

NEWS NOTES CONDENSED

A Boiling Down of the More Important Events Here and There

Foreign.

The Korean patriotic league has issued a circular expressing satisfaction at the assassination of Prince Ito.

At Santiago, Chile, a great demonstration was held in memory of General Jose de San Martin.

A scene of great disorder was caused at St. Petersburg, Russia, by the socialist interpellation in the duma.

Nicholas, emperor of all the Russias, made a triumphant entry into Italy.

At Czenstochowa, Russian Poland during the night robbers entered the chapel of the Pauline convent.

General.

Japan will thoroughly probe the plot leading to the assassination of her leading statesman.

William J. Engel of Butte, Neb., according to Judge Witten, forfeited his right to the prize farm at Aberdeen.

The government will appeal from the ruling of Judge Hoyt, at New York, in the sugar cases.

Prince Ito, assassinated by Koreans, was regarded as the leading statesman of Japan.

Half a million dollars in Indian funds is involved in a treasury department decision.

The vacancy left by the death of E. H. Harriman in the directorate of the Delaware & Hudson company was filled by the election of former Judge Robert S. Lovett.

Premier Asquith announced in the house of commons that on November 5 he would move for the rejection entirely of the house of lords amendments to the Irish land bill.

Leroy Foster, a young rural mail carrier of Clay Center, Neb., shot and killed Inez Cox, a stenographer, and committed suicide.

Congressman Fowler has sent a challenge to Senator Aldrich to debate the central bank question.

There was an enormous comparative increase in exports during the month of September.

Ex-President Roosevelt is going into the man eating lion country.

Both France and the United States are anxious to avoid anything in the way of tariff war.

The Burlington has announced its intention of building an additional extension in Wyoming to run as far east as the Powder river and to form a connection with the Northwestern.

William H. Gallinger, 39 years old, a son of United States Senator Gallinger of New Hampshire, died of heart failure in New York at the home of his cousin, Mrs. Adelaide E. Johnston.

Dr. Frederick A. Cook, who lectured at St. Paul, announced that Prof. L. L. Dyche of the University of Kansas has been definitely decided upon as one of the members of his forthcoming Mount McKinley expedition.

The department of commerce and labor telegraphed to Los Angeles, Cal., authority for the release on bail of Gutierrez de Lara, who was arrested as an anarchist and an alien, who entered this country without inspection.

At midnight June 16 the 15,000 electric light of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition were put out, closing the World's fair of 1909.

Mrs. Theodora Benner, daughter of former United States Senator Van Wyck of Nebraska, has filed a petition in district court seeking a divorce.

There is likely to be a wholesale release of supposed lepers on an island of the Hawaiian group.

Charles F. Murphy and the entire executive committee of Tammany attended the funeral of Senator Patrick H. McCarren in Brooklyn.

Co-operation of governors of all states and territories in a nation-wide campaign for safe and sane celebration of Independence day in every hamlet, town and city throughout the country is the object of a movement now inaugurated at Washington.

Seven persons and possibly more were killed in a wreck on the Pan-Handle division of the Pennsylvania railroad near Collinsville, O., in a collision.

"Pat" McCarren of Brooklyn, N. Y., a prominent democratic politician, died from a surgical operation.

Modern Greece is apparently in danger from the rapid emigration to the United States on the part of the young men.

Rev. Frederick H. Ward, pastor of the Baptist church at Freewater, Ore., pleaded guilty of bigamy and was sentenced to five years in the Washington penitentiary.

The Prince and Princess Kuni of Japan have communicated through Mr. Matsui, the Japanese charge d'affaires, their thanks to the American people for the generous hospitality which they received while in this country to attend the Hudson-Fulton celebration in New York.

By the terms of the will of the late Dr. Levy I. Shoemaker of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., which was filed for probate, Yale university is given more than $500,000, to be used in the medical department of the institution.

Sweeping regulations designed to both facilitate importations of all hides of meat cattle and to safeguard native live stock by requiring certificates of disinfection signed by American consuls have been issued by the treasury to customs officers.

The real name of Francis Schlatter, who died recently at Hastings, Neb., was stated by David McNaughton of Chicago to be Charles McLean. McNaughton has known the alleged healer for thirty-five years.

Enraged because his chorus girl wife preferred a life on the stage to his companionship, William H. Short of New York City shot and perhaps fatally wounded her on the west porch of the Union station in Washington.

President Osborn, of Des Moines college announced that the gifts toward the $100,000 endowment for Des Moines college have reached $80,000.

Henry Charles Lea, widely known as author, banker, scientist and publisher, died in Philadelphia aged 48 years.

