The Webster County Argus has moved from its old location under the bank to the new quarters recently provided. The new building is especially arranged for a printing establishment and we congratulate the owners. Another evidence that our town is growing.

It is reported that recently in a freight wreck there were three carloads of peanut shells consigned to a breakfast food concern. Now we always presumed that the principal ingredient of a first-class breakfast food was sawdust but this revelation simply shows how foolish it is to jump at conclusions.

Meanwhile the creamery situation remains unchanged. We ship the cream and import the butter and pay for the hauling both ways. It might pay to employ the service of a municipal expert and have him tell us a few things which we know already. This plan is being successfully pursued elsewhere and we ought to lose no time in getting what is good for us.

We are pleased to note that Miss Irene Hall has been elected to the faculty of the Franklin Academy. Miss Hall is an old acquaintance of the editor and is a lady of good education and fine personal qualities. We know personally of several responsible positions she has held successfully where the patrons of the school were more than pleased with her work.—Franklin News.

A cordial welcome is extended to all outsiders who have energy, vim and vigor. To such the City of Red Cloud extends an earnest invitation. Would you build a shop or factory come to Red Cloud, would you help to make us bigger and better come to Red Cloud, should you believe in progress make this your home, should you desire an excellent education for your children come to Red Cloud. The door is open come and look the situation over and cast your lot with us. Welcome to our city.

We heartily endorse the suggestion made by the Argus last week in regard to furnishing the court house park with chairs and settees. A seat in the park is always inviting and while you rid yourself of an extra chair for which you have no use you render a kindly service to unknown people. Another use of these seats would be for the holding of united services of all the churches during Sunday evenings of the summer months. We hope that the churches will make arrangements for union services in the court house park from now on so that more of us can attend without being uncomfortable.

Read the report of city expenditures found elsewhere in this issue. Read all the reports of the city, district and county and keep posted on what is being done. We are going to considerable trouble to get these items for you that you may be able to form your own conclusions and act intelligently whenever occasion demands. The trouble is with the most of us that we hear some story on the street and without knowing or investigating we swallow the dose only to find that we have been misinformed. A good way would be to keep these reports on file so that they would be easily accessible whenever wanted. The more interest we show in our own affairs the more we will be able to aid our officers in solving the problems as they come up.

Now that the layman are getting busy and forming brotherhoods in all the churches of the city we trust that they will get down to business and adopt some of the principles of the business world. It has been demonstrated that you cannot build up a profitable business by running your competitor down, that every knock you give him a boost and that you have enough to do to see that your own establishment is run entirely for the service of your customers. Outsiders have but little use for a religion that reaches no farther than the walls of a particular church. We have noticed that when one denomination is making a special effort the other denominations manifest but little interest and one wonders if it is because of jealousy or indifference. All are confessedly working for the same end then why not aid and not hinder?

Widow's Pension.

The recent act of April 19th, 1908 gives to all soldiers' widows a pension of $12 per month. Fred Maurer, the attorney, has all necessary blanks.

WEDDING BELLS

Weesner Perry

Married at the Congregational Parsonage on Tuesday evening, June 14, 1910 by the Rev. A. A. Cressman. Mr. B. F. Perry to Miss Lora B. Weesner. Mr. Perry is clerk and manager of the dry goods department in Mr. M. A. Albright's store. Miss Weesner was one of Webster County's successful teachers. They will live in Mr. Tait's new house north of the Argus office. These young people start out in life with bright prospects and with the best wishes of their many friends.

One of Our Most Popular Young Ladies at the Marriage Altar.

This morning at the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Cook, well known and respected citizens of our city, occurred the marriage of their daughter, Ella to Mr. Karl L. Patnek of Omaha, Nebraska.

Rev. Bates spoke the words which united the two hearts for the remainder of life's journey.

The bride is one of our choicest young ladies. From a little girl she has grown up in our midst, honored by old and young alike. She has ever been a bright star in the home circle and now she has gone to reign as queen of her own home. The groom is almost a stranger to us but, judging from what the bride is worthy of, no better man walks the face of the earth. Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom were escorted to the depot by many friends, rice, old shoes and good wishes. They took 10 and left this morning for an extended honeymoon trip after which they make their home in Omaha where Mr. Patnek has a lucrative business. The Chief, along with a long list of life long friends, extends hearty congratulations and best wishes.

Isom-Mathews

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Isom, Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock was solemnized the marriage of their daughter, Carrie to Acey Mathews.

At the appointed hour the couple attended by Orris Matkins and Frances Nesbet, and little Dorothy Ellinger as ring bearer which was carried in the center of an Easter Lilly, took their places under a marriage bell of pink roses to the strains of Mendelssohn, a wedding march played by Miss Irene Miner.

Rev. Hummel pronounced the ceremony in a most beautiful, impressive manner. At the close of the ceremony congratulations were extended; after which an elegant three course supper was served on small tables.

A fine array of presents attest the esteem in which the young folks are held and will serve as a life long mementoes.

The bride was gowned in a white French Mull daintily made, and she never appeared to better advantage. She carried a large armful of pink and white carnations. The color scheme was pink and white throughout the house. Carnations being the flower used.

She is a young lady of many graces of mind and person, who is capable of filling the home she will adorn with happiness and will prove to be truly a helpmate and companion by the husband she has chosen to honor with her hand.

The groom is from one of our best families, and by those who know him in this city, he is considered one of the substantial and coming young men of the community. The congratulations on the happy event are numerous and this paper is greatly pleased on this occasion to add its hearty good wishes to those being so freely extended.

In order that those living out of town may have an opportunity to see the moving pictures the management has arranged for Saturday afternoon performances, commencing with next Saturday at 2 p. m. sharp.

"Children's Day" with the Christian church is an annual festival of delight and spiritual uplift. The children of the Bible school, which is superintended by Mr. Trace J. Sherer were engaged this year in a delightful program of appropriate exercises under the leadership of the Misses Ruth Johnston, Pearl Smith and Elsie Miksch. The children under their tactful direction rendered their program in a most commendable manner before an audience that filled the church to the doors on Sunday night June 12. The offering, which always goes to assist in "vangelizing the world with the gospel" was very liberal. The Christian church always does its work well.
