

NEW BISHOPS NAMED

METHODIST CONFERENCE COMPLETES EPISCOPAL ELECTION.

Dr. McIntyre Elected on Sixteenth Ballot and Dr. Bristol, Friend and Adviser of McKinley, on Eighteenth. Appropriations for Mission Work.

The election of bishops of the Methodist Episcopal conference of 1908 at Baltimore is now a matter of history and when announcement was made of the selection of the eighth and last bishop very many of the delegates heaved sighs of relief.

The new bishops, in the order of their election and the number of votes each received on the electing ballot, are as follows: Rev. Dr. W. F. Anderson of New York, secretary of the board of education, Freedman's Aid and Sunday schools, 548 votes; Rev. Dr. J. L. Neulson, professor in Nash Theological seminary, Berea, O., 549 votes; Rev. Dr. W. A. Quayle, pastor of St. James' church, Chicago, 519 votes; Rev. Dr. Charles W. Smith, pastor of the Pittsburg Christian Advocate, 511 votes; Rev. Dr. Wilson S. Lewis, president of Worningside college, Sioux City, Ia., 524 votes; Rev. Dr. Edwin H. Hughes, president of DePaul university, Greencastle, Ind., 511 votes; Rev. Dr. Robert McIntyre, pastor of the First church, Los Angeles, 485 votes; and Rev. Dr. Frank M. Bristol, pastor of the Metropolitan church, Washington, 493 votes. The last named was the pastor, intimate friend and often, it is said, adviser of the late President McKinley.

The episcopal election out of the way, the conference will now take up the election of a missionary bishop for Mexico, a secretary of the general conference, four publishing agents, thirteen editors, corresponding secretaries of various boards, trustees, a new commission on aggressive evangelism and a number of other officials.

The committee on foreign missions has decided upon several recommendations to be made to the conference. One of these looks to the indorsement by the conference of the laymen's missionary union; another recommends the naming of a commission to arrange for a proper celebration throughout the entire church of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the establishment of Methodist missions in Korea. The same committee will ask the conference to appropriate for mission work $1,500,000 for 1909; $4,000,000 for 1910; $5,000,000 for 1911, and $6,000,000 for 1912.

The committee on temperance will recommend an appropriation of $250,000 for general temperance work in the churches.

One of the rumors is that Rev. Dr. Charles L. Goodell, pastor of Calvary church, New York, will be asked to succeed Dr. Quayle as pastor of St. James, Chicago.

PRESBYTERIAN FIGHT IS ON Motion to Reorganize Administrative Agencies Is Defeated.

submitted on administrative agencies was under consideration. It was apparent during the heated discussion of the report that there is in the general assembly a strong sentiment in favor of reorganizing the administrative agencies of the church by changing the personnel of this important committee, although a motion to that effect was defeated.

After Dr. J. D. Moffat had finished reading the recommendations of the committee, Dr. Rice V. Hunter of Buffalo took exceptions to the tenor of one section, which he said gave too much power to the twenty-one men composing the committee on administrative agencies, adding the assertion that there "is a growing belief in this assembly that too much power is being centered in the hands of a few men."

Several speakers followed with speeches of a conciliatory nature and when Vice Moderator James put the recommendations of the committee to a vote they were all adopted, and it was believed a tense situation had been succeeded by the harmony which had heretofore marked all the deliberations of the assembly, but it soon developed that the storm had not yet spent its force.

Dr. William D. Merrill of Chicago offered an amendment that the present committee on administrative agencies be discharged and that a new committee of twenty-one members be appointed, to include all the members of the present committee who are not members of any of the church boards. The amendment was voted on and lost after the assembly had remained in session until long after the regular hour of adjournment.

 Commending organizations which are working against the traffic in white slaves and calling upon President Roosevelt and the government to unite with other nations in suppressing this increasing evil by signing the treaty now in effect between many other countries, a resolution introduced by the Rev. M. P. Boynton of Chicago was unanimously passed by the Northern Baptist convention at Oklahoma City.