Dr. Maurice C. Stack, for thirty-three years assistant superintendent of the government hospital for the insane died in Washington Sunday night of cancer of the throat.

Washington.

Information has reached the state department that the celebrated Alsop claim against Chile, involving valuable guano deposits and silver mines, is in a fair way of settlement.

Orders were issued by the postoffice department to all postmasters, railway mail clerks and other postal employees to keep a sharp lookout for mail matter from or addressed to the Cuban national lottery.

The announcement of the death of Justice Peckham, while expected, came as a shock to his associates on the bench and in official circles, and everywhere expressions of regret were heard.

Premier Asquith announced in the house of commons that on November 5 he would move for the rejection entirely of the house of lords amendments to the Irish land bill.

Leroy Foster, a young rural mail carrier of Clay Center, Neb., shot and killed Inez Cox, a stenographer, and committed suicide.

Congressman Fowler has sent a challenge to Senator Aldrich to debate the central bank question.

There was an enormous comparative increase in exports during the month of September.

Ex-President Roosevelt is going into the man eating lion country.

Both France and the United States are anxious to avoid anything in the way of tariff war.

The Burlington has announced its intention of building an additional extension in Wyoming to run as far east as the Powder river and to form a connection with the Northwestern.

William H. Gallinger, 39 years old, a son of United States Senator Gallinger of New Hampshire, died of heart failure in New York at the home of his cousin, Mrs. Adelaide E. Johnston.

Dr. Frederick A. Cook, who lectured at St. Paul, announced that Prof. L. L. Dyche of the University of Kansas has been definitely decided upon as one of the members of his forthcoming Mount McKinley expedition.

The department of commerce and labor telegraphed to Los Angeles, Cal., authority for the release on bail of Gutierrez de Lara, who was arrested as an anarchist and an alien, who entered this country without inspection.

At midnight June 16 the 15,000 electric light of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition were put out, closing the World's fair of 1909.

Mrs. Theodora Benner, daughter of former United States Senator Van Wyck of Nebraska, has filed a petition in district court seeking a divorce.

There is likely to be a wholesale release of supposed lepers on an island of the Hawaiian group.

Charles F. Murphy and the entire executive committee of Tammany attended the funeral of Senator Patrick H. McCarren in Brooklyn.

FARMER INSTITUTES

TIME AND PLACE OF MANY WINTER TIME MEETINGS.

THE BOYS' AND GIRLS' CONTESTS

Week Long Agricultural Schools Have Been Dated for Half Dozen

Nebraska Farming Centers.

The following dates for regular farmers' institutes have been fixed for the fall of 1909 and the winter of 1910 by Val Keyser, superintendent of that department of the Nebraska university college of agriculture.

By the terms of the will of the late Dr. Levy I. Shoemaker of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., which was filed for probate, Yale university is given more than $500,000, to be used in the medical department of the institution.

Sweeping regulations designed to both facilitate importations of all hides of meat cattle and to safeguard native live stock by requiring certificates of disinfection signed by American consuls have been issued by the treasury to customs officers.

The real name of Francis Schlatter, who died recently at Hastings, Neb., was stated by David McNaughton of Chicago to be Charles McLean. McNaughton has known the alleged healer for thirty-five years.

Enraged because his chorus girl wife preferred a life on the stage to his companionship, William H. Short of New York City shot and perhaps fatally wounded her on the west porch of the Union station in Washington.

President Osborn, of Des Moines college announced that the gifts toward the $100,000 endowment for Des Moines college have reached $80,000.

Henry Charles Lea, widely known as author, banker, scientist and publisher, died in Philadelphia aged 48 years.

Dr. Maurice C. Stack, for thirty-three years assistant superintendent of the government hospital for the insane died in Washington Sunday night of cancer of the throat.

Information has reached the state department that the celebrated Alsop claim against Chile, involving valuable guano deposits and silver mines, is in a fair way of settlement.

Orders were issued by the postoffice department to all postmasters, railway mail clerks and other postal employees to keep a sharp lookout for mail matter from or addressed to the Cuban national lottery.

The announcement of the death of Justice Peckham, while expected, came as a shock to his associates on the bench and in official circles, and everywhere expressions of regret were heard.

Premier Asquith announced in the house of commons that on November 5 he would move for the rejection entirely of the house of lords amendments to the Irish land bill.

Leroy Foster, a young rural mail carrier of Clay Center, Neb., shot and killed Inez Cox, a stenographer, and committed suicide.

Congressman Fowler has sent a challenge to Senator Aldrich to debate the central bank question.

There was an enormous comparative increase in exports during the month of September.

Ex-President Roosevelt is going into the man eating lion country.

Both France and the United States are anxious to avoid anything in the way of tariff war.

