

Arcoatum

This is the most durable Roof and Barn Paint that is made and is also a wood preserver; color, a beautiful maroon. Guaranteed for 5 years. If you want the best in paint of any kind come and see us.

Chas. L. Cotting
The Druggist.

LOCALETTES

Chas. Godsey went to Alma Saturday.
Mrs. Hobart of Riverton was in town Monday.
Miss Gerie Holsworth Sundayed in Guide Rock.
Dr. Asher assumed charge of the Day barn Monday.
Long wristed Lisle Gloves, 50c, at F. Newhouse's.
Ernest Graves was down from McCook Saturday.
Miss Erma Lindley was down from Riverton Saturday.
Miss Ora Watson of Cowles was a city visitor Sunday.
Mrs. Egbert and mother have returned from Nelson, Neb.
Fred Perry of Harvard is visiting his brother Harry this week.
Chas. Moede and Tommy Nesbitt left for Denver Monday morning.
For Sale—A phonograph at a bargain. Address P. O. Box 246.
Mrs. Jennie Graham and son are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bates.
Everett Walters of Blue Hill is visiting his brother Carrol this week.
Miss Mabel Potter returned to her home in Wilcox the first of the week.
Mr. and Mrs. Dick Ranchev spent Sunday in Cowles visiting relatives.
Mrs. C. W. Morgan Sundayed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Morgan.
Mrs. Ed Fearn and sons Orris and Glenn left Monday for Ellsworth, Kas.
Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Albright are the proud parents of a baby boy, born Friday.
One wheel of Dr. Cook's auto backed over one of Russel Jones' feet Tuesday evening. It was fortunate for the little fellow that he was not more seriously hurt. Antolists should observe the custom of giving the "hunk, hunk" when starting backward or forward in the city.

Miss Bertha Potter is home from Seward, Neb., where she has been teaching.
Mrs. W. A. Holmes departed the last of the week for Lincoln for a visit with relatives.
The '08 graduating class will give their class play, "Valley Farm," in Blue Hill tonight.
John Foster and family enjoyed a pleasant visit from Charley Martin and wife of Portis, Kas.
Mrs. Taylor returned to Riverton the first of the week after a week's visit with her parents.
Miss Mabel Day returned from Blue Hill Saturday, where she has been teaching school.
Miss Jessie Ducker returned home from Minden, Friday, where she has been teaching school.
After a successful term of school in our city, Miss Kruse left Friday for her home in Creighton, Neb.
No. 15 west bound passenger train changed time Sunday evening and will arrive at 8:25 instead of 8:05.

E. E. Goble of Fort Cobb, Okla., is visiting in the city. He made this office a pleasant call Monday.
Jos. Herberger and wife and son Roy left the first of the week for an extended trip to Denver and Salt Lake City.
James Ferguson returned from Chicago Saturday morning. He is studying medicine at the Northwestern college.
Jake Kindseher of Redlands, California, is visiting near Guide Rock. He made this office a pleasant call Saturday.
Drs. Weirick & Riddle, Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Specialists. Glasses fitted. Over German National Bank, Hastings.

Starke Bros. shipped eighteen carloads of cattle Sunday to St. Joe. Con Starke and James McIntosh accompanied the shipment.
Herbert Hurd of Harvard arrived in the city Saturday. He is holding down 2nd base with our ball team and is a number one good player.
Judge Dungan of Hastings delivered the address on Decoration day to the old soldiers. Everybody that was present spoke well of his speech.
Sunday night's wind fractured the base of the liberty pole at the court house and lowered it to the ground.

Friday night the people were compelled to use their kerosene lamps instead of electric lights on account of a disconnection at the power house.
Sunday an engine backed out of the round house and the tender went over into the turn table pit before it could be stopped. It took a force of men and an engine all day to get it out of the pit again. All the engines on other trains were compelled to run to Wynore instead of changing here.

The eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Throckmorton who live in Jewell county, Kansas, died Saturday of rheumatism of the heart. The funeral was held Monday afternoon at two o'clock at the home of his parents. Rev. Hummel preached the sermon and the Brethren male quartet furnished the singing. The interment was made in the Stone Church cemetery. He was well liked by all who knew him and his parents have our sympathy in their hour of bereavement.

Yost & Butler The Butchers

Dealers in Fresh, Salt and Cured Meats

Phones, Country 103
Bell 54

Chas. Fort was in town Wednesday.
Wanted—Load of good prairie hay. I. W. Edson.
Fred Temple of Kansas City was in town this week.
Jesse Null came up from Bellaire, Kas., Wednesday.
Watch for the date of the W. C. T. U. gold medal contest.
Lightning killed a young calf for Will Kent Monday.
J. E. Yost and family were Bladen visitors over Sunday.
Chas. Milligan Jr. came down from McCook this morning.
Pete Nelson of Hastings was in town the first of the week.
Ray Bonnor of Franklin was in town Tuesday and Wednesday.
Mrs. Will Taber went to Lincoln last Saturday morning.
Bachelors subject to hay fever never should court a grass widow.
C. E. Vaughan and wife of Guide Rock were in town Wednesday.
Lloyd Wells returned to his home in Edmund, Kas., Thursday morning.
Isaac Hampton came in from Oklahoma the latter part of last week.
Our ball boys cross bats with the McCook boys here today and tomorrow.

