Working Women and the Ballot

But if, both for their own sakes and for the good of the republic, women of property and women of education should be enfranchised," writes Jane Adams in the Woman's Home Companion. "far more is the power of the ballot needed by the working woman, whose stake in the country is represented by her life, her health, her virtue, and the safety and happiness of her children. The ballot is not demanded for her because she is good or wise, or because she will make no mistakes in its use. Neither goodness nor wisdom is the sole possession of one class, and freedom from mistakes is the privilege of none. Working women need the ballot because they must possess some control over the conditions of their lives and those of their children; and in this twentieth-century world, the ballot box offers the only channel through which they can give expression to such legitimate control."

Passenger and Freight Wreck.

Eastbound passenger, No. 14, running through here about 2 a. m. Sunday morning met in a head-end collision with a freight extra near Reynolds, Neb. Engineer Finley of the passenger was fatally injured and died Sunday afternoon; the fireman of the passenger jumped and escaped serious injury. Engineer O'Donald of the freight was severely hurt about the head, his fireman also receiving almost fatal wounds. It seems that the cause of the wreck was in the freight running on the passenger's time.

Rev. J. G. Aikman of Hastings will preach in the Congregational church Sunday morning. Mr. Aikman was pastor of the church here 22 years ago. He is an able preacher and will interest all whether young or old. A welcome extended to all.

School Site Information.

In order that voters may better understand the differences between the various locations for the new school house we give the following information:

No. 1 is the location already selected by the school board. This is owned by C. J. Platt. Price for block $1,000; streets and alleys free.

No. 2 is west of Mrs. Hugh Miner; half block belonging to Mrs. Miner and half block to C. J. Platt. No price can be given as it can be acquired only by condemnation proceedings.

No. 3 is south of Mrs. Miner. Like No. 2, is not for sale and must be condemned.

No. 4 is south of the Catholic church one-half block. Price asked is $200 per lot. Must also buy two buildings, one of which is not for sale. Would probably require condemnation proceedings.

It will be seen that but one of the proposed locations can be acquired without resorting to condemnation proceedings, and until the cost of the site is determined nothing can be done toward the erection of the building. We would suggest that each voter personally look over the four proposed locations, consider the needs of the school children and vote accordingly.

The most essential thing in marriage is respect. It is above love above compatibility, above even the priceless sense of humor. Respect will make even the "appalling intimacy" endurable and will bring one through the most trying disagreements with no bruise on the soul, whatever wounds there may be in the heart. Therefore, men and women, never, never marry any one you don't really respect, however passionately you may love. —Grand Magazine.

A Diplomat.

"Life at best is but a gloomy prison," said the moralizing bachelor. "So much the worse for men who deliberately choose solitary confinement," remarked the girl who had her trap set. —Bohemian Magazine.

Washington and a Dog.

While the British occupied Philadelphia and the American force lay in winter quarters at Valley Forge, one day as Washington and his staff were dining a fine hunting dog which was evidently lost came to seek something to eat. On its collar was the name, "General Howe." Washington ordered that the dog should be fed, and then he sent it to Philadelphia under a flag of truce, with a letter reading: "General Washington's compliments to General Howe. He does himself the pleasure to return to him a dog which accidentally fell into his hands and by the inscription on the collar appears to belong to General Howe." The British commander in reply sent a cordial letter conveying his warm thanks for this act of courtesy of his enemy.

A Judge's Poetical Request.

In "Memoirs of Famous Trials," by Rev. E. V. Burnaby, is an amusing story about the late Lord Bowen, "a brilliant, intellectual and clever judge." His lordship wanted a lift to the lord chancellor's breakfast in 1883 and addressed the following request to his old friend, Mr. Justice Mathew:

My Dear J. C.—Will you be free to carry me, beside of thee, in your buggee to Selborne's tea, if breakfast he intends for you on 2 November next? D. V., eighteen hundred and eighty-three. A. D., for Lady B. from Cornwall St., will absent be and says that she would rather see her husband be dashed D than send to London her buggee for such a melancholy spree as Selborne's toast and Selborne's tea?

INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM CURED IN 3 DAYS

Morton L. Hill, of Lebanon Ind., says: "My wife had inflammatory rheumatism in every muscle and joint; her suffering was terrible and her body and face were swollen almost beyond recognition; had been in bed six weeks and had eight physicians, but received no benefit until she tried Dr. DeChon's Relief for Rheumatism. It gave immediate relief and she was able to walk about in three days. I am sure it saved her life." Said by H. E. Grice, Drugist, Red Cloud.
