BRYAN ON PROHIBITION

Nebraskan Refuses to Discuss It as a National Question,

Lincoln, June 12.-Replying to the dispatch from Milwaukes concerning his attitude on the question of probi-Repair work a specialty button, Mr. Bryan said. "I have received many letters from Probabilionists and many from epponents of prohibition, and I have answered them all in the same way. I have told them that I did not regard the question as a national question. While it is an issue in a number of states, I do not expect it to be made an is no by elther the Republican or Democratic national conventions. In anywer to questions about my own record on the good than can come with a still these important organs. I'm supplement subject I have stated that so far as stronger organization was marked trouble is due to a diseased condition of my personal habits go, I am a texts taler, never having used liquor as a ing year will be an extreme effort to beverage, but in 1890 I voted against enlist all stockmen of the northwest the state prohibition amendment by cause I thought the license system we had, with local option, was better suited to the conditions we had to meet in oun state. When an attempt has been made to draw conclusions from this as to what eight to be done in other states, I have called attention to the fact that state laws ought to be made to meet the conditions existing in the state and that what I did in Nebraska could not be a guide in states where conditions were different. In other words, I have refused to give advice on the question in othinformed as to the conditions in the various states and I have refused to discuss it as a national question, because, as I have said, I do not expect it to be an issue in the campaign."

Captivating a Queen.

It was by his graceful execution of a dance that young Hation first captivated the heart of Queen Elizabeth. says Edward Scott in his book on 'Dancing In All Ages." He had been brought up to the law and entered court, as his enemy, Sir John Perrot. Indian named Thompson shot and used to say, "by the galllarde," as his first appearance there was on the oceawition. He had been accused of horse sion of a mark ball, and her majesty certing and an Indian policeman was was so struck by his good looks and after him with a warrant for his ar- netivity that she made him one of her rest. When they came together some band of pensioners, who were considered the handsomest men in P. botse being shot down by the police. It is said that he favors which the tured, the Indian put the revolver in favore, excited the Jealousy of the whole court, especially that of the Earl The Indian had served one term in the of Leicesser, who, thinking to depreciate the accomplishments of the young lawyer, offered to introduce to Elizabeth's notice a professional dancer whose saltatory performances were considered far more wonderful than Hatton's. To this suggestion, however, the royal lady, with more vehemence than elegance, exclaimed: "Pish! I will not see your man. It is his trade."

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, liscourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear

Kidney trouble has become so prevident that it is not oncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinate too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to contro! the house. The membership shows a de- passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the diffi-culty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose. Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-
