

Simplicity

What it means
In a fountain pen

The successful operation of any self-filling fountain pen depends wholly upon its simplicity. The more complicated its construction and operation, the more liable it is to break or get out of order.

CONKLIN'S Self-Filling Fountain Pen

It is simple, absolutely so. No plunger, cap or leather washers to wear out. No popping, no rattling, such as to give you a headache. It is the only fountain pen that will not clog. It is the only fountain pen that will not leak. It is the only fountain pen that will not stop. It is the only fountain pen that will not break. It is the only fountain pen that will not get out of order.

Cloyd U. Cummings

departed this life at the home of his mother Mrs. A. Cummings Oct. 11, 1909, aged 37 years, 11 months and 22 days. He was born in Pennsylvania Oct. 22, 1871, but spent many years as a boy and workman in and near Red Cloud. His disposition was firm, steady, friendly and his language always drew him much sympathy and kindly attention. He found great comfort in the world and his "rest" was in his home. His calling was that of a carpenter for many years and he was a member of the Congregational church of this city. He was a member of the church of Christ, Tributes of respect and sympathy were shown by a profession of our flowers. His mother, brothers John and Irving and two sisters, Mrs. Wm. Hunt of this city and Mrs. Carl Jenkins of Beatrice are bereaved by his death.

Mrs. Sarah R. Brubaker.

Mrs. Sarah R. Brubaker, born in Randolph county, N. C., May 17, 1829, died in Red Cloud, Neb., Oct. 11, 1909, aged 79 years, 11 months and 22 days. She was a member of the Congregational church of this city. She was a member of the church of Christ, Tributes of respect and sympathy were shown by a profession of our flowers. Her mother, brothers John and Irving and two sisters, Mrs. Wm. Hunt of this city and Mrs. Carl Jenkins of Beatrice are bereaved by her death.

At Madison, Boone county, Iowa, Mrs. Faxon was married to Joshua Brubaker June 8, 1829. By this union five children were born Charles F., Joe B., Thomas L., Harry K. and Ethel L. Six of the children living at time of her death, five being with her. She was a member of the M. E. church. The funeral took place Sunday, Rev. James Steely preached the funeral sermon and interment was made in the Pleasant Hill cemetery.

Card of Thanks

We thank our friends for helping care for our wife, mother and sister, during her sickness and death.—Joshua Brubaker and children and Mrs. Maris Jackson.

J. M. BURGESS.

The Doctor's Question Some Advice Against the Use of Harsh Purgatives and Physics.

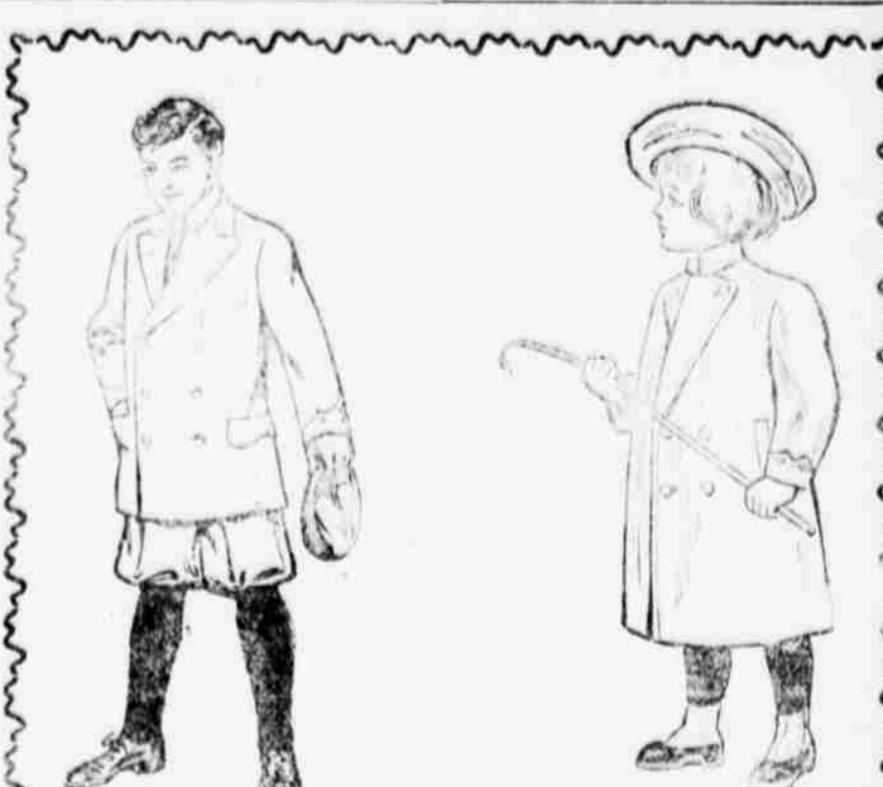

A doctor's first question when consulted by a patient is, "Are your bowels regular?" He knows that 98 per cent of illness is attended with inactive bowels and rapid fever. This condition poisons the system with waste matter and causes accumulation of poisons which must be removed through the bowels before health can be restored.

Such ordinary pills and cathartics may be truly likened to dynamite. Through their harsh, irritating action they force a passage through the bowels, causing pain and damage to the delicate intestinal structure which weakens the whole system, and at best only produces temporary relief. The repeated use of such treatments causes chronic irritation of the stomach and bowels, dries and hardens their tissues, deadens their nerves, stiffens their muscles and generally brings about an injurious habit which sometimes has almost, if not fatal results.

We have a pleasant and safe remedy for constipation and bowel disorders in general. We are so certain of its great curative value that we promise to return the purchaser's money in every case where it fails to produce entire satisfaction. This remedy is called Rexall Orderlies. We urge you to try them at our entire risk.

Rexall Orderlies are eaten like candy, they act quietly and have a soothing, strengthening, healing, regulative influence on the entire intestinal tract. They do not purge, gripe, cause nausea, flatulence, excessive looseness, diarrhoea or other annoying effects, and they may be taken at any time without inconvenience.

Rexall Orderlies overcome the drugging habit and safely remedy constipation and associate ailments, whether acute or chronic, except in surgical cases. They are especially good for children, weak persons or old folks. Price, 36 tablets 25 cents, and 12 tablets 10 cents. Remember you can obtain Rexall Remedies in Red Cloud only at our store.—The Rexall Store, H. E. Grice Drug Co.