The inch and 5-100 of rain which fell Sunday and Monday nights will help some.
Miss Bertha Calkins of Lincoln is a guest at the homes of Will and Elmer Koon.
One nice way to reduce your wife's flesh is to induce her to shine your shoes.
Mrs. Chas. Grant and Miss Paquita Studebaker were Riverton visitors Thursday.
Darrel Burden of Ruskin arrived in the city Wednesday for a visit with his parents.
Mrs. Kennedy of Lincoln, a deputy for the Royal Neighbor lodge, was in town Thursday.
Mrs. Loren Lucas has returned from Illinois where she went to be at the bedside of her mother.
Jud Bailey was shocked by a bolt of lightning Monday evening, but it did not put him out of business.

Mrs. George P. Johnson and daughter, Leone, left yesterday for an extended visit to friends in Iowa.
The Gaston Music Co. opened up a music house in one of the school rooms in the Damerall block this week.
No. 13 passenger train was several hours late this morning on account of a washout between here and Superior.
J. C. Rightsell of Wray, Colo., a traveling salesman for Overing Bros., was in the city visiting the firm this week.

Mrs. J. S. White, wife of the ex-county treasurer of this county, died at her home in University Place last Tuesday.
As we go to press word comes that severe rain and windstorm passed over Kearney last night, killing and drowning nine persons.

J. E. Jarboe and wife and a number of others went to Des Moines, Iowa, this morning to attend the annual conference of the Brethren church.
The ministerial union was postponed from last Monday evening on account of the storm. It will meet next Monday evening, June 8th, at Rev. Bates' rooms.
The little one-month-old babe of Mr. and Mrs. Al McCarter died Wednesday morning of lung trouble and was buried Wednesday afternoon. Rev. Cressman conducted the services.

Harry Skewis from Tacoma, Wash., a cousin of Chas. Gilliam came in from Inwood, Iowa, where he was in attendance at the death and funeral of his mother. He left Sunday for Washington.

H. L. VanDyke of Rock Springs, Wyo., one of the foreman on the government irrigation ditch there, stopped over with Uncle Billy VanDyke of Line township for a couple of days' visit this week.

Themes to be used at the Baptist church next Sunday. In the morning "Ears to Hear," in the evening "Visions from Pisgah." The Lord's supper will be observed at the close of the morning service. C. A. Wilson, pastor.

If you know a fresh young man who has been bothering you, girls, call him up on the telephone and ask him if he likes to go fishing. If he does, tell him to hold the line, hang up the receiver and let him fish!

Dan Sullivan a traveling tourist was put in the "cooler" Tuesday for imbibing to freely in the "flowing bowl" by Al Slaby and Wednesday he was brought before Judge Reed, who im-

We'll Tell Your Fortune Briefly

First, you're going on a long journey.
Then you'll be very happy--and you're going to have money left to you. You're a lucky Man.
Here's the way of it.
You're going on a long journey to this store.
You'll select your new Spring Outfit, and it will please you so well that you'll be very happy.
You'll buy for less than you thought and have money left; therefore you're a lucky Man.
That's your fortune--see that it comes true.

Cowden-Kaley Clothing Co.

ALWAYS RELIABLE
First Door North of Postoffice.

FULTON MARKET

FOR

Bargains in Groceries

A B C Goods Nothing better on the market. "Wyandotte Cleaner and Cleanser." Better than lye or soap. Cleans everything. FULTON MARKET, Damerall Bldg

City Bakery-Restaurant

WM. PATTEN, Prop. Red Cloud, Nebraska.
Having purchased the Herburger Bakery and Restaurant I solicit your patronage. We serve square meals at all times at 25 cents a meal. Farmers' trade a specialty. Board and room by day or week.

Swift's Premium Ham's and Bacon

Fresh Meats
Koon Bros.
Red Cloud, Nebraska.

Argabright

SELLS
Chickering Bros. A. B. Chase, Packard, Kimball, Price & Teeple, P. C. Weaver, Lauter, Bush & Lane, Mathushek & Son, Decker & Sons, Everett and the
AUTOPIANO
Standard Goods.

P I A N O S

With every 50c worth of Sunny Monday Soap you get a SOAP SHAVER at McFarland's. Good fresh goods all the time.

McFARLAND

The Grocer
All the Phones