The Burlington has announced its intention of building an additional extension in Wyoming to run as far east as the Powder river and to form a connection with the Northwestern.

William H. Gallinger, 39 years old, a son of United States Senator Gallinger of New Hampshire, died of heart failure in New York at the home of his cousin, Mrs. Adelaide E. Johnston.

Dr. Frederick A. Cook, who lectured at St. Paul, announced that Prof. L. L. Dyche of the University of Kansas has been definitely decided upon as one of the members of his forthcoming Mount McKinley expedition.

The department of commerce and labor telegraphed to Los Angeles, Cal., authority for the release on bail of Gutierrez de Lara, who was arrested as an anarchist and an alien, who entered this country without inspection.

At midnight June 16 the 15,000 electric light of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition were put out, closing the World's fair of 1909.

Mrs. Theodora Benner, daughter of former United States Senator Van Wyck of Nebraska, has filed a petition in district court seeking a divorce.

There is likely to be a wholesale release of supposed lepers on an island of the Hawaiian group.

Charles F. Murphy and the entire executive committee of Tammany attended the funeral of Senator Patrick H. McCarren in Brooklyn.

Newman Grove, Wednesday and Thursday, January 26-27.

Humphrey, Thursday and Friday, January 27-28.

Madison, Friday and Saturday, January 28-29.

Auburn, Monday and Tuesday, January 29-30.

Brock, Tuesday and Wednesday, January 30-31.

Dunbar, Wednesday and Thursday, January 31-February 1.

Sioux Falls, Thursday and Friday, February 1-2.

Orchard, Monday and Tuesday, January 31 and February 1.

Omaha, Tuesday and Wednesday, February 1-2.

Laurel, Wednesday and Thursday, February 2-3.

St. Joseph, Thursday and Friday, February 3-4.

Dakota City, Friday and Saturday, February 4-5.

Oakland, Monday and Tuesday, January 31 and February 1.

Papillion, Tuesday and Wednesday, February 1-2.

Valley, Wednesday and Thursday, February 2-3.

Arlington, Thursday and Friday, February 3-4.

Cedar Bluffs, Friday and Saturday, February 4-5.

Waverly, Saturday, February 5.

Union Hall, Thursday and Friday, February 3-4.

Miller, Friday and Saturday, February 4-5.

Arapahoe, Wednesday and Thursday, February 9-10.

Hartington, Friday and Saturday, February 10-11.

Minden, Friday and Saturday, February 11-12.

St. Paul, Friday and Saturday, February 11-12.

Ypselon, Monday and Tuesday, February 14-15.

Greenwood, Tuesday and Wednesday, February 15-16.

McCool Junction, Wednesday and Thursday, February 16-17.

Milligan, Thursday and Friday, February 17-18.

Crete, Friday and Saturday, February 17-18.

Eagle, Wednesday, February 16.

Weeping Water, Thursday and Friday, February 17-18.

Sturtevant, Friday and Saturday, February 18-19.

Ogallala, Tuesday and Wednesday, February 15-16.

Paxton, Wednesday and Thursday, February 16-17.

Sutherland, Thursday and Friday, February 17-18.

TWO VACANT CHAIRS

MONDAY MARKS RETIREMENT OF WASHINGTON MEN.

M'HARG AND REYNOLDS TO QUIT

Man from the Middle West Favored by Secretary Nagel as His Chief

Assistant—Treat Gives Way to Lee G. McClung.

Washington.—Important changes in officers and a new swing in the administrative work of the treasury occurred Monday. Two acting secretaries stepped out of office, one into private life and the other to other official duties.

With the departure of Ormsby McHarg, assistant secretary of commerce for New York, Solicitor Earl of that department becomes acting secretary. Mr. McHarg has been acting secretary for a goodly portion of the past few months in the absence of Secretary Nagel.

The new tariff board began its work Monday, although the members of the board have held several meetings. Mr. Reynolds' retirement as assistant secretary of the treasury became effective Monday.

The commercial agreement with France, under which reciprocal law rates on imports prevailed, expired at midnight Sunday and Monday the full rates under the new tariff law will apply on all imports from France.

The change in the office of United States treasurer took effect Sunday. Lee C. McClung, one conspicuous as a college gridiron hero, taking the oath of office as successor of Charles H. Treat.

Mr. Treat leaves behind him a number of reforms. Probably his most radical change was the formation of a committee composed of the chiefs of the various treasury divisions.

This "committee of the treasury's cabinet" met every Tuesday. Through the cabinet Mr. Treat managed to do away with a great amount of duplication. During the formative period of the Payne tariff bill Mr. Treat was called upon for expert advice by members of both houses of congress.

Strong efforts were made to have Mr. Treat retained. Hundreds of letters are on file in the department asking his retention.

