Vencil Zajic had the misfortune to have his house and everything in it burned to the ground during the storm Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Zajic went to the cave and didn't know that their house was on fire until they came up and found their house burned to the ground. As you move through life let your influence be felt and your voice raised in behalf of dumb animals. They suffer like you, they hunger and thirst and wish for kinder treatment. They are helpless in the hands of man. God gave us dominion over animals that we might protect them and be aided and be made happy by them. Be a lover of animals and help to protect them. The Red Cloud Creamery Association has leased its property to George Trine and the Beatrice Creamery Company for an indefinite period. The stock holders here will receive a royalty on all cream bought. They reserve the right to take over the property when ever they desire. Under the management of Mr. Trine this station promises to be one of the best in the state. The Rebekahs at their last meeting installed their officers. Mrs. Nannie Hale District Deputy President installed the following officers:—Mrs. Lottie Smith N. G., Mrs. Alice Runchey V. G., Miss Carrie Holsworth Sec., O. C. Toel Treas., and the other officers. After the installation ice cream and cake was served by the second division. A good time was had by all present. Some time ago a young married woman of town, whose name we omit, made a curious blunder. She put some eggs on to boil soon after breakfast one morning. They were still on when he came home at dinner time. Upon her husband asking what was in the saucepan, she answered: "Eggs for your dinner. They have been on since soon after breakfast. I have tried them with a fork and they are not boiled yet." His astonishment may rather be better imagined than described. And the mere mention of eggs now brings a rosy blush to her face.

Passed Away.
Nelson Longtin was born November 14, 1857 and died at his home in this city Monday, August 8, 1910 after several years illness. Mr. Longtin has been actively engaged in business in this city for several years. He was a kind man and a good neighbor and his many friends will be pained to hear of his death. He leaves a wife, three sons and two daughters to mourn his departure. He has lived in this city for many years and has made hosts of friends. He was a member of the Catholic church and the funeral was conducted at that church this morning by Father Fitzgerald. Interment took place in the Catholic cemetery. The Chief extends sympathy to the bereaved family.

Obituary
Wm. B. Cramer was born near Clevelton, Ohio, April 16, 1848 and died August 6, 1910. When a young man he went to Lawrenceburg, Indiana with his sister and her husband in 1866, making his home with them for several years. In 1868 he accompanied them to Mattoon, Ill. In August 1873 he in company with Isaac Cowley and Wm. Britton (his brother-in-law) took homesteads on the divide near where Bladen now stands the first settlers on the divide without a house or neighbor in sight. He commenced to open up his claim but the next year the grasshoppers devoured every bit of his crop and he was forced to go to the eastern part of the state to work to get enough to start again. By industry and economy he accumulated a good farm and some city property. He was married to Adelia Garlock April 13th, 1875 and resided on his homestead until about five years ago he moved to Red Cloud. He leaves three sons Harry, Howard and Claude, two daughters Mrs. Chas. Cowley and Mrs. Oley Iverson and a devoted wife to mourn his departure. We lose a good neighbor, a kind friend, one who has set a goodly example. He was laid to rest in the Plainview cemetery near Bladen.

Metcalf for Senator.
The complication of the United States senatorship presents a problem which the democratic party must solve next Tuesday. In view of the conditions in the state of Nebraska it would seem that the democratic candidate that would best meet the emergency is Richard L. Metcalf. He is one of the ablest democrats in the nation, one whose opinion and influence are sought by all. Vote for Metcalf the biggest man by all odds running for senator on any ticket. He stands for all that is good in politics and morality. He is upright, clean, straightforward and honest. Nebraska can well afford to intrust her interests to him. VOTE FOR METCALFE.

For Attorney General.
Mr. Menzo W. Terry of Gage County, is an active candidate for the nomination for the office of Attorney General for the Democratic and People's Independent party and if nominated will be a strong candidate at the November election. Mr. Terry was elected County Attorney of Gage County four years ago by a large majority, although the normal Republican majority was usually about 1500; he made a splendid record in the office but was not a candidate for a second term. Mr. Terry is one of the strong democratic leaders of southeastern Nebraska; bears a splendid reputation for honesty and integrity and the voters of Webster County will make no mistake in supporting him at this time. Mr. Terry has many friends and acquaintances in Webster county, having frequently visited here with his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Seaton.

Notice
Parties holding checks of the Red Cloud Creamery Association are requested to present same for payment at the Webster County Bank, and same will be paid. Parties to whom the Creamery is indebted for cream and cream hauling are requested to call at the above bank and receive their checks. There will be a meeting of the stock holders of the Creamery held at the Court House on Saturday, Aug. 13th, at 2 p. m. J. F. BECKLES, President.

OLD AGE.
We wish to say a few words for the old folks, believing that the infirmities of advanced years are often treated with an indifference that is hard to bear. Not by all, of course, for there are many, we will hope the majority, that are thoughtful of the aged and kind to them. Then again, there are others who, to put it mildly, are harsh and cold. It is very natural to smile on what is lovely and strong, and frown on the reverse without even observing that we do so; and it often follows, with the young especially, that as they look on the furrowed face, the dim eyes, the trembling hands, the tottering, uncertain steps of an old man or woman, they seem to forget that in that warm and homely prison house are a heart and soul which yearn for recognition, for kindness in word and deed, and a little love, with an intensity that youth in its fullness does not know. They must forget, or one would not so often hear such remarks as, "Oh, grandma, don't bother; grandpa forgets everything; grandma, what do you want to go for? Old folks ought to be contented at home!" In our words to others, in all our dealings with them, it is our duty to stop and think; and with the old it is positive cruelty not to do so. It is down hill, remember; a hill with steep, stony paths, and at its foot there is only a grave. Don't by impatient words and looks push them along its precipitous ways; don't bruse their weary feet with rocks of ridicule and unneeded jest; don't glaze that downward slope with the ice of indifference; and, above all, don't hang on every bush and boulder placards of their own deterioration. It is not necessary to remind them that they have left their prime and strength behind. They know it; none so well. Yes, let us sometimes stop and think; let us turn from our own ambition; from our ambitious for our children and bend a hand to the old folks. Let us smooth their path, let them lean on us as they step over the steep ledges and let us warm the chill of that bleak hill side with sympathy and love. Let us give them back all they gave in other days and give with interest; for, believe us however useless you may deem them now, you will miss them when they are gone. It may be as you stand by their coffins; it may be in years to come, when you tread the path once was theirs; you will stop and think; thoughts will come. Then God help you! God help us all. That in those thoughts there may not be that word of flame—re-morse.
