Only a Dodge.

An insurance expert was relating in Chicago some oddities of insurance.
"And then," said the expert, "there was that case of the general store man in Ohio. This man's store burned down, and because his stock was so heavy, the company disputed his claim.
I remember one item in his stock list—17,500 mourning hatbands. When I came to this item I thumped it with my pencil and said to the storekeeper severely:
"Look here, this is unreasonable.
Why should you have had 17,500 mourning hatbands in stock? What possibility was there that death would occur in a single small shop like yours a demand for 17,500 mourning hat-bands?"
"The storekeeper smiled at me in a condescending way and replied:
"I didn't keep those hatbands for men who grieved for the death of relatives or friends, but for men who went into mourning for the grease on their hats."—Boston Globe.

CHARLES SELF

Omaha, Neb. Prays.

Edward M. Krogh, who was here last week, to work on a contract for R. P. Pethoud, stabbed himself to death at the rooming house of James Pethoud with a small penknife.

Mr. Krogh and his wife arose shortly before 6 o'clock, after Krogh had spent a restless night. He requested his wife to kneel with him in prayer and after they had done so, he grasped the woman and attempted to murder her. She struggled away from him, receiving a wound on the hand, and then ran down stairs and gave the alarm. Krogh followed her part way down stairs, exclaiming, "We must both die together."

Mrs. Krogh went to the home of Chief of Police Moore, and the officer in company of Mr. Pethoud visited the room, where they found Krogh lying across a trunk with a knife wound in his breast. It was shown at the coroner's inquest that Krogh had been under the care of a physician for the last week because of a nervous breakdown.

MISS PEARL TAYLOR IS DEAD

Young Minden Woman Assaulted by Brother-in-Law Passes Away.

Minden, Neb., May 9.—Pearl Taylor died as the result of the shock of the assault, April 28, by her brother-in-law, Bert Taylor. The young woman was seventeen years age. She had been choked and beaten about the head until concussion of the brain resulted. The funeral was held here today.

Miss Taylor's death makes the third in the family in a year. Her sister, the wife of her assailant, died about a year ago. Her brother, James Taylor, died as the result of an operation for appendicitis.

There is no trace yet of Bert Taylor, though the officials have not relaxed their efforts to capture him. It is believed detectives have been for some time working upon the case, but the authorities here will not disclose the methods employed for Taylor's capture.

TALBOT PROCLAIMS THE DAY

Asks Modern Woodmen to Wear White Boutonnieres in Honor of Mothers.

Lincoln, May 9.—A. R. Talbot, head consul of the Modern Woodmen of America, issued a proclamation designating tomorrow as "Mothers' day," and requesting all members of the order on that day to wear a white flower and if the mother be alive to either visit or write to her. Acting Governor Saunders and W. J. Bryan issued statements commending the movement. Mr. Bryan said, in part:
"The wearing of a white flower on next Sunday as a tribute to the sweet and lasting influence of the mother upon the life of the child is appropriate indeed. I have no doubt that the turning back of our thoughts to her who, in youth, was our comforter, protector and adviser will result in many good resolves."

ADMIRAL ON PEACE AND WAR

Evans Tells North Platte People Bat-

500 citizens met the train. Admiral Evans came to the rear of the car on crutches and made a short speech, thanking those assembled for the reception. Among other things, he said:
"We will always have war as long as we have anything worth while to fight over," and "the more battleships we have and the fewer statesmen the longer we will have peace."

Convict Commits Suicide.

Lincoln, May 11.—Brooding over the fact that as soon as his prison term was finished he would be arrested again on other charges of law breaking, and that he was already a disgraced man, Charles W. Smith, whose real name was Henry Taylor, hanged himself in his cell at the penitentiary.
This was the fourth attempt of the convict to kill himself.

at Manila With Fatal Consequences.

Manila, May 12.—A telegram received by the adjutant general announced that Private Mike Beacham of the First United States cavalry ran amuck, killing three and wounding three of his comrades, one mortally.
The dead: First Sergeant William Hoey, Private G. Wilson, Private Thomas Woodward.

Fatally wounded: Private Edward Woodward.

All the killed and wounded were members of troop E, First cavalry.
Details of the tragedy are lacking, but before the national drainage congress, W. J. Bryan said he was heartily in sympathy with the movement for the

Lacked Something.

"You Germans have no sense of humor," said an American.

"Try me and see," said the German.
"Well," said the American, "you know America is the home of very large things—the highest mountains, the greatest waterfalls"

"Oh, yes, yes, yes," said the German.
"And our trees," continued the American, "are so tall that in order to see to the top of them one man looks as far up as he can, and another man begins where the first man leaves off and looks up to the top."

"But dat vass no joke; dat vass a lie."

A Boston Correction.

Bilkins had recently moved from New York to Boston. The other morning he went to the butcher's.

"Give me a nice porterhouse," he ordered.

"Extremely sorry, sir," said the proprietor of the establishment urbanely, "but we are not giving anything away this morning."—Harper's Weekly.

The Truth.

Fear is not in the habit of speaking truth. When perfect sincerity is expected, perfect wisdom must be allowed.
Nor has any one who is apt to be angry when he hears the truth any cause to wonder that he does not hear it.—Tacitus.
