Bulletin from the State Food, Dairy and Drug Commission.

The Nebraska pure food law makes it unlawful to sell bad eggs and provides a penalty of $10 to $100 for each offense.

Section 7, part sixth, defines food as adulterated, "if it consist in whole or in part of a filthy, decomposed or putrid animal or vegetable substance unfit for food," and that means bad eggs.

It is unlawful for the farmer to sell bad eggs to the merchant.

It is unlawful for the merchant to sell them to his patrons or to egg dealers. It is a violation of the national law to ship them or to state to another. The law was passed in the interest of honest dealing, and it is not honest to sell bad eggs for good money. It is reported that in some cases spoiled eggs have been taken from the incubator and marketed at the grocery store when the producer thought the buyer was too busy to examine them. It is the duty of this department to prosecute offenders whoever they may be no matter whether producer or dealer. The law is trying to protect not only the consumer who is entitled to get honest food for his money, but the honest producer and honest dealer who is entitled to have his dishonest competitors prosecuted and exposed through publicity.

Nebraska hens are producing 90,000,000 dozen eggs annually. These Nebraska eggs are worth three to five cents per dozen less than the highest market price in New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore on account of the low grade they take in these markets by reason of the dishonest and careless mixing of bad eggs with the good.

Five cents a dozen on 90,000,000 dozen eggs amounts to $4,500,000.

By reason of this careless and dishonest mixing of bad eggs with good, we lower the value of our annual output $4,500,000.

Does it pay?

The law is trying to force us as a community to bring our product up to the highest standard for our own good.

J. W. Johnson,

Deputy commissioner.

Omaha's Alfalfa Mill.

Announcement of the Omaha papers this week that the Oradell Dairy Farms Company of New Jersey, will build a large alfalfa meal mill in that city, which will use some twenty ears of raw material each week to start, is evidence to the growers of the alfalfa that new uses are being found for the crop: that the meal is a most practical food and its manufacture undoubtedly means a greater demand and better prices for alfalfa.

The location of the alfalfa meal mill in Omaha was secured by the Omaha Commercial club which is doing much to make it possible to manufacture in the west as well as produce. With the opening of this mill September 1st, Omaha will have two such plants, the other being the M. C. Peters Mill Co. They will use about forty earloads of alfalfa every week and as they develop the industry will doubtless use more than one hundred cars a week—three solid train loads.

Besides giving the growers a nearer market for high grade alfalfa, the factories located at Omaha will make it possible for those who desire to feed the meal, which is especially a food for dairy cows, will be enabled to secure it more promptly and cheaper than ever before as the freight rates from Omaha are much less than from the east. In locating the last factory in Omaha it was the understanding that nothing but the best Nebraska and Colorado alfalfa would be used.

Not Crowning.

Our ball team went up against the real stuff last Friday and Saturday in two games with the Bertrand nine and as a result our boys lost both games. However, their defeats has put ginger into them and while somewhat dismayed are by no means discouraged. The first game resulted in the following score:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9

Red Cloud stole 2 bases, struck out 5 men, gave one man base on balls. Bertrand struck out ten men, made one base hit, had three passed balls, hit one man with pitched ball. Batteries Clegg and Schoonover, J. Masters and S. Masters.

Saturday's game proved a stunner for our boys, the Bertrand bunch scoring over 8 to 0. Whew! That is the most severe defeat our boys have experienced this season. My, who would have thought it! That a little country nine should come down here and throw the hooks into our diamond dusters like that. However, the directions say, "take it." This is the score by innings:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9

(Oh, Jimmy!)

Bertrand stole 2 bases, made one double play, struck out five men, made one two-base hit, and hit two men with pitched ball. Red Cloud stole 2 bases, struck out 7 men, and received 2 bases on balls.

Both games were full of errors. Batteries Salene and Schoonover, Masters and Masters.

Do You Object to All Wars, Mr. Angell?

Oh, no. If the men who get up unnecessary wars would only fight all the battles themselves with no suffering to innocent human beings or dumb beasts, we would not raise the slightest objection. We should feel as the old lady did who, when her husband got into a fight with a bear, said she didn't care which whipped. We should feel more than that; for we regard these men as the enemies of mankind, the wolves of our (at present) half-civilized civilization.

Doubtless there may be (as the world now is) such a thing as a necessary war, but nine out of every ten wars are simply the work of men who more deserve to be confined in prisons than most of the convicts confined there.—Geo. T. Angell, in Our Dumb Animals.

What We Want.

We want millions of good men and women in all nations engaged constantly and vigorously every day in MAKING WAR AGAINST WAR.

We want whenever wars threaten that all Christian women of the world shall wear mourning (or some badge of mourning) until the danger is passed.

We want to go into all schools and teach all the children there that unnecessary wars are "hell on earth," and that those who bring them upon the nations are even greater criminals than pirates who commit murder on the ocean or highwaymen who commit murder on the land.

We want no armies except those needed for protection.

We want to substitute everywhere for the devil's music the music which will help hasten the dawning of peace on earth and good will not only to men but to all God's lower creatures.

We want to teach that the men who SAVE LIFE are the heroes—not those who destroy it.

We want all the great picture galleries of Europe to be stripped of those paintings which stir up international hatreds by commemorating the victories of one nation over another.

We want the "Arc de Triomphe" at Paris to become (with suitable adornments) the Arch of Peace.

Let a million Christian women of America, united in a great Anti-War League, go actively at work to stop war, and not a politician in America would dare to publicly oppose them.—Geo. T. Angell, in Our Dumb Animals.

We noticed in the want ads the other day, a woman wanting to marry a good, kind, handsome man with a farm, a loving disposition and a driving horse. No use, lady, we're married and besides we had no farm, and it is a well known fact that none of this sort is wandering around loose now. All snapped up long ago.

INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM CURED IN 3 DAYS

Morton L. Hill, of Lebanon Ind., says: "My wife had Inflammatory Rheumatism in every muscle and joint; her suffering was terrible and her body and face were swollen almost beyond recognition; had been in bed six weeks and had eight physicians, but received no benefit until she tried Dr. Detchon's Relief for Rheumatism.
