement of the new school building is here and is being hauled this week.

Miss Eva P. Storey and Mr. Roy Jones were united in marriage by Dr. Embree Sunday evening at six o'clock at the home of the bride's parents in this city.

BLADEN

(From the Enterprise.)

Work commenced last week on the brick residence of C. A. Easterly on Mariel and North Thorne streets.

George Clatte was quite seriously hurt last Saturday by his team running away and throwing him from a mower.

The Bladen sports have come up in line with two base ball teams this spring so it is possible that we may look for something doing this summer.

The Bladen band has been reorganized and are getting ready some music and it will only be a short time we hope, when our band will be ready to furnish any kind of band music.

This community was very sorry to hear of the intention of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Bierhaus to move to Campbell this week. They moved over Wednesday and have secured a fine little house to live in at that place.

CAMPBELL

(From the Citizen.)

Born, on Wednesday April 15, to Mr. and Mrs. T. Chevalier, a boy.

Rock Forest has about completed a nice new residence on his place six miles north of town, the expense of which will be $800 or $900.

Gottlieb Binder, southwest of town, has contracted with Fred Jacobson for the erection of a big barn, work on which will begin at once.

Mr. and Mrs. Omer Beauchene had another sad misfortune Wednesday, in the loss of their infant child, a few days old. The funeral was held yesterday.

Late last week the county commissioners decided to call a special election to vote on the proposition to make a 5-mill levy for three years to build a new court house for Franklin county.

Wash Reed returned Wednesday from a 10-days trip to Ashton, Ill., where he was called on Tuesday of last week by a telegram announcing the death of his elder brother, Abijah Reed, who passed away after an lingering illness of six months or more.

BLUE HILL.

(From the Leader)

Friends of T. T. Tobin have received announcements of his marriage to Miss

Jeanette Templeman, which occurred at Roberts, Wis., Wednesday April 8th, and after a trip through the eastern part of this country they will be at home in Blue Hill to their friends after May 20th.

Gus Kottwitz and Henry Waterman recently purchased some land in Meade county, Kansas.

T. L. Trowbridge left last Saturday for Chicago, and it is claimed he will most likely come back driving a "choo-choo" car.

Chas. Smith was a factor in a runaway Saturday from which he fortunately escaped with no worse injury to himself than a severe shaking up.

Al. Gruben has purchased the Henry Schlichtman residence in the west part of town, and moved into it the first of the week.

The Chief at the county seat was a little off last week in stating Red Cloud would be the only "wet" town in Webster county the coming year.

When we said "town," we meant it, not village.—[Ed.]

LEBANON.

(From the Argus.)

We have already been invited to make a certain visit in peach time. Now if someone will guarantee to keep off a freeze until next fall, we will be all right, and especially so, if we can prevail upon the sugar trust to donate a sack of sugar.

When the assessor gets through with you, you will wonder how you could have been so rich and never found it out before, and then if the levys are not watched you will wonder about taxpaying how, being so poor, you managed to keep out of the poor house.

A livery barn and thirteen horses was burned at Kensington Thursday night of last week. The blaze had gone so far, when discovered that only one horse was saved, and it is stated that a helper, sleeping in the barn, would have perished, had he not been aroused by his employer.

About thirty of the relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Eldred surprised them Sunday by going in on them about dinner time. The Eldreds had been invited to take dinner out, for the purpose of throwing them off their guard, so that Mrs. Eldred's feelings can better be imagined than described when she saw the crowd and nothing in the way of a dinner prepared.

BLOOMINGTON

(From Franklin County Tribune)

Invitations are out for the wedding of Clifford Storey and Miss Lena Ruopp, at Culbertson, next Sunday.

County Attorney Miller has purchased the residence property of R. V. McGrew in the east part of town, and will soon occupy the same.

Some of the supervisors of Smith Center, Kansas, are in conference with our bridge committee today in regard to the building of a bridge on the state line.

Frank Church and May Kelso of Riverton were united in marriage yesterday in the county judge's office. They were accompanied by his brother and wife.

The town was "taken" last Saturday and Sunday by delegates to the county Sunday School convention. There were many representatives here from all parts of the country.

John Ramsey and family enjoyed a visit over Sunday with an old time friend of Mr. Ramsey's, Mr. P. J. Boyd, who used to work in the shop with John in Chicago 25 years ago. They have not seen each other for that length of time and their visit was correspondingly cordial.

