POSITIONS

The following is an extract from a letter from the Civil Service Commissioner:

GENTLEMEN—

You will be pleased to learn that expert operators of the Gammeter Multigraph are included in the classified branch of the Civil Service.

The first examination to secure eligibles from which to fill positions in the Post Office Department and Geological Survey will be held January 9, 1909, under the conditions as outlined in the attached facsimile of notice sent out by the Civil Service Commission. Gammeter Multigraphs will be supplied by the Company free of charge, at the places of examination named in the circular.

Now then, young men and young women, you say that you would like to have one of these positions but you are not able to get it—BUT YOU CAN!

Here is what we are going to do for you:

To every young man and young woman who takes a scholarship in either the Shorthand or Commercial Department we will give a four weeks course in the Multigraph Department and wait till you complete the course and get a position before you pay.

Isn't this fair? Let us hear from you at once.

This offer will be open till January 15, 1909.

Address To Women Friday.
Evangelist Miller will give an address to women and girls Friday afternoon, January, first, on the subject "Three great questions touching the home." Mr. Miller has been requested in other places to repeat this talk, for the second time, that all might hear it. It is a beautiful message to the gentler sex. Don't miss hearing it. This meeting will be preparatory to the meeting for men Sunday. Let every woman and girl rally to this great meeting Friday afternoon. Don't be late, come early.

Mass Meeting for Men.
At the Congregational church next Sunday afternoon, Evangelist Frank A. Miller, of Lincoln will speak to men only on "Three Fatal Steps." It is a great message, judging from reports of the papers in places where it has been given. "The best address to men we ever heard." The most telling talk to men ever heard in our city. "It was a powerful address." Mr. Miller will sing "The Bird with a Broken Wing." Miss Graves will sing at the opening service at 3 p. m. sharp. Turn out and come early.
