SCHOOL NOTES

(BY WHISPERING SMITH)
Miss Lois Simmons spent Saturday and Sunday in Franklin, where she attended the Academy last year.

Gertrude Osborne, one of the little Kindergarten pupils, had her fingers badly mashed in a door Monday. Dr. Raines was called to dress the wound.

The Juniors and Seniors may be distinguished from each other, now-a-days, by the small caps worn on the back of their heads. The Senior's caps are "blue and buff," and the Junior's "navy blue and old gold."

The School Board has decided that each High School student shall be required to give a certain number of rhetorical during the school year, so a Literary Society has been organized and programs will be given in the evening at the High School, which has been lighted with electric lights for that purpose. These programs will not be entertainments for the public, but will be a means of teaching the pupils to speak in public, which all will undoubtedly have to do sometime in their lives. This plan is a good one and should be encouraged by all the students.

A pretty wedding took place at the home of John Turner yesterday at one o'clock. The contracting parties being Miss Nellie Turner and Mr. Chas. A. Harris son of Mrs. Maria Harris.

The mystic tie was deftly made by Rev. G. W. Hummel past master in the art of establishing families.

Merchants' Parcel Delivery.
The merchants of this city have entered into a contract with Mr. L. M. Crabill whereby he is to make all deliveries for all the stores. The delivery teams will leave Fourth Avenue and will go both north and south at 8:30 and 10:30 in the morning and 2:30 and 4:30 in the afternoon.
Mr. Crabill's well known reputation for promptness will insure this new undertaking a success from the start. Customers will be absolutely assured that their orders will be filled promptly.

This we believe will work to the advantage of both merchant and customer since there will always be enough goods to deliver to warrant the teams leaving at the time specified.
Customers must arrange their orders to conform with the time of delivery.
This departure from the ordinary will be in operation Dec. 1st and we are confident that it will meet with popular approval.

All our theatre goers will undoubtedly be delighted to be enabled to witness that most genial and novel of all comedy creations Wm. Wamsher's "The Belle of Japan" when it appears at the Opera House, on Thursday, Nov. 18. This is H. Grattan Donnelly's, the well known American author's masterpiece, it is full of surprises and pleasing features that it is the talk of the town where ever played, and capacity houses are the natural result. Miss Mento Everett appears as "Titi," the Belle of Japan, and it is around this character the author has woven a story of more than ordinary interest, using types of characters that are familiar to the present Japan, mingled with American and English visitors at Yokohama, with which to build up one of the strongest and positively one of the most novel comedy dramas ever written. Beautiful scenery and correct costumes are used being taken from authentic plates and at a fabulous cost. Many musical and dancing numbers are introduced during the action of the play which being a good pure and wholesome comedy drives the blues away and makes one better for having seen it. Tickets on sale at Henry Cook's.