A. Platt Andrew, who recently returned from Europe with Chairman Aldrich of the senate finance committee and the monetary commission, took the oath of office as director of the mint Monday.

Automobile Wreck Fatal.

Cedar Rapids, Ia.—An automobile containing seven people was wrecked ten miles west of this city Sunday afternoon. One person was killed, two seriously injured, and two slightly hurt.

Auto Struck by Train.

New York.—William T. Terwilliger and Robert Welch, real estate dealers of Brooklyn, were instantly killed, and Gilbert Rhodes a law student of Milton, N. J., was probably fatally injured when the auto in which they were riding was struck by a Long Island passenger train at Lynbrook, L. I., Sunday.

Saves Life of the Baby.

Philadelphia, Penn.—After Mrs. May Schneider had committed suicide by drinking carbolic acid a healthy baby girl was born in the bed where the woman had been taken.

NEBRASKA HAPPENINGS.

State News and Notes in Condensed Form.

A large skating rink under a tent is now running in full sway in Crete.

At a special election held at Kenesaw the water bonds carried by overwhelming majority.

Daniel Behringer has sold his 240-acre farm southeast of Tecumseh to Thomas C. Boylan of Riverton, Ia., for $30,000, or $125 per acre.

Mrs. L. D. Bosserman of Beatrice has an orange tree which has been yielding fruit for the last few seasons.

The tree at the present time has four green oranges and a number of blossoms.

Rev. Jesse Burkhardt of Sioux Falls, S. D., has been unanimously called to the pastorate of the Congregational church at West Point, made vacant by the death of Rev. G. W. Crofts, D. D. Rev. Mr. Burkhardt has accepted the call.

Cornhusking is progressing rapidly in Cuming county and the yield is an average one. Farmers are experiencing great difficulty in obtaining competent help.

Herman Brothers of Lincoln are laying plans for starting an overall factory in Crete. They have rented a large brick building, put in modern machinery to carry on their work.

The annual convocation of the diocese of Nebraska, for the Episcopal church, will be held in Wymore November 16 to 19.

Rose Lange, aged 23, attempted suicide at a Fremont hotel by swallowing poison, but her life was saved by the prompt arrival of physicians.

The girl registered at the hotel, giving her home at West Point, Neb.

The Hastings Order of Elks have announced their intention of turning over the club rooms to the wives, sisters and daughters of members.

Each Thursday evening an informal dance will be given in the club rooms.

Postmaster S. D. Cole of Wymore has been informed that punch mail service will be installed by the government on the new trains Nos. 84 and 85, to be installed by the Burlington between Wymore and Lincoln October 31.

This will get eastern mail into Wymore several hours earlier than is now possible.

The new street lighting system has just been completed and Fremont is now without doubt the best lighted city of its size in the state.

There are now seventy-five arcs and 300 sixty-candle power tungsten lamps used for street lighting purposes, there being one light on practically every corner in the city's limits.

Prof. Theodore Rudolph Beeze has been secured as musical director for the National Saengerfest to be held in Omaha July 24 to 24, 1910, but will move to that city about the middle of November.

Ben S. Pindar, one of the pioneer settlers of Otoe county, died at his home in South Branch precinct Tuesday. He was eighty-two years of age and leaves a son and two daughters.

He was among the first settlers in the southwestern portion of the county and has been the assessor of that precinct almost since the county was laid out. The funeral was held Wednesday.

John, the fifteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Clarey, living three miles east of Fairbury, was accidentally shot through the palm of the left hand while preparing to go hunting Wednesday afternoon.

He had hold of the barrel of the rifle and went into the pantry to get some shells, not knowing the gun was loaded, when it was accidentally discharged.

Surveyors have started work on laying out the line for the new railroad which will run from Beloit, Kan., to Kearney, Neb. The survey has been begun from the Beloit end of the line.

The road, which will be called the Dakota, Kansas & Gulf railroad, will run in a direction southeast from Kearney, and will cross the Republican valley at Franklin. In length it will be about 120 miles, and it will connect the Union Pacific systems, Nebraska and Kansas lines. Several years ago the road was first started, and was built up to Beloit, fifty-seven miles having been constructed.

Carson Hildreth, the well-known Franklin banker, is much interested in the new road and has been appointed manager of the Nebraska end of the company during the preliminary construction period.

Mr. Hildreth is positive the road will be built. It is understood that the preliminary survey in Nebraska will be made in a short time.

J. H. Penner, Rev. Gerhard Penner, Herman Wiebe, William Hamm and Henry Albrecht left Sunday for Hutchinson, Kas., where they will represent the Beatrice conference, which convenes at that place this evening.