Other resolutions indorse the work of the anti-saloon league and condemn the great demand for child labor.

Distribution of $1,500,000 to carry on religious work during the year was provided for by the adoption of the executive committee's report.

INSANE MAN STABS PRIEST

Father Lubeley of Salisbury, Mo., is Perhaps Fatally Wounded.

Father Joseph E. Lubeley, pastor of St. Joseph's Catholic church of Salisbury, was stabbed twice with a pocket-knife and, perhaps, fatally injured in church by Joseph Schuette, a prosperous farmer living near there, who is believed to have become suddenly demented. The stabbing occurred in view of 400 worshippers, many of them women. The injured man was taken to a nearby residence, where his wounds were attended to by physicians. His condition is critical.

Immediately after Father Lubeley had finished high mass, he started to leave the church. At the door he was rushed upon suddenly from behind by Schuette, who stabbed him twice, telling him, "The first blow from the knife struck the priest in the temple and the second cut a deep gash in the neck, just missing the jugular vein. The crazed man was about to stab the priest a third time when Mrs. Barbara Ginter and John Gates, both members of the church, caught his uplifted hand. In the struggle which followed, Schuette stabbed Mrs. Ginter in the hand and inflicted a painful cut on Gates' arm. A dozen men came to the aid of Mrs. Ginter and Mr. Gates and overpowered Schuette. Struggling and fighting, he was taken to jail.

It is believed Schuette, who has been a devout member of St. Joseph's church, became suddenly deranged, and the attempt on Father Lubeley's life resulted.

Another version of the attempted assassination is that Father Lubeley had publicly reprimanded Schuette for attacking a member of the congregation last Saturday.

During the services Schuette sat in the rear of the church. It is said he glared constantly at the priest as if in great rage.

COURT FINDS THAW INSANE
 Decision Given Under Which He Must Stay in Asylum.

Harry Thaw, slayer of Stanford White, will not be released from the lunatic asylum. This is the decision reached by Justice Morschauer of the supreme court in an opinion filed in the matter of Thaw's application for release on a writ of habeas corpus at Poughkeepsie.

Both points brought up by Thaw's attorneys are decided against him. The justice declares that Thaw is now insane and should not be allowed at large, and he further declares that the commitment to the lunatic asylum by Justice Dowling after the last trial of the case was entirely legal.

Harry K. Thaw gave out a statement, in which he sought to make clear his point that the district attorney's "hot air" fooled the newspapers into giving more attention to points

STATE OF NEBRASKA. In the County Court, Webster County.

At a county court held at the county court room in and for said county, Tuesday, May 19th A. D. 1908.

In the matter of the estate of Susan L. Baxter, deceased.
 On reading and filing the petition of Sarah M. Baxter, praying that the instrument filed on the 19th day of May, 1908, and purporting to be the last Will and Testament of the said deceased may be proved, approved, probated, allowed and recorded as the last Will and Testament of the said Susan L. Baxter, deceased, and that the execution of the instrument may be committed and the administration of said estate may be granted to Sarah M. Baxter as executrix.

Ordered, that Wednesday, the 14th day of June A. D. 1908, at 10 o'clock a. m., is assigned for hearing said petition when all persons interested in said matter may appear at a county court to be held in and for said county and show cause why the prayer of the petition should not be granted; and that notice of the pendency of said petition and the hearing thereof be given to all persons interested in said matter, by publishing a copy of this order in the Red Cloud Chief, a weekly newspaper printed in said county, for three successive weeks prior to said day of hearing.

(Signed) J. W. EDSON, County Judge.

adverse to him than those reported in his case. The introductory paragraph in Thaw's statement says:
 "This is my first statement since the day before Christmas." Thaw then goes on to say that the last evening of court he was called to the stand just when the stenographer's hour was up and sometime before the new stenographer entered the room. Meanwhile two of the flashlights were exploded within twelve feet of him, which was probably what appeared to me as him nervous.