Jacob Gergen returned the first part of this week from Montgomery county, Kas., where he had been to attend the funeral of his father, Peter Gergen, who died at Cherryvale, Kan., April 5, at the advanced age of 86 years.

On Tuesday of this week there was a big damage suit filed in the office of the clerk of the district court, against the three saloon keepers of Campbell by Mrs. Sophie Henkel et al. The suit is for the sum of $15,000 alleged damages for the selling of liquor to her husband, who last January, the 14th, fell off a load of lumber while on his way home from Campbell and so badly crushed his arm that amputation was necessary. The Henkel family live about six miles south of Campbell. The defendants are Wm. Boudeau, Frank Robbins and Leonal Bourdeau and their bondsmen. The bonds of the saloon men of Campbell are furnished by a bonding company. M. A. Hartigan of Hastings is the attorney for the plaintiff.

FRANKLIN

(From the Sentinel.)

L. E. Furry has circulated a new petition praying for the opening up of a road along the western boundaries of the city.

We are glad to note the reappearance of Dr. J. L. Holyman, veterinarian, on our streets after a siege with the mumps.

J. B. Jones, Uncle Sam's mail carrier, is on the shelf temporarily. Howard Mason has been sworn in as deputy to carry the mail in his stead while he is sick.

John Brumbaugh is refitting and cleaning up his office building on the east side of Nebraska Avenue preparatory to using it as an office building and headquarters for his wall paper and painting business.

Will Clapp has been rejoicing all week over the fact that his bachelor days are ended. Mrs. Clapp returned Wednesday from Leavenworth, Kas., where she has been for several weeks taking care of her sick father.

Prof. J. I. Burwell, one of the teachers elect in our public school, will move here about May 1st to the place he rented in the eastern portion of the city—the Cameron place. From that time on he will drive back and forth between here and Bloomington.

Two deaths have occurred in our vicinity since our last issue, little Mabel Martin being called to the Great Beyond Thursday evening and Isaac M. Martin, the father of Pliny Martin, on Sunday. There was no relationship between the two.

The Salina and Northwestern, the north and south railroad project for which a survey was made last summer, is again showing signs of activity. Tuesday a party of four Smith Center business men and a gentleman from Boston, Mr. Owens by name, who is a contractor and financier, went through here in an automobile on their way to Holdrege on a tour of inspection. They visited Reamsville, Franklin and Bloomington. Mr. Owens informed us that another company had bought the Salina and Northwestern and that it was quite possible the new road would be built. Aside from this the only other definite information we could obtain was the statement that we would soon receive a written proposition from the company. Mr. Owens seemed to know what he was talking about and as far as he went discussed the matter in a very straightforward business like way.

District Court Doings.

W. H. Potter vs David Morrison. Motion for new trial. This is a case in which Potter sues Morrison for rent due for Holland Hotel.

E. E. Harvey vs Reno D. Russell. Harvey sued Russell for damage to crops of Harvey by Russell's property. Jury waived and trial to court. Judgments or Harvey against Russell for $10 and all costs. This case was also decided in favor of Harvey in lower court.

Darrel Burden vs C. G. Pitney. Plaintiff sues defendant for money due on note. Judgment for defendant. Motion filed for new trial.

John B. Stanser vs C. F. Cather. General finding for plaintiff. Defendant excepts and files supercedias bond.

Nebr. B. & L. Association vs Lena Walters. Pending stay.

Mary E. Pratt vs Geo. O. Yeiser. Demurrer sustained. Plaintiff given 30 days to amend petition.

Alfred C. White vs William J. Lipencott. Road case in Garfield township. Trial 24th.

Chas. Gurney et al vs School district of City of Red Cloud. For trial Friday.

William H. Fisher vs James J. Ryan. This was a replevin case brought over one year ago by Fisher to recover some cattle belonging to him which Ryan took up, as he claimed under the herd law for trespass. This is the third time the case has been tried and each time a verdict for Fisher. This case has become a very expensive one to defendant since costs in this and a criminal case that grew out of it, an over $500. It seems a better rule for neighbors to not be too ready to shut up property for a small trespass—or none at all.

COUNTY COURT NEWS.
