

APPENDICITIS

Cured Without Operation. Here is Sworn Proof:

STATE OF MINNESOTA,
COUNTY OF STEELE.

I, Richard Jahreiss, of Owatonna, Minn., being first duly sworn, do say that I am the person named in and who subscribed the following statement and the same is true of my own knowledge, in every particular: "I had severe pains in my right side, just above the navel. I went to the doctor and he pronounced my case as appendicitis and advised an operation. Instead I went to Ziegler's Drug Store and bought a bottle of (Adler-i-ka) Tablets. After taking it the result was indeed wonderful. The pains stopped and I felt like a new man. I heartily recommend (Adler-i-ka) Tablets to anyone troubled with Appendicitis, as I know it has cured me."

(Signed) RICHARD J. JAHREISS,
Subscribed and sworn to before me June 29, 1905.
J. NEWSALT, Notary Public, Steele County.

Appendicitis is a dangerous and serious disease, and everyone should know of this wonderfully successful treatment. As there is no showing many pictures of that disease and its known organ, the human appendix, how it is caused, how it can be treated without operation, and how you can easily guard yourself against it, will be given FREE to anyone calling at our store.

The student body greatly enjoyed the address given by Mr. L. P. Albright a week ago Wednesday upon the subject Reflections. Mr. Albright has a most pleasing easy delivery and charmed us all with his forceful and terse expressions. He compared the school of today with the school of his boy hood and pointed out that we are under obligation to the efforts of the past for our excellent equipment and drew from that that we in turn owe the future our best thoughts and efforts. We trust that he was as well pleased to see us as we were to listen to him.

That "Monte Cristo" still holds its own and sways its old fascination over the theatre going public is proven by the remarkable success of Wm. H. Lemle as Edmund Dantes in Fred G. Conrad's production of this play. Mr. Lemle is now in his third season appearing in that part and bids fair to rival Mr. Chas. Fischer and James O'Neil in reputation as Dantes' romantic hero. Mr. Lemle will appear at the Opera House, Red Cloud, Neb., on Jan. 24, 1910.

I have a well improved farm 3 miles from Red Cloud, with good improvements which cost over $5,000.00 and were only put on last year. This place can be bought at a bargain if bought soon, one half cash and the balance on time.

That Mr. Lemle is an artist, no one can deny who has witnessed his remarkable impersonation of Edmund Dantes in Eugene Moore's version of Alexandre Dumas' novel "Monte Cristo." That Mr. Lemle possesses all the gifts requisite for a great actor is evident, the moment he steps on the stage as Edmund Dantes, his youth, grace, virility and dramatic intensity shine forth with a vividness that is exhilarating and fascinating. That he enjoys playing the part one can see at a glance, that he is interested in his work you know immediately by his conscientious and artistic work. Mr. Lemle is bound to reach one of the high places in his profession. Mr. Fred G. Conrad will present Mr. Lemle here in "Monte Cristo" at the Opera House on Jan. 24, at Red Cloud, Neb.

THEATRE TALK NO. 2

It pays to wait after all, for the good comes in time, even in the drama, bringing a splendid recompense for some of the "cheats" you have had.

"Monte Cristo" which comes to town pretty soon is a play that can be seen again and again by those who have souls to feel the spell of real romantic drama. IT RANKS AS ONE OF THE GREATEST DRAMATIC TRIUMPHS OF THEATRICAL HISTORY, both artistically and financially. It has had phenomenal success throughout the entire world and will live in the annals of the stage as one of the highest examples of dramatic literature. HOWEVER MERITORIOUS A PLAY WITHOUT AN INTELLIGENT CAST, an artistic and effective production is impossible. No pains or expense has been spared to get the best. Young, bright, intelligent, resourceful actors have been selected in each instance, with express reference to adaptability to the parts assigned them.

Real Romantic Drama

THE POWERFUL
REVIVAL OF THE
MELO-DRAMA
MONTA CRISTO

THREE!

The American people are broad gauged and liberal minded. They are ready to hear any remarks, listen to any song, read any book, see any play, try anything new, and they pass their verdict promptly and infallibly. ANYTHING THAT BECOMES POPULAR IS GOOD, AND NOTHING CAN BECOME POPULAR THAT IS NOT GOOD. The people never make a mistake. Newspaper advertisements will induce the reader to try anything that's advertised—once. DON'T BE THE BEST. A shining example of this principle is that of the romantic play, "Monte Cristo" which will be presented in this city soon. This play has been produced season after season for seventy years. IT MUST BE MERITORIOUS DON'T YOU THINK? USUAL PRICES WILL PREVAIL.
